

... persons were returned yesterday at Doneraile for the same, and Mr. Godfrey Twiss refusing to give security, was committed to Cork Jail.

The Mayor and Magistrates this day ordered informations against a journeyman watchmaker of Messrs. Smith and Gamble, Patrick-street, for embezzling some valuable property of his employers, from whom he had a guinea a-week wages, besides board and lodging. The Magistrates also granted a warrant to recover part of the stolen property, supposed to be in Dublin,—and the offender, a young man of respectable appearance, was committed to gaol.

The Lord Bishop of Killaloe held an Ordination at his Cathedral on Sunday, when the following Deacons were admitted into the order of Priesthood:—Rev. George Lawless, Henry Sadler, Thos. Walker, John Leekey Russell, John Vere Benson, Hans Butler, James Bennett, Joseph White, Mervy Wilson, Thomas M'Callan, John Wade, Thomas Knox, and John Brownlow.—The following were admitted into the order of Deacons—Messrs. Thomas G. Joyce, Henry Stannard, John Elmes, Henry H. Jones Westley, Noah Sydney Hickey, James Going, James Martin, Ralph Bridge, Wm. M'Callen, Walker Young, Wm Spelling, Thos. St. George, Hugh L. Baker, Keffington Thompson, James Rynd, Josiah Crampton, George Kemmis, Maurice M'Kay, Henry Murphy, Joseph F. Robbins, Adam Boyd, Thomas Atkinson, and John Noble.

We are happy to hear that our fellow citizen Mr. Donat O'Loughlin, was amongst the number of Graduates who obtained their diplomas in Medicine at the University of Edinburgh, on 12th July ult.

The Lord Lieutenant, acting on the report of Sergeant O'Loughlin, does not consider it necessary to institute further proceedings regarding the late Blarney meeting, and he is gratified to see there is no ground for imputing improper interference to the Civil or Military Authorities on that occasion.

Those persons who took part in the Anti-tythe meeting in the West of this County, have been bailed before the Magistrates at Petty Sessions, to answer the charges of the Attorney General at the approaching Assizes.

We understand that a Magistrate who presided at an Anti-tythe meeting in this County, has sent in his resignation of the Commission of the Peace.

The tythe proctors valuing a district near Glin, were compelled to give over their work by a lawless mob who drove them into that town.

The country about Athlaca, beyond Bruff, in this County, was in a blaze on Monday night. No cause is assigned for it.

Mr. William S. O'Brien has changed his mind, and will not stand for the representation of Ennis.

Mr. Shapland Carew will again present himself for the representation of the County Wexford.

Mr. Kelly, Sovereign of Armagh is a candidate for representing that City.

The candidates for the representation of Belfast, are Lord Arthur Chichester, Wm. Sharman Crawford, and Robert J. Tennent, Esqrs.; another candidate is confidently spoken of but not named. The Hon. Col. Pakenham has been solicited to offer himself, but he has declined.

Lords Tullamore and Oxmantown have commenced an active canvass for the King's County, under very favourable auspices.

Thomas S. Harvey is appointed Agent to the West of England Insurance Office at Waterford, vice William Lumsden.

The Conservatives are determined to re-elect Mr. Shaw for Dublin, and a second Protestant Member if possible.—The freemen of Dublin are 5000, of which number the Guild of Merchants includes 1500.

Dr. Macartney, Professor of Anatomy in Trinity College, will be nominated by a number of the electors for the representation of that University.

The situation of King's Professor of Medicine in Dunn's Hospital, Dublin, vacant by the death of Dr. Leahy, will be filled up the 18th December next, by election.

A situation in the Medical Staff of the County Infirmary is vacant by the death of Dr. Grogan of this City.

The Earl of Shrewsbury has given £50 to the Wexford Fever Hospital.

The proceedings of the latest meeting of the Irish Conservative Society are amply detailed in first page; the receipts of the Society now average £800 a week.

Two cows were sold for tythes in Tralee this week, under protection of a company of the 32d Regiment.

On Wednesday night the house of J. Meade, a dairyman, near Caherconlish, was entered and robbed of two firkins of butter.

Six farm-houses were destroyed by fire at Kilmacthomas, near Waterford, this week.

An unfortunate man was killed on Friday night, on his return from Tipperary, in consequence of coming in contact with a young horse, which a horse-rider of the name of Begley was riding at the time; the horse came with such force against the unfortunate man that he was instantly killed. At the inquest a verdict of Accidental Death was returned.

Honora Ahern was committed to the City Gaol on Wednesday night, for stabbing with a knife Catherine Regan in old Clare-street, where the prisoner keeps a huxter shop, and after a dispute with the other woman about an old debt, which led to a personal assault, the prisoner ran back into her shop, and seizing a bread knife stabbed Catherine Regan thrice, inflicting severe, but, it is hoped, not dangerous wounds on her person. This day the Magistrates ordered informations against the prisoner.

Thomas Coulter, Esq. of Newtown, county Louth, to Mary, eldest daughter of James Sheils, Esq. Poler, county Meath.

At Kilcoo, county of Down, by the Rev. Thomas Sutton, Rector of Clangill, county meath, Arthur Jones of Killicarrick, in the county of Wicklow, Esq. to Catherine, eldest daughter of William S. Hill, of Bryansford, Esq.

On Tuesday morning, at St. Peter's Church, Cork, by the Rev. W. C. Neligan, Anthony Gordon Feardon, Lieutenant of his Majesty's 29th Regiment, to Miss Charlotte Stonehouse, of Cork.

On Saturday morning last, in Lisnore, county Cork, by the Rev. J. Poole, Mr. Robert Ludgate, to Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. Denis Maginn, both of Fermoy.

John Ferguson, Esq. of Clashganny, county Carlow, to Matilda, daughter of the late Charles O'Donnell, of Belfast, Esq.

On Tuesday morning, at Kilmahon Church, by the Rev. Mr. Wilkinson, Abraham Travers, Esq. to Miss Mary Wigmore, both of Cloyne.

DEATHS.

Wednesday evening at Mallow, for which he had only left this City the day previous, Richard Grogan, Esq. M. D. one of the senior Physicians in this City, and a gentleman highly respectable.

Thursday evening, at Russell-Place, very sincerely regretted, Mrs. Marrett, relict of the late William Marrett, Esq. of this City.

On Thursday, in George's-street, Mrs. Fitzgerald, relict of the late John Magrath Fitzgerald, of Redmonstown, Co. Tipperary, Esq. The death of this highly respectable Lady was caused by the afflicting visitation of having lost her four sons in a comparatively short period of time. Her remains will be interred on Monday next, in the family vault, at Cashel.

On Wednesday in Nicholas-street, near the Artillery-Barracks, Mrs. Alicia Crothers, sister to William Porter, Esq. of Wilmount, Co. Dublin.

Yesterday, in Glentworth-street, of cholera, Mrs. Young. In Mungret-street, Mr. Samuel Williams, formerly of the Cathedral Choir.

At Mardyke, this morning, of Cholera, Mrs. Smith.

In Tralee, of cholera, Miss Anne M'Carthy, eldest daughter of Mr. John M'Carthy, Proprietor of Ashgrove Flour Mills.

At Cheltenham, Lieutenant-Colonel Aubery, one of the most bold and adventurous sportsmen of the last half century.

In Kilkenny, of cholera, William Cormick, Esq. Solicitor.

At Edinburgh, of cholera, the Rev. Dr. Robertson.

Charlotte, relict of General George Warde.

In Clonmel, at an advanced age, Mr. Patrick English.

In Belfast, Alexander Alexander, Esq. a highly respectable inhabitant of that town. He died of a few hours illness after arriving from the Isle of Man.

In Bishop-street, Derry, Mr. John Campbell, sen. Saddler, aged 81 years.

At Cossey Hall, the son of the Hon. Edward Stafford Jerningham.

In the 19th year of her age, at Jaula, near Bombay, East Indies, of fever, twelve days after being delivered of a son, Margaret, the Lady of George Sackville Cotter, Esq. of the Royal Horse Artillery, and eldest daughter of the Rev. Wm. Butler, of Ballyhooly, county Cork.

At Kilmeena, near Newport, of cholera, at a very advanced age, the Rev. Thomas Keane, for many years Parish Priest of that district. He was an excellent and exemplary clergyman of the old school.

In Ballina, John Smith, Esq. only son of Captain Smith, of the Royal Artillery.

At Annadale, near Belfast, James Trail Kennedy, Esq.

In Cork, after her confinement, Mrs. Lane, who for many years conducted a most respectable Boarding School, for the education of young Ladies.

At Passage West, Cork, of Cholera, Thomas Russell, Esq. late Lieutenant and Adjutant of the 1st Royals, and Barrackmaster of Mill-street.

At Ballincollig, very deservedly regretted, Mr. Matthew Horogan.

At Ahaurin, County Cork. Elizabeth Gordon, widow of William Crooke, late of Killcondy, Esq.

Mrs. Atkinson, widow of the late Peter Atkinson, Esq. of Lower Bridge-street, after a few hours illness.

In Sligo, of cholera, Mrs. Crawford, wife of Nicholas Crawford, Esq.—T. Algeo, Esq.—Mrs. Burrowes.—In Hart.—The Rev. Mr. Wilson, Baptist Minister.—Serjeant Major Ralph of the Sligo Militia, and Mrs. Davis, wife of Mr. Davis, Land-waiter.

Suddenly, at Phibbsborough, Mr. Henry Beamish, for several years confidential assistant to Mr. Littledale, Auctioneer.

In the 60th year of her age, Frances, eldest daughter of the late Dr. Carter, of Meclenburgh-street, Dublin.

At Epsom, the Rev. Edward Bridges Richards, aged 28.

At Shepperton, in his 70th year, Charles Greville, Esq. of George-street, Hanover-square.

At Bologne, the Rev. John Fisher, Archdeacon of Berks.

In the dock-yard at Sheerness, the daughter of Captain King, C. B.

In Queen-square, Westminster, Thomas Gibson, Esq. banker, of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, aged 72.

Of cholera, Mr. Charles Day Simpson, 29 years in the Secretary's Office, Somerset-house.

At Carlisle, on his way to Edinburgh, Robert Spotteswood, Esq. King's Printer.

At Poole, Captain William Richardson, Royal Navy, son of Lieut. David Richardson, of Passage.

will appear on reference to the present laloe, whose demesne and apartments ducted.

Any commands addressed to I. A. A. of Killaloe, or to Mr. John Abraham, George's-street, Limerick, shall be duly

C. 2/2

AUCTION

Trinidad Sug

TO CLOSE SALE

LARGE, ADAMS AI

WILL offer for Sale by AUCTION of H. N. SEYMOUR & Co Limerick, on TUESDAY the 18th inst. 90 Hogsheads, Trinidad

Terms at Sale, and Depos

Just Published

A LETTER

ADDRESSED TO

THE PRESIDENT AND

OF THE

Limerick Board

ON THE TREATMENT

SPASMODIC CHOLERA

BY JOHN SMITH TH

Licentiate of the Royal College of Surgeons

PRICE, ONE SHILLING

To be had at the different Booksellers

WAVERLY NOVELS

1st Series

VOLUME FORTY, which concludes is published this day. The illustrations by W. Collins.

VOLUME FORTY ONE to be published will comprise—

THE HIGHLAND WIDOW,

THE TWO DROVERS,

MY AUNT MARGARET'S MISSION,

THE TAPESTRYED CHAMBER,

THE LAIRD'S LOCK.

(The Tale of the SURGEON'S DAUGHTER appears in an after Volume.)

VOLUMES FORTY-TWO and FORTY-THREE comprising THE MAID OF PERTH, November and 1st December; and the series regularly on the first day of each month, the Author's Works of Fiction are completed.

Printed for Robert Cadell, Edinburgh

MING, Dublin.

Who have just published

WAVERLY NOVELS, NEW ISSUES

FRAGMENTS OF VOYAGES AND TRAVELS

CAPTAIN BASIL HALL, R.N. Second Edition. 3 vols. 15s.

CAPTAIN HALL'S FRAGMENTS. Second Edition. 3 vols. 15s.

CAPTAIN HALL'S TRAVELS IN AFRICA. Third Edition, with additions. £1 11s. 6d. Plates separately, 10s. 6d.

THE COOK'S ORACLE. A New Edition. MRS. DALGAIN'S COOKERY. 6d.

The Mills of Ross

TO BE LET, and immediate possession term as may be agreed on, the above together with an excellent Dwelling HOUSE

Acres of prime Land attached thereto.

These MILLS are in thorough Work and constant supply of Water, and situate within walk of this City.

Application to THOMAS W. MOORE, Esq. at Law, at his Office, 33, Patrick-street, Dublin.

County of Tipperary

TO BE LET, for such Term as may be agreed on, a

House, Offices, and Demesne of NOBLES, situated in the Ormond, near the Dublin Mail-Coach, about five miles of an excellent Post and Market Town good Corn County, and in the centre of the County. The House is modern and convenient, with a

Parlour, Drawing-room, five Bed-chambers, a derground Storey, and fit for the immediate residence of a respectable family. The Lands, which are in the

are in excellent heart, the Garden is in good

Proposals (post-paid) will be received by

Rathcornick; JOHN PEPPER, Esq. or JAMES

Esq. Nenagh.

A Lease for ever can be had

At