Dr. JAMES BARRY.—Among the events which have transpired during the prevalence of the calamity which still hangs in awful darkness and mystery over our sister city, none is, perhaps, more deeply to be regretted than the death of the gentleman whose name heads this brief notice, Doctor Barry, who fell a victim to the Cholera on Monday in Cork.

At a Meeting held this day at the Commercial Buildings, for the purpose of procuring aid for the Mendicity Institution, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted:—

Resolved—That the claims of this Institution, founded on that charity, due to our distressed fellow-creatures, as well as a means of suppressing vice and diminishing the spread of contagion, have a paramount claim on the support of the Citizens, and of all connected with this City by locality and property.

Resolved—Therefore, that to give as much effect as possible to those claims, we do adjourn to Wednesday, the 3d October, in order to insure such a meeting of the Citizens as it is hoped will place the Institution on a permanent and efficient basis.

Resolved—That the following nine Gentlemen be requested to prepare Resolutions to be submitted to the consideration of that meeting:—

The Hon. J. P. Vereker, M.P. Rt. Rev. Doctor Ryan, Very Rev. Doctor Foster, Very Rev. Doctor Hogan, Venerable Archdeacon Mannsall, Sam. Dickson, Esq., James O'Neill, Esq., William Roche, Esq. Hez. O'Callaghan, Esq. and Patt. W. Creagh, Esq.

Resolved—That we cannot separate without expressing our deep regret that a Meeting convened by public Advertisement, for the support of an Institution of such pressing necessity, and such vital importance to all classes of our fellow-citizens, should not be more numerously attended.

The Mayor having left the chair, and the Right Rev. Dr. Ryan being called thereto, Proposed by John O'Grady, Esq.—seconded by the Very Rev. Dr. Hogan.

Resolved—That the best thanks of this Meeting are due and hereby given to the Hon. and Right Worshipful the Mayor, for his very dignified conduct in the Chair. September 21.

HOUSE TO BE LET,

AND IMMEDIATE POSSESSION GIVEN, HOUSE IN THE GLANTHURST, LIMERICK.

ADDRESS TO CAPTAIN DILLON, 64th Regiment.

WE, the Magistrates of the district of Tullamore, assembled at Petty Sessions, take this early opportunity of conveying to you our sincere regret at your departure.

In your character as a Magistrate you have acted with vigour and strict impartiality, and in no instance have we observed the civil duties which you were called upon to perform, partake of any connexion with the more immediate offices which your command of the troops in our town might naturally lead us to expect.

As a Brother Magistrate, we shall long feel your loss, and as a friend we most anxiously hope that a cessation for a time from the more active duties of your profession may so re-establish your health as to enable you to resume that course of life for which you seem so eminently qualified.

TULLAMORE. BARRY FOX. WM. WALLACE. A. ANDREWS. W. JARLTON. FRANCIS BERRY. JAMES CRAWFORD.

ANSWER.

MY LORD AND GENTLEMEN, I feel the most grateful sense of the honour you have conferred on me in conveying to me your sincere regret at my departure, which I beg to assure you is much more than reciprocal on my part.

In my Magisterial duties which met your approbation, I acted from the upright impartial example set before me by your respectable Bench under which I commenced my Magisterial novitiate.

Though my personal exertions assisting to preserve the peace of your district have impaired my health most materially, yet the honour you have done me is to me most exhilarating.

As a Magistrate, your friend, and a soldier, you have my most ardent wishes for your welfare, and that of all my friends in your respectable town and district.

I have the honour to be, my Lord and Gentlemen, Your most obedient and grateful servant, A. DILLON, Captain 64th Regiment, Justice of Peace for King's, Queen's, and Westmeath Counties.
