

has been deferred.

In the case of Lieut. Gerard, 92d Highlanders, v Scully and Lynch, tried at our last assizes, the Court of King's Bench this week granted a conditional order to set aside the verdict.

The Court of King's Bench, has also granted a conditional order for a criminal information against Thomas Darcy of Galway, Esq. at the suit of John and Andrew Irwin, of Roscommon, Esqrs. for acts tending to provoke a breach of the peace.

Major-General Sir James Douglas arrived in this garrison yesterday from Tralee, on a tour of inspection.

Captain Boyes of the 64th Regiment, died on Monday of Cholera at Gort; also, a servant of Major Freeth, the same corps.

Lieut. Colonel Fleming, 24th Regiment, and family, Doctor Byott, 24th, Lieut. General Murry, and Capt. England, Royal Artillery, landed at Liverpool from Quebec on Wednesday last.

Captain Slater, 27th Regiment, removed his party from the Chapel of Newport Prat, county Mayo, on Sunday, in consequence of the Priest advertising at the Altar to Politics.

Captain Moriarty's company of the 76th have arrived at Roscommon.

His Majesty's ship Romney is daily expected at Cove to convey Lieut. Colonel Sir Michael Creagh (86th), Lady Creagh, Lieut. Wilson, 65th, and the different drafts for corps in the West Indies, to their destination.

The Government of the different West India Islands is in future to be confided to the Officer commanding Regiments there. This will add considerably to the pay and patronage of deserving soldiers.

We received letters from the Royals at Dominica, yesterday, from which we extract the following:—"Our detachment at Morne Bruce is in good health at present, very few in hospital, and no bad cases. The hurricane month is nigh at a close, during which season the weather was favourable; we had some high winds and very heavy rains, accompanied with thunder and lightning, nothing however to injure the planter or his dwelling. The crops of every kind have a fine appearance—in particular the sugar cane."

The Hon. Charles Skeffington Clements, third son of the Earl of Leitrim, is slowly recovering from a dangerous accident which recently befel him. Mr. Clements, who is a lieutenant in the 37th Foot, was stationed with his corps at Youghal, when he engaged with three of his brother officers in a steeple chase, which took place on the Waterford side of the river Blackwater. Although an excellent horseman, by one of those accidents so usual in these rash undertakings, he sustained a serious fall, by which his right shoulder was dislocated, in addition to other severe injuries.

The 68th Light Infantry will be inspected early next week by Major-General Sir Edward Blakeney, in Dublin.

Captain Stannus, 97th Regiment, has been appointed Aide-de-Camp to his Excellency the Right Hon. the Governor of Ceylon.

Thomas Marshall, private of the 60th Rifles, was indicted at Clonmel Assizes for uttering base coin, but the Crown declined prosecuting, and the prisoner was acquitted. The charge was for having one bad shilling in his possession.

The head quarters of the 58th Reserve from Fermoy are now at Butterant—two companies are at Mallow, and one at Kanterk.

The 32d reserve companies at Tralee, were inspected on Wednesday, by Major-General Sir James Douglas.

A troop of the 5th Dragoon Guards, under the command of Captain Hunter, has marched from Kilkenny for Carlow; and a half troop of the same regiment is arrived in Kilkenny from Thomastown. There is of cavalry in Kilkenny but a troop and a half of the 5th Dragoon Guards.

The half brigade of artillery, which had been quartered in Kilkenny for the last few weeks, marched on Monday for Clonmel. They were accompanied as far as Callan, by a detachment of the 5th Dragoon Guards, under the command of Lieut. Beville. The Dragoons returned the same day, and the Artillery marched on to Clonmel.

Two soldiers of the 68th Regiment were attacked by cholera, whilst on the Royal Hospital Guard, Dublin, a few nights since, but were largely bled by the assistant-surgeon, and are now doing well.

Colonel Herbert of the India Company's Service, son of an eminent portrait painter in Dublin, is to command the expedition from Madras to Malacca, comprising a regiment of Native Infantry, and a battalion of European Artillery.

Mr. John Hagerty has been appointed Billet-Master for Cork, vice Mr. Wherland.

Colonel O'Malley, of the 88th Regiment at Corfu, has subscribed £3 to the fund for purchasing a service of plate for Mr. St. Clair O'Malley, of Castlebar, whose exertions to mitigate the ravages of Cholera have been most laudable.

Yesterday, 138 female convicts sailed from Cork, in the Surrey transport, for New South Wales.

Rev. M. O'Connor thankfully acknowledges the receipt of £10 from Samuel Dickson, Esq. for the repairs of St. John's Chapel.

Rev. Thomas Enraght, thankfully acknowledges the receipt of the following sums for to purchase clothing for the children of the St. Clare Convent:—A Lady, 8s. 6d. Collector Vanderkiste, £1; Croker Barrington, Esq. R.N. £1; M. Barrington, Esq. £1; John Norris Russell, Esq. £1; Arthur Evans, Esq. 10s; Mr. W. Humphries, thirty yards Callico.

Raymond, Esq. of Dromin House, county Kerry.

In Tralee church, by the Rev. A. Mackintosh, Richard Poole, Esq. assistant-surgeon of the 32d depot stationed there, to Jane, second daughter of the late Pierce Chute, Esq. of Upper Castle-street, Tralee.

Yesterday, in Sexton-street, Mr. Charles Allen, to Anne, fourth daughter of Mr. George Hall, of the Excise department of this City.

Justin M'Carthy, of Gardiner's-place, Dublin, and Carrigatuba, county Tipperary, Esq. to Sarah, eldest daughter of John M'Mahon, of Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin, Esq.

At Castletown church, Queen's County, by the Rev. R. Cooper, William Fitzmaurice, of Belview, Esq. son of John Fitzmaurice, of Carlow, Esq. to Anne Frances, only daughter of the late Major Hodson, of Fitzgibbon-street, Dublin.

At Carlow, G. Luther, Esq. of Clonmel, to Miss Fitzmaurice.

At St. Anne Shandon, by the Rev. James White, of Fermoy, Robert Handyside, Esq. R.N. son to John Handyside, of Albeny-place, Edinburgh, to Letitia, daughter of Isaac Bell, Esq. of Cork.

At St. George's, Hanover-square, and afterwards at the Catholic Chapel, Warwick-street, the Hon. Frederick Longworth Brown, youngest son of the late and brother to the present Lord Kilmaine, to Lucy, only daughter of Sir James and Lady Frances Wedderburne, of Chesterfield-street, Mayfair.

At Youghal, Mr. John Gard, of Fermoy, to Anne, only daughter of Mr. John Parker, of Youghal.

In Blackrock, Cork. Michael Dominick Forrest, to Mary Agnes Scannell, both of Cork.

In St. Andrew's church, Dublin, Daniel Laurence, Esq. of Eustace-street, to Jane, second daughter of J. Grey, Esq. of Lugbegg, county Wicklow.

Michael Sheridan, Esq. of Castlebar, to Fanny, youngest daughter of the late Mr. John Hayes.

In Sligo, Dr. Macurdy, of Milburn-house, Castlefin, to Miss Eliza, daughter of the late William Henry, Esq. of Sligo.

Michael M'Donnell, Esq. of Killahan, county Roscommon, to Margaret Louisa, third daughter of the late Richard Prendergast, Esq.

At Belfast, Thomas Read, Esq. M.D. of Coleraine, to Harriet Helena, daughter of the late Rev. James Frail Sturrock, Rector of Seapatrik, and grand-daughter of the late Rev. William Sturrock, D.D. Archdeacon of Armagh.

DEATHS.

At South-Hill, near this city, Mrs. H. Gabbett, relict of the late Joseph Gabbett, of Mount-Minnett, Esq. in this County.

At Ruheen, Scariff, William W. Brady, Esq. Royal Navy, aged 22 years, and brother of Luke Brady, Esq. Lieutenant 6th infantry, stationed at Bombay.

In Clare-street, Mary, second daughter of Mr. William Cardiff, architect.

In Upper Mount-street, Dublin, Mr. Colpoys Abbott, youngest son of Alderman Abbott. He was Surgeon Carmichael's resident pupil at the Richmond Hospital, and would have been an ornament to his Profession if he had been spared. His humanity to his poor patients was unbounded; he got a fever by over fatigue in discharging his duties, and has been called at the early age of 21 years by his Heavenly Father, on whose mercy he had a firm reliance, through the merits of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

In Hatton-gardon, the Rev. John James, one of the General Secretaries to the Wesleyan Missionary Society.

At an advanced age, at Hadley, Middlesex, Elizabeth, the wife of Joseph Darby, Esq. formerly Captain of the Royal Regiment of Horse Guards.

In Killarney, of cholera, in the 20th year of her age, Miss Anne Eager, only daughter of the late John Eager, of Milltown, Esq.

Of a rapid decline, in the 22d year of his age, Mr. George H. Burne, Whitworth-row.

Hercules Atkin, Esq. of Enniscorthy, solicitor.

At the house of her brother, in Shandon-street, Cork, Mary, wife of Mr. William Ahera, of Bishop's Town.

At Bathview, near Mallow, after a protracted illness, which she bore with Christian piety and calm resignation; Catherine, the wife of Owen O'Callaghan, Esq. and daughter to the late Jeremiah Lynch, Esq. of Killeullen.

At her house in Molesworth-street, Dublin, Mrs. Hackett, in the 79th year of her age.

At Dominica, West Indies, Deputy Assistant Commissary-General Charles Monk, Colonial Aide-de-Camp to his Excellency the Governor, and nephew to Sir William Garrow, and one of the Barons of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer. The funeral was attended by the whole of the left wing, Royal Regiment, the Governor and his staff, with all the officers of the garrison. The procession presented an interesting but mournful scene.

In Russell-square, London, in the 71st year of his age, the Right Hon. Lord Charles Tenterden, Lord Chief Justice of his Majesty's Court of King's Bench.

At Dedham, London, in the 69th year of her age, Jenney, relict of Captain James Welsh, R.N.

Sunday night last, after a short illness, the Rev. W. White, Minister of the Catholic chapel, Copperas-hill, Liverpool.

Lately, aged 103. Mr. Wm. Branan, of Rochdale.—Deceased, a native of Ireland, retained his mental and bodily faculties to the last. When turned 100 he walked from Rochdale to Nottingham, 80 miles, in two days; and within the last six months, walked from Rochdale to Manchester and back, 21 miles, in one day. He has lived to see his descendants to the fourth generation arrive at maturity.

instant period, ensure the downfall of
To seek, with a fair and equitable all vested rights and existing interest reformation of the Tithe System, an Property in general—convinced as any tax levied under the name and Tithes will be obnoxious and hostile
of the country, and that the prese Church Rates should be no longer s main a subject of irritation and just
To carry the principle of Constituti
into full and salutary effect, advocati
and amendment (where necessary)
Jury and other Jury Laws, and the s of all laws for the preservation of protection of life, liberty, and pro
the administration of justice may b speedy, as well as impartial. We o going merely as a manifestation of t on which a moderate party may bene pose between the extremes of discor
in this County, and we trust that Ca
come forward, who will be entitled t
their accordance with those princip
stake in the County, by their charac
pectability. It is on those qualificati stituency of the County should, in c rely for a faithful execution of the tr
General Declarations of principles called for, and should not be withl deem it unnecessary to require any sp
from a Candidate qualified to seek a liament for the County, avowing th herein referred to, or entitled by his duct to our confidence and support!

[Here follows a number of Signat

Arts and Science

D. C. MINAHAN, P

HAVING been encouraged since his lat
City, by the auspicious persuasion o
and distinguished characters, now continues Young Ladies and Gentlemen at their respec
in the following Arts and Sciences, viz:—W
Accompts, English Grammar, and Geogra
Geometry, (Mensuration,) with Piano Forte Music, Drawing
and Perspective, (as it regards design.)

Under the head of Writing will be compr Hand, Text-Hand, Printing, &c. &c. Also,
with elegance, and means of abbreviating t considered superfluous to say anything in be HAN'S acknowledged professional ability in th
tag: it is now established upon to firm a b aid of Words. However, he takes his opp prise these intended for the literary vocations,
now acquire an invaluable system of Stenogr Hand Writing, which not only embraces mor
abbreviations, but unites the peculiar advan
senting all the familiar words in the Lang characters, and writing whole sentences with Pen!!!

Under the head of Accompts, will be i keeping on a new and improved plan. In solicits particular attention to his Compendium calculations, or Mental Arithmetic; which with such uncommon brevity, as to render object of admiration.

As the utility of an English Education is felt, particularly by those who would make splendid Republic of Letters, he has devot
ordinary attention to this branch of his prof
this City he now stands unrivalled in the scien Philology. The same might be said of Musi &c. which he would remark, respectively up patiate farther on the subject would, he pres unnecessary, and but merely intruding on the tention of the public. He only hopes now to the honourable and conspicuous patronage so stowed on his family during a course of near by the first families and Schools of Ireland lately in this City for the last fifteen or twenty
a circumstance that has led him to perceive th
al, and, at the same time, expeditious metho
ing youth in the above departments.

From his own Professional Practices, he has such abridged and familiar methods of instructi
to annihilate the frightful labour that has frequ
many from ever acquiring, even the indispensab ments of Life. He therefore offers an opportuni in a few Lessons, attainments that otherwis
years to accomplish.

All on the most moderate Terms.

Any Commands left at Mr. B. O'Brien's O'Brien's (Bookseller and Stationer) George meet immediate attention. No