many benefits it will confer upon the greater portion of society, Many valuable and talented individuals who would be orna- ments to the senate, have been rejected on the principle of their not pledging to repeal, whilst men of minor claims have been preferred for the sake of that all-important question, REPEAL. I perceive the talented Editor of the Freeman has warmly espoused the cause of Mr. S. Dickson as a Repealer, in preference to Mr. William Roche, a gentleman for whom no individual among the respectable classes which surround him can entertain a warmer friendship, or a more sincere de- sire than I do, that honors and happiness should attend all his efforts through life. But I do prefer that this city shall be represented by TWO Repealers, in place of ONE. Acting under this consistent principle, and opposed in it so violently by you, Mr. Earaght, I am led to question your integrity as a Repealer; but, nobis non opus est Mr. Dickson requested of me to introduce him to a few tenants of mine on George's- quay. My reply was, that if Colonel Evans and Mr. Moore started for Limerick, I would not. They having declined, time advancing, no second Repealer in the field that I could prefer to Mr. Dickson, my best judgment led me to give him any little support in my power. Had Mr. Roche taken up Repeal, he should have had my warmest support; but I maintain taking up Mr. Roche, high and honorable as he is, without a pledge to Repeal, is an insult to every Irishman who will be rejected on that principle.

I am not the eulogist or the censurer of Mr. Dickson, but as a Clergyman or a Christian, I would be ashamed to stand up in a public meeting and lacerate the character of a Gentleman, whose acts of liberality and benevolence, are recorded in every Chapel and Public Institution of our City.

I have to thank you, Mr. Editor, for your indulgence of space, and have the honor to be, Sir, your much obliged and humble servant,

Gentlemen,
Your most obedient, and humble Servant,
Dec. 12. GODFREY MASSY.

TO THE ELECTORS OF THE COUNTY OF CLARE.

A DISSOLUTION of Parliament having again taken place, I have the honor to solicit, for the third time, a renewal of the confidence you have on former occasions reposed in me. My political sentiments are so well known, and have been so often recorded, that I need hardly refer you to them.

I yield to no man in attachment to my King, and the REAL CONSTITUTION OF MY COUNTRY; but, Gentlemen, allow me to assure you, that from the earliest period of my political life, I considered a removal of the abuses of the Church Establishment, and a Repeal of the Legislative Union, so indispensably necessary for the happiness and prosperity of Ireland, that I never ceased to deplore their existence. These, my earliest opinions, remain unaltered and expressly correspond with my sentiments in 1799, when I had the honor, as Sheriff of this County, to preside over a meeting held for the purpose of petitioning the Irish Parlia- ment against that baneful and impolitic measure, the Act of Union with Great Britain. If I should be so fortunate as to become the object of your choice, as a Representative in the ensuing Parliament, I assure you that to aid in the accomplishment of these great national measures shall be the highest object of my ambition.

I have the honor to remain
Your faithful servant,
Ennis, December 8. WM. N. MACNAMARA.

TO THE ELECTORS OF CLARE.

HAVING ascertained on my canvass, this day, that my Address does not appear to you sufficiently explicit of my sentiments as regards "The Repeal of the Union," I feel no reluctance in pledging myself to the advocacy of that great measure—It is now more than two years since I en- deavoured to get up a requisition to the High Sherriff of this County, to convene a meeting to petition parliament for Repeal, and which requisition was sent to Sir E. O'Brien, as well as many other gentlemen, for their signatures, which they refused. You have now my sentiments distinctly ex- pressed on this vital question, and I shall be ready to reite- rate them on the hustings.

I am your devoted servant,
CORNELIUS O'BRIEN.

Killaly, the Commissioners' Engineer, No. 8, Talbot-street, Dublin.

The Tenders sealed and endorsed, "Tender for the Works of the Galway Docks," and addressed to the Commissioners, under cover to their Secretary, are to be sent in on or before the 14th day of January, 1833.

The nature and amount of the Securities which will be required, are particularly explained in the Specifications, and to each tender must be affixed the written consent of the persons proposed as Sureties.

I EARNESTLY request the favor of your at-17th inst. the Sheriffs having fixed on that day to commence the Election. I avail myself of this opportunity to return you my most grateful ac-gives me a confident expectation of obtaining the honor I aspire to of becoming one of your

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,
Your sincerely obliged,
JOHN VEREKER, JUN.
Limerick, Dec. 12, 1832.

To the Independent Electors of Limerick.

IT is not my intention at present to notice the indecent and gross attacks upon me by a Press become of late so notorious for slander and falsehood, nor, indeed, do I imagine its assertions can now weigh much with a liberal and enlightened public, knowing, as they well do, the schemes and artful contrivances daily practised by needy adventurers to extort money from the weak and timid. I feel it, however, due to my friends, in consequence of the false and fabricated reports in circulation, to assure them that no coalition, however powerful, no contrivances, however artful, nor any scheme however plausible, can deter me from giving every elector who has so kindly promised me his support, the fullest opportunity of recording his wishes, and thus testifying those kind opinions everywhere expressed, of my claims upon our city.

It will then be seen whether our enlarged constituency is an independent one, or whether you, my friends, are to be driven by intimidation, artifice or falsehood, from the honest exercise of your newly acquired franchise. Your cause I maintain at my own expense, unaided by public or private contributions.

Your faithful humble Servant,
George's-street, Dec. 12, SAMUEL DICKSON.

P.S.—Mr. DICKSON respectfully solicits the early attendance of his numerous friends at the Hustings on Monday next.

[We are authorised to state that the word "dirty" introduced into Mr. Dickson's address which appeared in yesterday's Post and Sentinel, was not in the copy sent there by him for insertion, the word should have been "daily."]

Committee-Rooms, Francis-street, Limerick, 10th December, 1832.

GENTLEMEN,
A DISSOLUTION of Parliament having now taken place, I beg leave to solicit the honour of your support at the approaching Election. My former address to you, which has been for a considerable time before the Public, details very much the principles upon which my Parliamentary conduct will be regulated, if I should have the honour of being returned to Parliament. These principles I trust you will find to be such as to entitle me to the honour of receiving your support upon the present very important occasion.

I hope you will be so good as to receive the shortness of the interval between this and the Election, as a sufficient apology for my not being able to pay my respects to you in person. I have the honor to remain,
