

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

a given a bounty upon the im-linen yarn, principally for the ; thus enabling the Scotch to v, though the Orangeman in the at his loom, till his strength is never made up the amount of it hear.) Lord Anglesey prod of ours, he bid us " agitate, we did what we could as he was—tear, and laughter.) He wom schoolmaster I ever heard the boys a task, and when they set about flogging them for obedience to his commands.

There is my friend, old or you!—(Loud laughter.)— to ask this question, whether of this Union, and house-o walk along with the proudecide. I will tell you why I o procession instead of ascend-m a member of this Union, and to a body which I am more ected with—(hear, and cheers) d the procession—(cries of no, it I will not go into the chair, if kept with me—(hear, hear, and o must give to me the naming will go with me in the pro-—I will tell you at once then it is my friend Tom Steele-ers.) By his individual ex-rom transportation for life not dred of the people of Clare duced them to give up their o being pardoned. The proade, and when it was attempted aded the Lord Lieutenant and —(hear, hear, and cheers, be that the House of Commons not by night. On this subject Mr. Cobbett a few days ago, in e to him. He said he sent me letter stating he had written subject. So there is no fear assistance to attain our object. a hundred Englishmen to aid fident, will bring with me about ine-looking, brave, rolicking, walked into St. Stephen's—em. (Mr. Maurice O'Connell loudly cheered) As to Mr.
I shall not speak here. The be denounced much more in the House of Commons I ail grievances Ireland endures, shall denounce them. Would pose martial law upon us?— (cheers.) There are fifty Irish The bill they could never pass, with them on every sentence of divide with them on every line should we suffer to pass without such a bill could be enacted, 5 divisions; and at the end of would not be a village or town he cry for a Repeal of the between England and Ireland from with irresistible force—oud cheers.) Let every man be ight o'clock to-morrow morning, to be amongst us who will be ere before nine, and at nine we merrily off we'll go—(cheers) are to be no illuminations—was then called to the chair, djouried.

LIMERICK CHRONICLE
DAY, JANUARY 9.

counts due to this ent to the First of
mst. are earnestly to be discharged the 2d Battalion Rifle Brigade is vacant very amiable gentlemen and distin-General Sir George Bingham, who, resigned the command of the Cork nd Mease Wigley Greswolde, command-garrison Dragoons, at Cashel, head quarters ed there on Sunday last.

from the 19th Regt. at Trinidad, Esq., ber, when the officers and men were ort has again put into Plymouth, with rd for the Mauritius. She has suffered 5th Dragoon Guards, which had been vugh during the election, have returned 2d Highlanders, has arrived at Mitchelton of that Regiment.

iskillan Dragoons, 83d regiment, and ies marched yesterday to Newcastle formed field manoeuvres before Colonel er from Bruff, dated yesterday.—We use of Cholera, three deaths, and three o just, succeeded in procuring another Hospital, till then the capricious and kept in the most places, to the great er; and the sick were yesterday so in one bed.

We have been nimbly to this circumstance, and the ation in the Hospital the mortality.

is cases have been the out-door patients, and charitable step forward to our ren's case of Cholera in the goal of last week.

that the hospital at Bruff is quite full and there are several extern cases.

The situation of the is truly praiseworthy. In addition to the influence.

seven or eight victims in the town, of the last week; among the persons who in dreadful scourge we find Mr. Luke Fitzgerald, late before his death, pres-as a juror at the Quarter Sessions, in Facility. Publicans.

is a few very bad cases of Cholera at Bruff.

Dominick Browne, Esq. was supported at the Mayo election by Dr. Nicholas, Roman Catholic Bishop of Achonry, against the repeat candidate, Sir William Brabazon.

Dr. Nicholas with the repeat question a problem, and he concludes, "there is still gratitude and virtue enough in the Catholic electors of Mayo, to return by a triumphant majority the man who has been tried in the public service, and whose honesty was proved to be incorruptible."

Fresh herring of superior quality are now selling in Galway at 6s. per thousand.

Fifteen vessels, wind bound at Galway the last fortnight, arrived this week with cargoes of grain for various ports in England.

The Brit with Convicts from Dublin for New South Wales has put into Cork to receive more, 22 per cent.

armed party entered by force the house tenant of the Earl of Clarendon, war-anti Tipperary. They demanded fire-ing them, put Lady on his knees, beat one of the suffragan ring at their victim's in his thigh. From this house they proceeded to a poor man in the same neighborhood.

Amys Davis, Esq. of Dangan, County Kilkenny.

After a few days illness, at Boyle, Surgeon Kelly, R. N.

and many years Surgeon and Apothecary in that town.

On the 1st instant, at Newgate, Denis O'Brien, Esq. aged 52 years.

On the night of Saturday, Chief Constable Crossly proceeded with a party of Police, to arrest some individuals charged with assault, and rescue, against the Rev. Dr. Berney, Richard Smith, Esq. and others, while endeavoring to collect the Tithe due in the Parish of Cullen. The parties having had notice of the approach of the Police while proceeding to Drowartaff, between Kanturk and Newmarket—concealed themselves—and the search of the Police for Linchian, who was a principal object of their inquiry, as well as the others, was unavailing. Chief Constable Crossly then prepared to return back; and while this design was carrying into execution, a number of persons assisted by the sounding of horns, and the lighting of fires upon the hills, posted themselves behind a ditch, and waited in ambush for the Police. They were armed with fire-arms, pitchforks, and various rustic weapons, and fell unexpectedly upon the party, the moment they arrived.

The Police were compelled to fire, which took effect, and three of the assailants were killed on the spot. The Chief Constable and every man of the party under him were severely wounded. The whole of that district is in a state of insurrection, and so resolved are the country people to carry their objects with a strong hand, and to set at defiance the Laws, that an active Magistrate, of the neighbourhood, William Allen, Esq. has found it expedient to make a request for an additional number of troops.

At the County Waterford Quarter Sessions Court, on Friday, the Barrister, Mr. O'Grady, dismissed the Attorney-General's suit to recover the Tithe of 1831, from the Parish of Lisnashannon.

The cause of several other Parishes came on for hearing on Saturday; when they arrived, the Doctor was found drowned in Turk lake, near that town, on Thursday; the sergeant who commanded the party and the deceased's comrade, were both examined, from whose testimony, and the reading of a letter which he received some time ago, communicating the death of his mother, and informing him that she had bequeathed him her wedding ring, with sixty pounds.

The jury returned a verdict, viz.—"That the deceased put a period to his existence whilst labouring under temporary insanity."

The deceased had served nineteen years in the army, fifteen of which he served in India.

The windows of Doctor Stapleton, in Maryborough, were busted with stones, by some ruffians a few nights since.

The Doctor was in bed at the time, but having heard the crash immediately arose, and took a position at the window, with a blunderbuss, with which, and not the assailants decamped, he would doubtless have inflicted summary punishment.

He voted for Sir Charles Coote, Bart. The windows of Mr.

Redmond Clare were broken on Thursday night. His offence was having given care for hire to Sir C. H. Coote's voters.

The windows of the house of Captain Perceval, J. P. at Woodville, near Maryborough, were broken on Thursday night, after the family had retired to their beds. The windows of Doctor Carr, a surgeon Physician to the County Waterford Infirmary, vice Archer deceased.

A Deposition of the County Members and their friends, waited upon the Mayor of Cork at the Mansion House, to present him with an Address—expressive of their thanks and gratitude for his impartiality, and humanity during the Election, particularly for having dispensed with the military, and for having offered, when the polling was delayed for want of Magistrates to administer the qualification oath to Roman Catholics to have witnessed for that purpose.

The Mails for Killarney, Bandon, and on that line to Bantry, are now despatched from Cork at half-past nine in the morning.

William Villiers Stuart, Esq. of Dromana House, Cappon, is to be the High Sheriff of the County Waterford for the ensuing year.

At the Ennis Quarter Sessions—Patrick Madigan, for violent assault, to be imprisoned twelve months, and kept to hard labour; Patrick Keefe, for assault, three months; and Thomas McDonnell, for some offence, to be imprisoned two months; Patrick Mangin, for rescue, and Owen Mahon, for assault, to be imprisoned one week each.

The General Quarter Sessions of Tralee commenced on Friday, before William Deane Freeman, Esq. Assistant Barrister, who was occupied to a late hour in investigating claims to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register, twenty of which were allowed. One requested to register,