

and Lieutenants
Native Infantry.
Galway Theatre

ated a conditional
r. Richard Walshe, M. Ardagh, one of he late election.—
dict had at Kerry
o. Hurley, regard-that County, and

rt of King's Bench cause against the ation being made

nd-gate Distillery,
ndered amputation
the County Inman, an English-

ship's employment, oe, with a pair of t on the road by a bridles, and in the d the poor animals
coachman's remon-
and beat him in le to discharge the

the Turnpike-gate
aterford side of the s door, required to r some travellers;
of a horse outside,
when eight fellows
manded his money;
the house, which,
robbers took and an twelve stand of ners in the neighe residence of Lord hours. A meeting

t has been resolved
ce.

of Castle-Connell, Bridge, with their Fitzgerald, James
y, Honora Moriarty, whom informations
ng away by force,
eral head of cattle 7th instant, for rent
l Molyneaux.

for the Shanagolden
second subscription,
second subscription.

At Clare, Suffolk, William Hughes, Esq. of Southampton-buildings, London, to Emily, third daughter of the late Lieut.-General Elwes.

DEATHS.

Monday night, at his house in Upper Cecil-street, after a short illness, to the inexpressible grief of a fond wife and young family, Henry Ivers Russell, Esq. sincerely lamented by his numerous and highly respectable relatives and friends.

At Miltown-Malbay, in an advanced age, Mrs. Crips, wife of Joseph Crips, Esq. Alderman of this City.

Of an inflammation of the chest, at Rathdowney, William Delany, only surviving son of Surgeon Delany, of that town.

At the advanced age of 80 years, Catherine, relict of the late Jeremiah Hore, Esq. of Shandon-street, Cork.

After an illness of nine days, produced by a severe cold, Charles Dibdin, Esq. for many years author and manager at several London Theatres.

Helena, wife of John Nickson Nunn, Esq. of Enniscorthy Castle.

In Great Charles-street, Dublin, Sarah, relict of Laurence Lewis Mooney, Esq. late of that city.

At Baltimore, North America, Andrew Crawford, Esq. son of the late Thomas Crawford, of Raphoe, Esq.

Mrs. Forster, relict of the late Rev. George Forster, of Cove.

Mary, eldest daughter of Patrick Hayes, Esq. merchant, of Hammond-lane, Dublin.

In North Anne-street, Circular-road, Dublin, Joseph Sheridan Le Fanu, Esq. son of the late Joseph Le Fanu, Esq. of Dublin, and nephew to the late Right Hon. Richard Brinsley Sheridan.

At Camden-town, John Waller, Esq. late of Long-acre, in his 65th year.

At St. Mary Abbots, Kensington, Jane Stukeley Kin-chant, relict of the John Charlton Kinchant, Esq. late of Park Hall, Salop.

At Beceles, in Suffolk, Mr. Edwin Cooper, the celebrated animal painter.

At Brighton, Arabella Wilkinson Bryan, widow of the late William Bryan, Esq. aged 53.

In Hanover-square, Elizabeth Debonnaire, the wife of P. Hesketh Fleetwood, Esq. M. P. of Rossall-hall, Lancashire.

At Netherfield House, W. H. Feilde, Esq. formerly of his Majesty's 17th Regiment of Infantry, and one of the Deputy-Lieutenants for the county of Herts.

At Dover, the Rev. Mr. Lingard, of Stockport, Cheshire,

At Parkgate, Cheshire, Lieut.-Colonel Broughton Dod, of the Hon. East India Company's Service, aged 72 years,

The Rev. Digby Smith, aged 81, 33 years Rector of St.
Martin's, Worcester, 43 years Chaplain of St. Oswald's, and 57 a Minor Canon of Worcester Cathedral.

In the bloom of life, Anne, wife of John B. Burroughs, Esq. of Clifton, and daughter of the late Arthur Birnie, Esq. of Waterford.

At Harhour Grace, Newfoundland, Joseph Rea Innot, of Harriet-lodge, Esq. formerly of Waterford.

 SURGEON
for a very short per (Sunday excepted,) p morning until Two Friday, from Six in t
15, GREA

NERV
MEDICAL ET
serve as guide
in their perusal:—

[Twenty
1st—THE ÆGIS
of the causes and ef libertinism, as tendi vous irritation.

2d—THE SYPHI
notice of the man of p stitutional effects of 3d—HYGEIANA is female, who may pos
under the most deli
hopes of maternity ha

These books can b moral truths they cor results of the aut Journal.

We agree with the nal, and recommend perusal.—Edinburgh

The precepts cont
useful.—Edinburgh

This publication,
tuary nor the youthf
portant advantages.—

This work (Hyge
some female complai
style of moral aduon

These works have combine utility and accordingly.—Dubl

The above may be row, London; Porter
Limerick, and of all

SURGEON GOS
day, at his house; a part of Ireland can minutely the case,
and Medicine, whic world. No difficulty packed and careful

11, BO
SURGEON
the 9th March.