

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

three captive Police of excellent character. ves and families—the Mel Longfield has as- es and Britt, with a nely enough adminis- Crossly was hailed Allen, Esq. Colonel of Mallow, being the fire on Monday morn- The prompt arrival of regiment, who worked of the barrack, was at- e was got under. ar revenue police were this week, while mak- rlough. Stones were ot two of their assail- a few hours after. The country people, been ebar. ges committed in Cas- e force have patrolled ht, taking up or send- aracters that may be he desired effect—and orderly habits. ted on Saturday night arntick, county Clare, that became tenant to a former tenant had ed that if a policeman rhood, they would not rdered. house belonging to the l the Spa, accidentally a boy who carried a ing up horses for the ound, and three cows, so shockingly scorched ho' taken out alive, live. arney's house, on San- Tipperary, put him on me land he had lately and decamped. for the turning up of illbeg, County Tippe- aliciously set fire to a , on the Galty moun-

DEATHS.

At Bath, aged 77, the Right Hon. Thomas Fitzwilliam, Viscount Fitzwilliam, of the Kingdom of Ireland. By his Lordship's demise the title is extinct.

At Hastings, the Marchioness Dowager of Londonderry, relict of Robert first Marquis of Londonderry, daughter of Charles, late Earl Camden, sister of John Jeffreys, Marquis Camden, K. G. and mother of Charles William Marquis of Londonderry, and Earl Vane, G. C. B. in the 82d year of her age.

At Lake View, Merrion, Eliza, wife of Andrew Carr, Esq.

In Baggot-street, Dublin, Luke Toole, Esq. aged 68 years.

At his house, Burgh-quay, Dublin, Mr. Wm. Magnire. Mrs. Mason, wife of Mr. Mason, of the Edinburgh Theatre, and sister of the late celebrated Mrs. Siddons.

In Edinburgh, Mr. Ballantyne, proprietor and editor of the Edinburgh Weekly Journal. Mr. Ballantyne has long been celebrated for his improvements in the art of printing, and for the degree of perfection to which he attained in beautiful and correct typography.

In Cavendish-square, London, Elizabeth, widow of the late Thomas Denman, M. D. and mother of the Chief Justice, in the 86th year of her age.

At Knaresborough, Yorkshire, in the 60th year of her age, Hannah, the wife of Richard Terry, Esq. Banker, of that place.

At Eton-house, near Liverpool, P. Crompton, Esq. M. D. aged 68.

At Corbie, Wigtownshire, the Hon. Mrs. Montgomerie Stewart.

6 A DELIGHTFUL SITUATED COUNTRY RESIDENCE TO BE LET.

A RESIDENCE, with an adequate quantity of the best Ground, with Offices, Orchard, and Garden. It commands an unusually fine prospect, and is within four miles of the City, possessing many advantages. Tillage, Stock, &c. can be had at a valuation. Application (if by letter post-paid) to Mr. JAMES O'SHAUGHNESSY, Mail-Coach Office, George's-street, Limerick.

January 25.

7 WANTED

A N ASSISTANT in the Woollen and Linen business.— No person need apply, who cannot be respectably recommended.

Application to be made to RICHARD HOLMES, Tipperary.

Tipperary, 25th January.

NOTICE TO CONSIGNEES.

Relief
A MEETING in relief of the P on TUESDAY N
Church, at One o
January 26.

12 MEDICAL

Directly
T. WEL
LICEN

R ESPECTFU to his num their kind and lib profession; and as
on his part to mer

Having receive from some of the Dublin, he is ena establishment in will be found wo

Best Cold Dra
Genuine Sulph nesia (or E
Flake Manna,
The Proprietor

of the most resp BEWLEY & E that the

COMPO is personally sup same unerring p character it woul

At the request has been appoint their select Pr
Lavender Water,
the Antibilious
all parts of IR MEDICINE.

It is requested
sealed and dire ESTABLISHM
N. B.—A y would be taken

CORK I