DEATHS.

On Charlotte's-quay, much regretted, Mrs. Hynes.
On Friday last, at Clonlara, near Doonas, Philip White Taylor, Esq. of this City, sincerely regretted.
On Sunday morning last, at Nenagh, Edward, eldest son of Captain John Holahan, Revenue Police; with a mind rich and rare, far beyond his years, he possessed an amiability and sweetness of disposition that rendered him to all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, and by whom he is deeply regretted, but to his sorrowing and afflicted parents the death of this lamented youth will long be a source of ineffable grief.
In Thomond-gate, Mr. James Dunn, extra Revenue officer.
In Strabane, Bridget, wife of Mr. Charles M'Cormick.
Catherine, wife of Mr. Robert Irving, of Strabane, Inn-keeper.
Of cholera, at Drumshambo, county Leitrim, the Rev. John Reynolds, R. C. C. after a few hours illness.
Near Killarney, of cholera, Mr. Maurice Murphy.
At Newtownbarry, Cæsar Dudley, eldest son of the late Rev. Dudley Colclough, of Duffry Hall, county Wexford.
At Waterford, Mr. Sheehan, father of the Rev. John Sheehan, P. P.
The Rev. Philip Johnson, of Ballymacash, aged eighty-five years, for upwards of sixty years Vicar of Derriaghy parish, county of Antrim.

At Mitchelstown, Mrs. John Barry, late of Clonmel.
At Castlepollard, county Westmeath, Mr. E. M'Carthy.
In Cork, Anne, daughter of the late Francis Drew, Esq.
At Glenfield, county Tipperary, Francis Shee, Esq. brother of General Shee, French Service.
In Clonmel, Mr. Henry Uppington, and Mrs. Scully.
On Saturday last, at his seat Greenhills, near this City, after a long and painful illness, which he bore with christian resignation and firmness, John Franklin, Esq. late Captain 95th Regiment; he was one of the gallant British Army under the command of the brave Abercrombie at the landing in Egypt, in 1801, and through the short but brilliant campaign that followed, and subsequently served many years in the West Indies. His heart abounded in all the social and kindly sympathies of human nature, which made him beloved by his brother officers, and left remembrances not easily forgotten by his numerous relatives and friends.
At Roscrea, on the 5th instant, (to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends,) of disease of the heart, which she bore with true christian fortitude, through faith in her Redeemer, Susan, second daughter of Mr. Moses Woods. Scarcely have eight weeks elapsed since the tomb closed on the youngest sister of this amiable lady, snatched away in the bloom of youth, and thus their disconsolate parents are left to mourn, yet not without hope for the believer in Him, who is the "Resurrection and the Life," that at the last day they shall hear that approbatory sentence pronounced—
"Come, ye blessed of my Father inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world."
In Cork, Mary Anne, daughter of the late Mr. David Connell, Printer.
At her lodgings in Dublin, Mrs. Alexander.
At Cove, Isabella, wife of the Rev. Edmund Stevelly.
At Old Calabar, on the Coast of Guinea, M. Nicholas Scottowe.
