

ment, now quartered in Ireland.
... on Captain R. ...
... was composed of ...
... Miles, 89th Regt. ...
... 89th, Lieut.-Colonel ...
... Serians, R.M. Major ...
... Captain Cox, 87th, ...
... R. E. Lieut. James, ...
... or H. Smith. There ...
... ment of £315 over- ...
... Regimental Agents, ...
... Mauritius—for em- ...
... al Bank of Cork, job- ...
... —for embezzlement of ...
... mpanies of the 9th— ...
... enwood & Cox, to the ...
... ing considerably over- ...
... and for swearing that ...
... as residing in London, ...
... e years before. The ...
... £1420.
... on the Bengal esta- ...
... on charges preferred ...
... f duty and disrespect. ...
... 2d bat. Artillery, was ...
... charge; and partially ...
... mander-in-Chief, ani- ...
... oceedings of the court, ...
... put to the witnesses, ...
... d Bailey! The Com- ...
... ajor Webb, the Presi- ...
... art of his duty, which ...
... nd nature of evidence ...
... icts Lieutenant Birch, ...
... as Judge Advocate, for ...
... erfield, 83d Regiment, ...
... of procession was as ...
... firing party, consisting ...
... mmand of Major Palk, ...
... alternately playing a ...
... s, garrison chaplain— ...
... e of the Royal Artillery. ...
... ndreth, C.B. and Major ...
... od, 37th, and Captains ...
... Chief Mourner, Captain ...
... o the deceased, accom- ...
... ctors Cross and Pitcairn, ...
... l Officer, in sable trap- ...
... of the 83d Regiment— ...
... Artillery—Detachment ...
... James Douglas, K.C.B. ...
... e-Major—The Officers ...
... ons.
... Regiment on its forma- ...
... West Indies 7 years; was ...
... ght battle of Talavera, ...
... that action and taken ...
... in in France. in 1813;

Esq. of East Horsley Park, Sussex.

John Ferner, Esq. Admiral of the Blue, to Mrs. Leach, relict of Commander J. Leach.

DEATHS.

At Day-Place, Tralee, Sophia, relict of the late Daniel M'Gillicuddy, Esq. daughter of the late Sir Barry Denny, Bart. and sister of the present Baronet.

In Ennis, Mary, daughter of the late Mr. M. Kerin.

At Cullinagh, Killarney, the Lady of Kean Mahony, Esq. and daughter of the late Colonel M'Carthy, 96th Regiment.

Of Cholera, at Kilmallock, sincerely lamented, Mrs. Hussey, wife of Mr. Pat. Hussey, Innkeeper.

John S. Ferguson, Esq. of Donegal-place, Belfast.

At Castlebar, William Waldron, of Foxboro', Esq. and Mrs Waldron, relict of the late William Waldron, Esq.

Lieutenant-Colonel Sterling, Royal Marines.

In Cork, of consumption, Robert Ferguson, grandson to the late Dr. Robert Ferguson, of that City.

At Cove, aged 15 years, James B. Verling, second son of B. Verling, Esq.

At Mallow, Mr. Henry Berry, aged 18 years.

In Carrick, Mrs. Breuan, mother of Surgeon Brennan, of that town.

In Great Strand-street, Dublin, Matthew Perry, Esq.

Of a decline, aged 48, the Rev. William Gorman, P. P. of Lisdowney, county Kilkenny.

At Hampton-hall, the Rev. George Hamilton, aged 64.

At Mount Pleasant, John Gormly, Esq.

Edward Carroll, Esq. late of Armagh, aged 77 years.

At Barnacle Lodge, county Kerry, William P. Cotter, Esq. late a Major in the Army, and for many years attached to the 8th or King's Regiment of Foot.

Lieutenant Peter Creed, R. N.

In London, Madame Laporte, wife of the Lessee of Covent Garden Theatre.

At Holyhead, Mrs. Walthew, relict of the late William Walthew, Esq. formerly, and for many years, of his Majesty's Holyhead Packet Service.

At sea, on board the ship Eamont, which he commanded, Lieut. James Walmesley, R. N.

In London, Thomas, fourth son of Sir Alexander Ramsay, of Balmain, Bart.

Sir Charles Giesecke, Professor of Mineralogy to the Royal Dublin Society. He was taken ill after dinner, at the house of a friend, in Rutland-street, Dublin, and died there, notwithstanding prompt medical aid was procured at the instant.

William P. S. Metge, Esq. formerly Lieutenant in the 45th Regiment, and son of the late Hon. P. Metge, one of the Barons of the Court of Exchequer in Ireland.

At Dixworth, Leicestershire, Captain Wm. W. Cheslyn, on half-pay of the 73d Regiment.

At New Orleans, Mr. Samuel Adams, late Governor of Derry Gaol.

At Leamington, John Barry Maxwell, Esq. Lieutenant 14th Regiment, and son of the Rev. H. Maxwell, of Temple-Michael.

For Freight and Master on Board a

WESTE

A a meeting in Limerick, GERALD BL

It was unanimous the Earl of Dunra

That the Knight Hickman, Esq. Vi

That the thanks raven for his very value two hundred

That the thanks nell, Esq. M. P. Vice-Commodore

That the market O'Connell, Esq. S and devoted exert sion of the Club.

GERAL

Gerald Blenner and the Knight of the meeting were his very dignified

JOHN FITZ THOMAS O

18 SE

SPECULATIO

Esq. will sta Limerick, Three 17 miles from L until the First of all others, Three Groom.

He was got by (which was the D Grand-Dam Tooe &c. &c. &c.

SPECULATIO

blood, strength, acquisition as a S 1831; and his beauty. He is healthy, and a su had in the neigh Proprietor will a bred Mares only, lent Hay and Gra to send Mares to plication.

All Mares to b such Mares as removed. The this Horse.