

icians have appointed Doctor pothecaries' shops in Ireland, for many years the worthy this county, was seized with after celebrating second mass, g. Eleven of his parishioners dy, and the mortality since is reading with destructive fury Kilmallock, Bruree, and Fe-

Society are building twenty ely, County Donegal.

male emigrants for Cork has New South Wales; and they £12 to £20 a-year, wages for anced the probability of the Harbour. From a letter from Pulteney Malcolm's ships, we t much time will not elapse by the announcement will be

Admiral Sir Michael Seymour, South America.

an Catholics of Kildysart and presented by subscription two with appropriate salvers, to the n gratitude for his exertions to se articles have been prepared Wallace in this City, and the re got up, adds, if possible, to r which this establishment en-superior workmanship. They re.

Waterford mean to call on Sir representation, because he voted n bill.

enge cup has been interrupted ons in that neighbourhood.

impanelled a Jury to assess Ben. Baynham, executor of F, and three of the Directors Company were defendants.—

t of a Policy of Insurance for 3 by said Eliza Fitzpatrick on having suffered judgement to nd for the full amount of the Kilmurry Ibraickane and Sea-Parkinson and Costello are in difficulty to induce those afflicted re every necessary is provided.

preparing rapidly.

occurred in Kilmallock within cholera; only 6 of those affected under treatment, but all con-at the malady is now removed s have been withdrawn, as also ence of the disease.

have lately occurred in Butte-receipt of £1 from F. J. G. for that Institution.

DEATHS.

On Monday, in Clare-street, at the house of her son-in-law, Jeremiah O'Sullivan, Esq. after a lingering indisposition, and in advanced age, Honora, relict of the late John Creagh, of this City, Esq. and mother of Lieut.-Colonel Sir Michael Creagh, K.H. 86th, or Royal Downshire Regiment, a lady highly respected and esteemed.

At the Glebe House, Moviddy, county Cork, the Rev. Thomas St. Lawrence, son of the late Lord Bishop of Cork, a most amiable, pious, and exemplary Clergyman, and a most eloquent pulpit orator.

Lydia, fourth daughter of Captain Eaton, Barrack Master of Kinsale.

In Dublin, of a severe and protracted illness, John Croly, Esq. second son of the late John Croly, of Cregg, in the county of Cork, Esq.

In Londonderry, after a short illness, the Lady of Capt. Atkinson, 30th Regiment.

Suddenly, Mr. Edward Dycer, of Stephen's-green Horse Repository, Dublin, Mr. Dycer died possessed of considerable wealth, £50,000, all acquired by his own exertions, and within a few years.

At his father's house, in Merrion-square, Dublin, aged thirteen years, George, fourth son of William Henn, Esq. Master in Chancery.

At Doneshall, county Wexford, Richard Bookey, Esq. one of the oldest Magistrates in that County.

At his house, in Broad-street, Waterford, aged 78 years, Mr Daniel Murphy.

At New Ross, in the 88th year of his age, Mr. Peter Walsh, a celebrated character in the annals of temperance.

At Reliegh, near Macroom, Mrs. Morgan Gallwey.

At Blarney-lane, Cork, Miss Swan.

At his residence, Lower Castle-Yard, Dublin, Andrew Connor, one of the veterans of Bunker's Hill, aged 88—and two days after, Elizabeth, his wife, aged 75 years.

At Bath, Frederick Bannatyne, Esq. late 23d Fusileers.

At Prospect, Drumcondra, Master James S. Higginbotham, aged 13 years, eldest son of Thomas Higginbotham, Esq. of Wellington-quay, Dublin.

At her lodgings, North Cumberland-road, Dublin, Miss Murray, youngest daughter of the late Nicholas Murray, Esq. Rathmoney, in the county Dublin.

At Lisbon, Lieutenant John D. Heatley, R. Engineers.

At Newry, Mr. Laurence Geoghegan, Excise Officer, late of Cork.

At Lanark, Robert Hutcheson, Esq. late Provost, aged 94. He remembered going to Kilcadow Hill, to see the Highland rebels.

In Bath, aged 82, Lieutenant-Colonel Jabez Mackenzie, of the Hon. East India Company's Bengal Service.

At Norwood, the Earl of Dudley.—The Earldom and the Viscounties of Dudley and Ward died with his Lordship.—The Baronies of Ward and Dudley go, with an entailed estate of about £4,000 per annum, to his cousin the Rev. Humble Ward. The Earl, by a will drawn up about two years ago, settled the rest of his estate, to the value of £80,000 per annum, on the eldest son of Mr. Humble Ward, but it is said that this will is to be contested by the heir-at-law, the Earl of Ferrers.

have so generous blishment on a Committee) are p thanks will be to won for them the enlightened comm

The Right Hon
Dr. Carroll, Mrs O'Halloran, Miss
Hon. Mr. Butler,
Dickson, Collect
Phillip Holland,
Wm. FitzGerald,
Harte, Thomas Le
seller M'Carthy,
Barry, John Boy
Mahony, Dr. Wi
O'Neill, Dr. Broo
Amount c

Right Rev. Dr Lady Wray, To
Dr. Ryan
Mrs. John Star
D. Roche, Esq
William Roche
High Sheriff o per Rev.
John Blenner record ju
From a Roma
County, p
Joseph Massy
John Keith, E
Alderman D. I
Reuben Harve
James Harvey,
Mrs FitzGera
Connell FitzG
Hon. Captain
William Lown
James Morgan
Mrs. Honan,
Mat. Barringe
Wm. Humphri
Caleb Powel,
Mr. Robert M
record ju
A friend to th
Anonymous, p
Arthur Evans,
Hezekiah O'C
John Lynch, I
A friend,
Peter O'Brien
Mrs. Joyce,
Francis Russe
Further I acknowledged.