assault case, strongly animadverted on the ent the High Court of Judicature in the tranquil state of Waterford, and may be e fact that Mr. Justice Torrens, who pren Comt at Waterford Assizes, rode from beautiful and romantic seat of the Marquis Carrick-on-Suir, on Monday, unattended ery. It is a strange circumstance, too, that rsed by Justice Torrens very many of those to the factions of the Gows and Powlines

Assizes Michael Flinn was tried before the a malicious and violent assault, with intent Thomas Goold, Esq. son of the Rev. Mr. Finnoe, near Templemore, while in charge or tithes, and which he was driving to the ale. Capt. Drought, police magistrate, provondition in which Mr. Goold was, after the made upon him by the prisoner and four ere at least ten cuts on his head and facees were so beaten as to resemble dark mai was attempted for the prisoner, but jury the evidence, and without leaving court, rdiet of guilty. His Lordship immediately nce of death on the criminal and told him of mercy.

are the convictions which have taken place ces :- Michael Meenehan, manslaughter, for life-Garret Lynch, pig stealing, seven on-Michael Berkery, larceny, seven years att and Darby Foley, sheep and goat stealausportation-Joseph Man, embezzlement, prisonment-Daniel Carroll, manslaughter, risonment and hard labour-John Forhan, ven years transportation-James Carroll, ille, James Mulvehille, and Thomas Con-, six months imprisonment and hard labour nothy M'Carthy, manslaughter, six months hard labour-Batt. Sheahan, James Sheaheahan, obstructing police, to be imprisononth, and kept at hard labour-Ellen Murlve months imprisonment. James Connor. nd Win. Connor, manslaughter, to be imcenehan was a schoolmaster; a child of nine f the deccused, was one of his scholars. The went to school the prisoner beat him most that the child on his return home was found blue and shockingly welted. Cornelius ed, called the next morning on the prisoner rould carry him before the parish Priest for son, and while laying his hand on the prior that purpose, the prisoner stabbed him in nknife, of which wound Neill died in a few prisoners for trial at Cork County Assizes 38 charged with murder. The number in is 35.

ssizes there were twenty-three applications up to the grand jury for damages sustained the county. Several witnesses were exaed to the burning of houses, burning of ing of fields of corn, houghing of cattle, ses, destroying of furniture, &c. izes, a case of crim. con. was tried before ishe. The parties were Mr. Archibald er, residing at Middletown, plaintiff, and ysician in extensive practice, belonging to

The damages were laid at 1,000%. The a quarter before six, at which time the rdict for the plaintiff, £230 damages, and prisoners for trial at Mayo assizes is double The sum total is 119, including 23 for e and abduction, 48 for assault and roby offences. and fifty have served notice of registry in of Mayo, next Sessions.

At Kingscourt, county of Cavan, by the Rev. Robert Winning, John F. Gordon, Esq. Captain in the 47th Regiment, to Essy Dyas, eldest daughter of Philip Ward, Esq.

At Grove Hill, by the Rev. Henry Carson, the Rev. John Henderson, Presbyterian Minister of Aughnacloy, to Miss Ellen Bell.

At Southampton, J. M. Simpson, Esq. to Susanna, second daughter of A. Mangan, of Dublin, Esq.

At Birstal, Nathaniel Phillips, eldest son of J, T. Simes, Esq. of London, to Ann, third daughter of the late Joshua Walker, Esq. of Oakwell-house, near Leeds.

DEATHS.

On Thursday night, at his father's house, Friarstown, near this City, William, eldest son of Alderman Vere Hunt, aged 16 years-a young Gentleman sincerely and deservedly regretted.

In Tralee, Robert Bourne, Esq. late of Mayo, Contractor and Superintendant of the new line of road between Tralee, Castleisland, and Limerick.

At Belvedere-place, Dublin, Henrietta Maria, relict of Sedborough Mayne, Esq. late Assistant-Barrister for the County of Cavar.

At Upperlands, Mahera, Sarah, the wife of Alexander Clarke, Esq. and third daughter of the late Sir Simon

Newport, of Waterford.

On Thursday, the 7th instant, at Nenagh, John, second son of Captain Holahan, Revenue Police-and on Thursday last, at same place, Margaret, his youngest daughter: this is the third child which it has pleased the Almighty to call from this afflicted family within a few days.

Captain Scott, Barrack-Master and Ordnance-Keeper at Ballincollig.

At Nenagh, in the 72d year of her age, Elizabeth, relict of John O'Meara, Esq. Her amiable disposition endeared her to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance-and her vast but unostentatious charity had enthroned her in the hearts of the poor. The severe and prolonged infirmity with which it pleased Providence to afflict her, she bore in calm and christian resignation-preserving even to the last, that serenity of temper for which, through life, she had been so remarkable.

On Monday, at the Rectory-house, Nenagh, after a long and painful illness, which she bore with the greatest resignation and christian fortitude, Charlotte, second daughter of the Rev. James Hill Poe, M.A. Rector of Nenagh.

At Bellvue, county Cork, of a decline, Ellen, wife of Thomas Dennahy, Esq.

At Lapp's Island, Cove, Alexander Deane, youngest son of Richard Notter, Esq.

At Tivoli Terrace, Cork, the Lady of Tenison Little, Esq. of a son.

At Glanmire, Cork, Albina, youngest daughter of William Lander, Esq. of Kinsale.

In Fermoy, Mr. James Callagnan, writing-master.

In Newington-place, Kennington, J. A. Dubuisson, Esq. late of the Stock-Exchange, in the 85th year of his age.

At Deptford, of consumption, Mansfield, eldest son of Captain George B. O'Brien, of the 38th Regiment.

At Hastings, Frances, youngest daughter of John Drummond; Esq. of Charing-cross, London.

At Felton-park, Northumberland, Ralph Riddell, Esq. in the 63d year of his age.

Eliza, relict of the late Benjamin Hannan, of Kilbealan, county Kildare.

At Hill-hall, in his 63d year, the Rev. Henry Hunter, formerly Seceding Minister of that place.

At Lower Gloucester-street, Dublin, James William, eldest son of James Jones, jun. Esq.

At Kingsdown, Bristol, B. O'Donoghoe, Esq. late of Cork, aged 86.

At Chatham, aged 26 years, John Y. Skelton, Esq late Assistant Surgeon on the Army Medical Staff in Canada.

At Halifax, Henry Bruen Longfield, Esq. son of the late Lieut.-Colonel Richard Longfield, of Castle-Mary, county Cork. He is succeeded in his very extensive estates in the counties of Cork and Limerick by his paternal uncle, the Rev. Robert Longfield, of Castletown, county of Meath.

At Grange Court, Chigwell, Louisa, wife of William Dent, Esq and daughter of the late Sir C. W. Blount, Bt.

March 16.

NEWPAN

To be Sold by A

NEAR ENNIS.

ON TUESDAY, the 26th March of a superior description, pri Breed, in-calf to a Durham Bull; a t Bull, 4 years old May next; 22 Hei breed; 2 year old Bulls, of very super year old Heifers, 4 work Horses, one Irishman; a splendid Filly, 2 years of famous English Huntress; a 2-year o out of the grey Kilkenny Mare; a ye out of same; a well bred Sow, and store Pigs, a Treshing Machine in co

5 stands of Oats, containing about 100 N.B.—Approved Bills at 91 days for ing Twenty Pounds.

four-wheeled Waggon, Carts, Cars, I utensils; several metal Corn stands, a and Dairy furniture; an excellent Gi bay Horse; a good Hunter, and traine

Flax-seed, Clover R. ID. & T. M. PE AVE this day received direct from the Pocket, HORATIO GAGE, Ma New NEW YORK FLAXSEED, wi & White Clover-seed, which they w

They hourly expect the Solway, with and White Clover, Rye Grass, Sprin Cow Grass, &c &c.

FOR THE FLOURISHING CITY THE FAST-SAILING AMERIC

POCKET, Burthen 300 Tons-now lying at the I

WILL POSITIVELY SAIL ON THE 101 NEXT, for the above City. Persons of will find this a most favourable opports a remarkable fast-sailing vessel, having this Port in the short space of Eighte are spacious, and she is full seven feet can accommodate Ten Cabin Passengers to whom every attention will be paid by Apply as above, or to the Captain Gaffry, Esq. Castlebar; Mr. Thomas Mr. John Costello, Tuam; Mr. Herron O'Shaughnessy, Esq. Gort; and Mr.

Galway

COUNTY LIMERICK TURN

11TH GEO. 4, SESS. 18 OTICE is hereby given that the to the Provisions of the above A "Annual General Meeting" at the C Limerick, on Tuesday, the 2d day of A o'Clock, noon, when they will proce Auction, to the highest and fairest bidd the First of May next, the several T Newcastle, in the County of Limerick, rick, and from thence to Charleville,

Cork. Conditions of Tenantcy to be found i ment, page 29, or may be learned from Coach Office, George's-street, Limerick

No offer or bidding can be entertain or on behalf of any tenant who shall no before the day of Auction, the entire year, ending First of May next.

Notice is further hereby given, that the Trustees will proceed to elect a Tru Bobert Hewson, Esq. deceased.

JAMES O'SHAUGHN

Lime C. March 16.