

...the goodness through your real facts of the case so much persons were dragged" from the complaint of the Attorney-persons conducting the proto postpone the hearing of Sessions at Limerick, no such part of the parishioners, nor ed upon by the Crown. Two at Rathkeale, and when, on e Solicitor for the Crown, it against them could not be susched an express to that parish ment of the proceedings. In , none of the parishioners attioned two persons, whose icitor for the Crown.

n that these proceedings were ned to the Privy Council by the ile I do not deny that that or, I think it only due to that as an error involving a question of Parliament, and for which is imputable to him.
 of the case, which the state-
 necessary for me to place before
 s, as to the names and profesconcerned for the Crown, toge-
 , unimportant in themselves, shew the very imperfect infor-ticle.

justify the proceedings of the al imputations. It is sufficient which they were conducted,
 lants, and received the appro-

your obedient Servant,
J. LYNE.

Limerick Chronicle.

...ers has this moment kindly Post of Friday last, forwarded
 er) I presume by the Editor, ch reflects in no measured terms
 y character I rely to shield me
 riter would inflict on it, I yet ement of facts, to remove any e has brought against me might vording of the paragraph in on for the parish of Ulloe was November, 1825, and 1826 ;
 half year's composition became nder the old system the tithes of ave been payable towards the ved, as well as many others of the Composition Act in this eriods of paymeet, making the hat harvest recoverable in Nov.
 in May, 1827, and so on for ment for a return of arrears, I 1832, under the full conviction
 to me of my income to Nov.

Dragoons, to Annabella, eldest daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Pollock, C. B.

DEATHS.

At Coolrue, county Westmeath, Louisa, wife of Admiral the Hon. Sir Thomas Pakenham, G. C. B. and sister to the Marchioness of Ormonde and the Countess of Clancarty.
 At Ennis, on Friday last, Agnes Elizabeth, infant daughter of John Pooley, Esq. C. C.
 Suddenly, in Derry, Surgeon Kelly, of the Royal Navy.
 In Tipperary, Mrs. Reardon, wife of James Reardon, Esq.
 At Newcastle, in this County, Richard O'Dell, Esq. formerly of the Excise department.
 In Clonmel, Samuel J. Gordon, Esq. Attorney.
 In Nile-street, Cork, aged 21 years, Mr. Patrick Walsh, son of Mr. John Walsh.
 In Aghadoey, Mrs. M'Clintock, relict of the late Henry M'Clintock, of Londonderry, Esq.
 At her lodgings in Cork, Mercy, eldest daughter of Samuel Townsend, Esq. of Whitehall.
 At her residence, Drimdoe, near Boyle, Mrs. Lilly, wife of Phillip Lilly, Esq. and mother of Sir John Lilly.
 In Gardiner's-place, Dublin, aged 19 years, Henrietta Maria, only daughter of the late William Frederick Wilson, Esq. of the county Armagh.
 In Cork-street, Dublin, aged 27 years, Thomas Richard Leslie, Esq.
 In Lower Mount-street, Dublin, Anne, relict of the late Captain George Norman, of the 9th Regiment, Native Infantry, Hon. Company's Service, and daughter of the Rev. William Betham, of Stonham, Suffolk.
 At Brighton, Andalusia, Countess of Carnworth, eldest daughter of the late Colonel Arthur Brown, Lieutenant Governor of Kinsale and Charles Fort.
 Suddenly, at Slievegoe, county Waterford, the Rev. T. F. Boyle, O. S. F. of the Aglis Convent.
 Suddenly, John Madden, Esq. of Inch House, county of Dublin, aged 57.
 At Abbeyside, Dungarvan, Mr. William A. Hearn, late of Waterford.
 On Friday, suddenly, at his apartments in London, Mr. Kinloch, of Kinloch, the Member for Dundee. The decease of the Hon. Gentleman was so sudden and unexpected it is supposed to have been occasioned by apoplexy.
 Of a decline, in the 16th year of her age, Jane, eldest daughter of Peter Henry Shortt, Esq. of Centry Lodge, Borris-in-Ossery.
 At Booter-town-avenue, Anne, daughter of the late John Dowling, Esq. many years a Magistrate of the co. Dublin.
 In Hyde-Park Terrace, London, the relict of the late Sir Samuel Shepherd.
 In Chiswick-lane, London, Nathaniel Ronalds, Esq.
 In Plymouth, Dowager Lady Lopez, relict of the late Sir Masseh Lopez, Bart.
 At Hood-house, near Burnley, Lancashire, the Reverend Charles Halsted.
 At Burrenmore, Mrs. Major Gerrard, relict of the late Major G. Gerrard, C. B.
 At Bombay, Lieutenant-Colonel W. H. Stanley, 18th Regiment Native Infantry.
 At Norwood-hill, in his 64th year, John Lawrence, Esq. of Watling-street, London.

NEW CLOVER SEED.

AT TWENTY
 A single b

Limerick, Apr

FROM the F
 with power of EMLY, called
 Proposals in w
GEORGE MAI

FROM the 2
 Years du Mahon, a minor
 about 125 Acres.
 lent dairy farm, a consisting as it de most eligible for
 Also, to be Let
 sisting of fattenin
 Proposals in w
 received by Mrs.
 by JAMES BLAK
 N. B.—Thoma
 shew the Land.

MOST DE
FOR
TO BE SOL
 on MOND
 the Proprietor's Garden, Coach-
 lately occupied b
 in Papering, Pai
 Henry Harte, Es
 Offices.

The whole Co
 year, being little Half the Pure
 other half in six
 The House m on applying to J
 street.

Limerick, 3d

TO
FUR

TO BE LET
 and York-s
 or two Bed Cha
 terms.
 A Gentleman
 find the above
 fessionally empl
 of Town.
 Apply to Mr