—Two letters, one bearing the signature of "J. Lyne," e other that of "Edward Herbert, Vicar of Ulloe," appeared in the Chronicle of Wednesday, both reflect-her harshly upon an article given in the Post and of the Friday before, upon the tithe proceedings at ale Quarter Sessions, I trust you will permit me to myself with your readers from the imputations these may otherwise affix to the motives that influenced me, onductor of a public Journal, to lay such proceedings the Government and the country.

e first instance, the information upon which the article en reached us from a quarter as incapable of wilfully ng facts as the Gentlemen who feel so sore at their e, and the documents placed in my hands fully sus-he accuracy of that information.
