

ought to do something to relieve the distresses of the poor, whose prospects have been so much disappointed.

At a meeting of the Political Union, on Monday night, Mr. David Roche, M. P. addressed the members on the subject of the Irish coercive bill, whose provisions himself and his colleague Mr. William Roche, M. P. had strenuously opposed in every stage through the House of Commons, and the Irish church temporalities bill, which he considered only a delusion of the Government to favour the passing of the former measure, and to deceive the Irish representatives. He pledged himself that effectual measures could be taken to oppose the petition presented to the House against the return of the sitting Members for the City of Limerick, and that he and his colleague would take offence thereto, no matter whether supported by public subscription or not. Mr. Lysaght Pennefather then addressed the meeting, and acknowledged the vote of confidence passed to him on his incarceration and sufferings for passive resistance to the payment of tithes. The Union broke up soon after, with a resolution to continue their meetings by adjournment, unless dissolved by proclamation of the Lord Lieutenant.

There are 14 cases of cholera in hospital this day; four cases were discharged cured yesterday; nine-tenths of those cases are from two emigrant vessels detained in the river by an unfavourable wind. The weather altogether is harsh for this season of the year. Yesterday we had cold, sleet, snow, and rain, and a burst of thunder with lightning, for a few minutes.

Easter Monday evening last, a large body of Whitefees, entered into the county Wicklow, on the confines of Kildare and robbed arms and ammunition from several houses in the neighbourhood of Ballyulire, Grangeacor, and Dunlavin—amongst them the houses of Mr. Cooke, J. Slator, J. Fay, M'Loughlin, and J. Flood.

The public houses in the City of Kilkenny are now cleared of all their frequenters at sunset—no crowd allowed in the streets, no music or display of any kind permitted, and all idle persons are taken into custody.

The Hon. Justices Burton and Vandeleur opened the assizes commission for Leitrim on Monday, which had been postponed in consequence of cholera. Lord Viscount Clements is foreman of the Grand Jury. The salary of governor of the county gaol has been considerably reduced by the Grand Jury, who have also dispensed with the services of his assistant. There were but 61 prisoners for trial, and no capital conviction.

At Galway Assizes, Thomas Coleman was sentenced to be hanged on Saturday the 27th instant, for shooting at Walter Rosingrave, Esq.

Kilrush Sessions terminated on Thursday last. Wednesday in the Barrister was going to Court, he witnessed a serious riot in the streets. Informations were sworn against eight persons, four of whom were apprehended. Bills were sent up to the Grand Jury and found, when two of them were tried and found guilty. They were sentenced to three months imprisonment at hard labour. The following is a calendar of the convictions that took place:—James M'Guire, for riot and assault, and John M'Guire, for like, to be imprisoned six months; Catherine Gurahy, for like, Terence Frawley, for an assault, and Simon Macmahon, for like, to be imprisoned six months; Edmund O'Neil, for prevarication, to be imprisoned one month; Terence O'Loughlin and Charles Carthy, for rescue, and Nancy Dillon, for assault, to be imprisoned three months; Darby O'Connell, for like, to be imprisoned fourteen days; Joseph Ahern, for larceny, Jane Hogan, for like, Bridget Crotty, for like, and Margaret Millis, for like, 3 months in solitary confinement; John Maguire, to be transported seven years; Daniel Haugh, for rescue, and Matthew Haugh for like, to be imprisoned three months; Pat Sullivan, for assault, to be imprisoned six months at hard labour; Thomas O'Brien, for like, to be imprisoned three months at hard labour; Mary Kean, for contempt of Court, three months imprisonment; James O'Donnell, for prevarication, fourteen days imprisonment. The Recorder of Cork has sentenced a man and woman to 7 years transportation, for stealing from the shipping at the wharfs of that port.

Rice Hussey, Esq. who was recently appointed to the situation of Clerk of the Crown for the county of Leitrim, assumed his office, for the first time, at the late Assizes.

A subscription is open in Galway to pay the fine of £500 imposed on the Hon. Mr. Cavendish, Proprietor of the Cassebar Telegraph, for libel at last Assizes.

The drawing of the Glasgow Lottery takes place this day in London, where three capital prizes of £10,000 each are to be disposed of.

By the 9 Geo. 4th, ch. 35, all judgments entered in the Irish Courts, twenty years before the passing of this Act, are null and void against purchasers, unless revived and re-registered on or before 25th June next, five years after its enactment.

A new-born infant derelict was found yesterday in a field near the County Gaol. It was the opinion of a Medical Gentleman that the infant was still-born.

Mr. H. Johnston, Medical Resident of the Adare Dispensary and Fever Hospital, has obtained his Diploma to practice Midwifery after passing the usual examinations at the Lying-in Hospital, Dublin, which Institution he has been attending during the last six months. The Examiners expressed the great pleasure they felt at the highly creditable manner in which this Gentleman acquitted himself in the examination, but particularly for the constant attention he paid during his attendance not only to the practice but also to the Lectures delivered at this Institution during the season. Mr. Johnston has also attended the Lectures of Professor Jacob on Diseases of the Eye at his Ophthalmic Dispensary, and from this must prove additionally useful in the neighbourhood where he resides.

In consequence of the press of other interesting matter we are obliged this day to postpone the letters of the Rev. Thomas Westropp, of Bruree, and Dr. Bernard, of Charleville.

DEATHS.

Sunday evening last, at his house in William-street, after a severe attack of Cholera, John Hartigan M'Knight, Esq. a Magistrate of this County, and a gentleman possessed of many excellent traits of character. It was only about eight o'clock in the morning of Sunday when the dreadful epidemic fastened upon its victim, and not long after sun-set the spirit of this truly good and amiable gentleman was taken before the awful Tribunal of a just and merciful God. The death of Mr. M'Knight has created a profound sensation of regret in every class of society in this his native City,—to all our local Charities he was a munificent contributor, and a most generous benefactor to the poor. In the various relations of life he was strictly honorable, and punctual in his engagements to a nicety. Moving in a respectable and extended sphere, and in possession of affluent means, he had many opportunities of doing good to his fellow-man, and to his credit be it said, opportunities which he never neglected in behalf of the destitute widow or orphan. Few, indeed, were more anxious to render substantial service to a meritorious object, and fewer still dispensed more private charity from the purest of motives than John Hartigan M'Knight. He has left the following bequests to the public Institutions of this City:—Fever Hospital, £50, House of Industry, £50, Barringtons' Hospital, £50, County Infirmary, £50, Lying-in-Hospital, £50, and Magdalen Asylum, £50.

Suddenly, in Rutland-street, on Saturday night, Mrs. Sarsfield, relict of the late Mr. Silvester Sarsfield, Hardware Merchant.

Friday night, in Thomas-street, after a very short illness, Mr. John Downes, Engraver, a very worthy young man, whose death is a severe affliction to a beloved wife and infant family.

Friday evening, at Sandville, the residence of her son, Mr. Richard Scott, Mrs. M. Meany, relict of the late Mr. Thomas Meany, formerly of Boskill, in this County, after a few days illness, which she bore with christian fortitude.—Seldom was recorded the death of an individual who, by the kindness of her disposition, the amenity of her manners, or the extent of her hospitality, deserved more of society.

On her passage to the West Indies, deeply regretted by her numerous relatives and friends, Lady Creagh, wife of Lieutenant-Colonel Sir Michael Creagh, his Majesty's 86th Regiment, and daughter of the late Judge Osborne.

Of Cholera, at Shreevella Pootoor, in the East Indies, on the 4th September last, James Somers Rac, Esq. late a Brevet Captain in his Majesty's 20th Regiment of Foot.

On the 10th February last, at Kingston, Jamaica, in the prime of life, Patrick Mahon, Esq. Lieutenant-Colonel of the Vere Regiment. He was a native of the town of Gort, in the county of Galway, and was an attached friend to any of his countrymen he met in a foreign clime, to whom he endeared himself by the suavity of his manners, and the strict integrity and honour of his conduct.

At Marino Crescent, near Dublin, at the early age of fourteen years, Eliza Letitia, only child of the late Captain Daniel O'Keefe, Royal York Rangers, Deputy Assistant Adjutant-General in the West Indies. Her disposition was sweet and amiable, and the last days of this child were marked by a knowledge of her God far above her tender years. She died in the sure hope of eternal felicity, through the merits of her blessed Redeemer.

In Dingle, deservedly lamented, Mrs. Mullins, wife of Thomas Mullins, Esq.

Captain Weston, late 48th Regiment.

At Enniskillen, Lieut. J. H. Peake, of the 59th Regiment.

Miss Whitty, daughter of the late Patrick Whitty, of Wexford, Esq.

In Carrick-on-Suir, John, second son of Mr. P. Codde, merchant, of that town.

In Caher, Mr. John O'Shea.

In Molesworth-street, Mrs. Letitia Bryan, relict of the late Jacob Bryan, Esq. of Dublin.

Forbes Hunter Blair, Esq. late candidate for the representation of Edinburgh.

In Downing-street, Captain Parsons, of the London militia.

At Vastina Glebe, Lambert Gustavus, son of the Rev. Henry Rochfort.

In Bedford-square, Henrietta Duke, daughter of Mr Justice Patterson.

In Castlecomer, in her 25th year, Miss Boyle.

Margaret, wife of Mr. Thomas Teevens, Linen-draper, Patrick-street, Dublin.

At Antony-house, Devon, the Hon. Caroline Ann, wife of the Right Hon. Reginald Pole Carew, in her 59th year. She was the daughter of the late Lord Lyttleton.

In Bath, Robert William Shawe, son of Lieut. Jennings, Royal Navy.

At Cheltenham, Elizabeth Catherine, daughter of Thomas Bradshaw, Esq.

In Grafton-street, London, Mrs. Ashton, widow of the late John Ashton, Esq.

At his house, in Park-street, Westminster, John Blackburne, of Hale-Hall, Esq. He represented the county of Lancaster in Parliament 46 years.

At his house, in Blackfriars-road, London, the Reverend Rowland Hill, aged 89.

In India, Lieutenant Munn.

At her house, at Clifton, Mrs. Trail, widow of the late James Trail, Esq.

At the residence of his brother, Major Stuart, Hillingdon Grove, near Uxbridge, James Stuart, Esq. a Director of the East India Company, and formerly, for several Parliaments, the Representative of the borough of Huntingdon.

At Langwith Lodge, Notts, Robert Nassau Sutton, Esq. youngest son of the late Sir Richard Sutton, Bart. of Norwood-Park, Notts.

At Chatham, at an advanced age, sincerely regretted by his friends and acquaintance, Ensign Joseph Ralph, late of the 1st Royal Veterans, and formerly Quartermaster of the 96th regiment.

R. N. Sutton, Esq. youngest son of the late Sir R. Sutton, Bart. of Norwood Park, Nottinghamshire

WANTED,
A PERSON to act as DRIVER or BAILIFF to an Estate in the County of Limerick.
Application to Mr. JAMES GRADY, No. 13, William Street, Limerick.
April 13.

To be Sold without reserve,
FOR THE PAYMENT OF INCUMBRANCES,
THE LANDS of INCHOVEAGH, containing 2460 Statute Acres, situate in the Barony of Corcomroe, and County of Clare. A considerable portion of these Lands are of rich fattening quality, and all arable. The property is held by Lease of Lives renewable for ever, at a rent of £394 6s. 8d. British per annum, and a renewal fine of £20 late currency; at abated rents the present profit amounts to £915 4s. 9d. British, and on the fall of the bad life there will be an increase of near £400 a-year. By a letting made in 1810, this estate produced nearly double the amount of the present rents.
Proposals will be received by WILLIAM BURTON, Esq. 3, Church Court, Clements Lane, London; and WILLIAM FITZGERALD, Esq. Adelphi, Corofin, who will give every necessary information.
April 10.

THE CELEBRATED HUNTER,
TERRY ALTS,
WILL stand this Season at ENNIS, at One Guinea to Gentlemen, and half-a-crown to the Groom. Farmers, One Pound, and one shilling to the Groom.
He stands 15 hands high, and as compact as a Pony, and equal to 14 stone, with Fox Hounds, and has immense bone and sinew; he is a splendid leaper, and has racing foot, and is allowed to be as good and as game a Hunter as ever went into a field; he is a very fine dark bay, with black legs, mane and tail—5 years old, perfectly sound, and free from vice or blemish.
It is useless to say one word more of this Horse, as he will speak for himself. He was got by Mr. Burke's famous Horse, Bachelor, his dam by King William, grand dam, an old Pipes Mare. Bachelor was got by Pickpocket, his dam by Monk, grand dam by Master Baggot.
Stables, Cook's-Lane. March 10.

HONEST GEORGE
WILL stand this season at ENNIS, so low to Gentlemen as £1 5s. and half-a-crown to the Groom. Farmers, One Guinea, and a shilling to the Groom.
It is allowed by the best judges he is a powerful bred Horse, possessing immense bone and sinew, with uncommon action, and equal to 15 stone, with Fox Hounds; he stands 16 hands 1 inch high, and so compact, that he does not appear above 15 hands; he is a tip-top leaper, and has racing foot, and his character as a Hunter can be proved. This is a Horse that will really improve the breed of this country with every description of Horses, from his blood and strength, not possessing the gum or dirt of the draft horse, nor the broken-down constitution of the old race horse. He is worthy the notice of Breeders, as he is now to be seen in Hunter's condition, when a horse will shew all his points, not puffed up with soft food all winter to make him appear large to bad judges.
Honest George was let out at 3 and four years old, at 2 Guineas, and half-a-crown to the Groom; his get are the most promising in the kingdom, and he has proved himself a fruitful horse, and has a powerful constitution, which is not easy met with; he is a beautiful dark bay, with black legs, mane and tail, 5 years old in May, perfectly sound, and free from vice or blemish.
He was got by the famous Horse, George the Fourth, his dam by Old Superior, grand dam by Rutland, great grand dam by Mr. Boarmen's Spanker. George the Fourth was got by Lord Rossmore's celebrated Horse, Musician—having proved himself the best 4 mile Horse of his years at Newmarket. Musician was got by Worthy, own brother to Waxy, by Potatoes, the best son of Eclipse, now the most favourite racing blood of the present day. Musician's dam, Woodbine, by Woodpecker, one of the best sons of King Herod, out of an old Cade Mare. George the Fourth's dam was got by Ebony, grand dam by the celebrated Horse, Diamond, great grand dam by old English Andrew.
Honest George is open to any horse in Clare, after the covering Season, for £100, 14 stone, over a sporting country.
Stables—Cook's-Lane.
No Mares to be covered after the 28th July.
March 10.

Important and Valuable Military Publications.

JUST PUBLISHED,
Price Six Shillings, Cloth Lettered,
ESSAYS ON FIELD FORTIFICATION,
INTENDED for the use of the Junior Officers and Non-Commissioned Officers of the British Army, with numerous Engravings—by Lieutenant HORACE FENWICK, Adjutant of H. M. 86th, or Royal County Down Regiment.
THE OFFICER'S MANUAL.
MILITARY MAXIMS OF NAPOLEON.
Translated from the French by Colonel D'AGUILAR, Deputy Adjutant-General to the Troops serving in Ireland. ONE VOL. CLOTH BOARDS—PRICE 5s.
"Colonel D'Aguiar, with his wonted zeal, has rendered a valuable service to the Officers, especially of the junior ranks, of the British Army, by offering them a valuable Translation of a French Work under the above title. Something of the kind was undoubtedly much wanted, as a stimulus to the study and a guide to the application of the Principles of War. The little volume in question is singularly well adapted to this object, combining in an eminent degree the qualities of conciseness and perspicuity in its original matter, and of unaffected simplicity and clearness in the style of its English Version. We only marvel how Colonel D'Aguiar could have found time, amidst his unremitting official toils, for a task which he has so completely executed. The reward which he seeks and deserves is, that this little Vade Mecum should be in the hands of every Officer who desires an incitement, or an aid to professional study."
