

...admitted in the Prima-with perceptible pulse, it is ity of estimating the com-t state. This is the more to the Hospital books, we find, Opium were beyond question The recoveries on the ave-n more than half, were from

...nt, we find there were seven h died—three being of the disease, to offer a definitive given remedy, in so small a ever, merely to results, we ths in seven cases of collapse referring to the Hospital re-at has occurred at the worst re recoveries being $2\frac{1}{4}$ in 10 10.

...whatever the effects of the
be—that the following conases of the Rapid type, which of those admitted into Hospihe disease every where—that s any remedy hitherto rerroneous, that no consecutive ment, as it occurred in every and in one in which collapse

...n of the progress of these cas-that camphor has a power of skin, more speedily than other by no means permanent. It ne a useful auxiliary to other the intensity and nature of reported cases, it becomes a , whether any advantage de-erties, may not be more than rcotic effects.

...erations, we feel it right to powerful medicines, requires n any of these cases, was 960 camphor, and the smallest 96 n used was made in the pro-or to six drachms of spirit of

...ntion, that camphor and cold action was perfectly establish-use of when consecutive fever

...LLIAM J. GEARY, M.D.
...LLIAM GRIFFIN, M.D.

...f the Waterford Horticultural , when a splendid display of and fruits was made. The ributed by Mr. Wyse, before g assembly of both sexes.
egiment have arrived at Kil-y Kerry, to enforce payment the Rev. John Murphy, un-

At Trinity Church, Chelsea, W. Digby Seymour, Esq.
to Emily, eldest daughter of the late Rev. B. C. Kenneld, Rector of East Ilsley, Bucks.

DEATHS.

In Dublin, after a very short illness of bilious fever, on her way to England to purchase goods, Mrs. Carroll, of the Silk Mercery establishment, George's-street, in this City.

In Clare-street, Mr. Mathew Kelly.

In Baggot-street, Dublin, Catherine, widow of Nicholas Lynch, Esq. formerly of Barna, in the county Galway.

In Camden-street, Dublin, Mrs. Catherine Doyle.

At Cove, Anne, youngest daughter of the late J. Lyne, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

At Far View, county Westmeath, the seat of his brother-in-law, David North, Esq. John Joshua Pim, of Lower Ormond-quay, Dublin, merchant.

In Dingle, Ellen, daughter of Mr. Michael Johnson.

Mr. David Glanville, of the Parade, Waterford.

In Barronstrand-street, Waterford, Mr. John Meade.

At Bandon, Mr. Joseph Bullen.

At Lodge View, county Kilkenny, Lieut. James Proctor, of the Waterford Regiment.

In Carnarvon, aged 83 years, Henry Garnett, Esq. late of Athearn Castle, county Meath.

At Warren's-place, Cork, William Henry, the son of Lieutenant T. L. Butler, 77th Regiment.

In Adelaide street, Cork, Mr. Thomas Brien.

In London, Mrs. Elizabeth Christie, relict of the late Major Daniel Beat Christie.

Aged 21, William, son of William Armstrong, Esq. of Charlemont-street, Dublin.

At the Glebe-house of Upper Badoney, Rebecca, wife of the Rev. John Conan, Rector of that parish.

The Rev. John Gibson, aged 81, many years Minister of the Dissenting Congregation of Richhill, county Armagh.

In Shop-street, Galway, Mrs. Holland, wife of Mr. F.
Holland, Ironmonger.

Thomas Richbell, Esq. the resident Magistrate of Thames Police, London.

In Park-street, Westminster, John Blackburne, Esq. of Hale-hall, in the county of Lancaster, which county he represented in Parliament during the long period of 46 years.

In London, Mrs. Bishop, mother of Mr. H. R. Bishop the composer.

At Chatham, Captain Robinson, of the 48th Regiment, formerly of the 42d, and son-in-law of the late Alderman Edmonds, of Kilkenny.

In London, Lieut.-Colonel Adam Peebles, late of the 9th Regiment.

At Wycombe Lodge, Kensington, the Marchioness Dowager of Lansdowne.

In New-street, Spring-gardens, London, the Hon. Anne Jane, wife of E. P. Bastard, Esq. of Kitley, Devon, and only sister of Lord Rodney.

In Portman-street, London, the Dowager Lady Sommers.

At Old Charlton, Kent, Lieut.-Colonel Henry Rogers, of the Royal Artillery, late Ordnance Store-keeper in Dublin.

In Upper Baker-street, London, R. Powell, Esq. Groom of his Majesty's Most Hon. Privy Chamber, aged 81.

At South Audley-street, Lady Adelaide C. Campbell, daughter of Earl Cawdor.

At Broughty Ferry, the Hon. Mrs. Dowbiggin, fourth daughter of Lord Panmure.

At Hyderabad, Lieutenant-Colonel Alexander Ogilvie, of his Majesty's 46th Regiment.

COUNTY OF LIMERICK.

erected, at a considerable of a genteel Family, wi inclosed with a high wa Trees, in full bearing,
Banagher, 5 of Portum Market and Post towns.
quiet and secure; there and Oats under tillage, posed of at a valuation and divided with severa Canal is within 2 Miles session can be given.

Proposals (if b
Esq. Newgrove, Birr,

TO
AND IMMEDI
THE FLOUR M

On t
(THREE M

ALL the Works and modern and appro water is not equalled in in the driest season.

An excellent situatio or Tobacco business, to the HOUSE in Upper street, now in the occup

A New PHAETON,
sold for the value.

Apply to Mr. CHA street.

MR. HUTCHINS

(from London) extensive patronage in LIMERICK, begs leave that he has just chang HARSTONG STRE
and the Cresce it, the
the reception of thos commands.

Mr. H. will be at C next, where he will decorating of his hous

Mr. HUTCHINS wo educated young Gentle

TO WILLIAM
CHIE

SIR,
We, the Gentl

Parishes of Ki of Miltown Maloay, a heard, with considera district will be final, Police under your con for the steady, upright months you were quart

We consider it but our full and unqualif tlemantly, and concilia duty as Chief Constab

The numerous Par
Pastors and their Bo
you their most gratefu