

of the present month—
days!

legal combinations is nearly perpetrated last week near Kil-was a Roman Catholic coadwere unsound; in the life he became a convert to the time after he relapsed, and in the parish of Killenaule. scholar, and his reading he preached a sermon on to the Protestant Church in he had been Roman Catholic light. The Rev. Mr. Nowlan and quick apprehension.

Tipperary have so increased of the House of Industry set longer able to contain them. number was about forty—at in the house.

es Kelly, a respectable vic-Waterford, was in the act of he had given her two or three ful wound with her horns on on Sunday morning.

es, the Misses Meader, from st-street Society, perished in a Liverpool to New South very great degree in the town the early part of the week, heavy showers of rain, which the appearance of the country the parched ground is most rece a wonderful growth in the use of vegetation.

ve convicted Cornelius Foley be imprisoned six months, for ddiers, 29th Reserve.

a candidate for the office of Society, vacant by the death pected in Dublin, on his way nty Wicklow, with his son, in London from Stockholm.

has left Armagh, for his resit. James's-square, London.

f St. Patrick's, Dublin, has Henry Hughes, A. M. to a Cuilkenny.

have presented their Repre-son, a splendid Piece of Plate sh over the Petition against

City Dublin Grand Jury eight 233,000 advanced for Cholera by the Chairman of the Board for the issue of Exchequer 00, to be lodged in favour of Commissioners for the com-Quays of Galway.

tenants in the Preventive Ser-three years:—Fourteen Offi-the expiration of 3 months.

ral the Hon. Sir H. Hotham, British squadron in the Medi-to Janet Hamilton, eldest daughter of the late General Francis Dundas, of Sanson, Berwickshire.

DEATHS.

At Cove, on the first instant, of inflammation of the lungs Miss. F. Lloyd, daughter of the late Thomas Lloyd, Esq. of Beechmount, formerly M. P. for this county, and sister to the present High Sheriff. The death of this amiable young lady, in the bloom of youth, fills a large circle of relatives and friends with poignant sorrow, only alleviated by a perfect, yet humble reliance on the promises of the Redeemer, that her piety, virtues and benevolence have opened to her the path to eternal life.

In Brunswick-street, after a lingering illness, which he endured with the fortitude and resignation of a good Christian, Mr. Anthony Swinburn, jun. a young gentleman much regretted by his family and friends.

On the 3d instant, Hugh Cuolohan, Esq. of Ashgrove, King's County, sincerely and deservedly regretted by a numerous circle of friends and acquaintances. He was an affectionate husband, a fond indulgent parent, and a kind and sincere friend. He died rejoicing in the merits of his Redeemer.

At Ballywalter, county Tipperary, George Weyland, jun.
Esq. aged 23 years.

Jane, wife of Michael M'Sheehy, Esq. of Clahane, near Tralee.

At Barbadoes, Margaret Ann, only daughter of Major Farquaher, of the 65th Regiment.

At his house in Cashel, Lionel Doherty, Esq.

In Waterford, at the Widows' apartments, Cathedral-square, the relict of the late Rev. John Roberts.

In Harrington-street, Dublin, Frederick Cradock, Esq.
Librarian of the Royal Dublin Society.

In Gardiner-place, Dublin, Alexander Campbell, Esq, an eminent Solicitor.

At his residence in Finglas, Mr. Christopher Bilton, for many years proprietor of one of the largest hotels in Dublin.

At Serpentine-avenue, Sophia, relict of the Rev. Dr.
Archer, for many years Inspector-General of Prisons in Ireland, aged 73 years.

In North Great George's-street, Dublin, aged 27 years, Henry Charles, youngest son of William Baily Wallace, Esq.

The Rev. H. Doogan, P. P. of Ballymascanlan, upwards of 18 years P. P. of Catlingford.

In Dublin, of influenza, Mr. John Reynolds, for many years a Clerk in the Exchequer Office.

On his passage from Bermuda to England, after a severe illness, Alexander Carroll Nelson, Esq. Royal Artillery, son of General Nelson, of Devonport.

At his residence in the county of Longford, Colonel Fox, aged 73 years.

At Lurgan, Jane, wife of the Rev. William Keys, Methodist Minister.

Near Huddersfield, aged 58 years, the Rev. John Slack, Wesleyan Minister, superintendant of the Wakefield circuit.

In Lower Gardiner-street, Wm. Molton, Esq. Solicitor.

At Charles-street, St. James's, London, Captain John Carter Barrett, late of the 98th Regiment, and formerly of Loughrea.

In St. James's-square, London, the Countess de Grey, aged 83.

In Upper Grosvenor-street, Herbert Edward, second and youngest son of the Hon. Robert Henry Clive and Lady Harriet Clive.

At Malta, after a few days illness, the Hon. Vice-Admiral Sir Henry Hotham, K.C.B. K.S.M. and S.G., Commander-in-Chief of his Majesty's ships in the Mediterranean.

This Day is Published, Price 2s. 6d.
THE DUBLIN UNIVERSITY MAGAZINE,

SUMME AT THE ENGLISH AN 120, Ge (CORNER OF
THE PROPRIETORS
to inform the Ladie that their Buyer has just re with a Large and Fashionab to the present Season, viz. : Coloured and Black Gr
gured Silks; a splendid var Filled Shawls; London E Parasoles, Tuscan Bonnets, A great number of Desks, and Dressing-Cases.

COUNTY
TO B
MR. LAMBERT'S
Derrynabroky, co
BIRCH, of about forty y and about three miles from by letter post-paid, will b Esq. Lambert Lodge, Cr
Russar, Gort.
Burns, the Woodra person inclined to purchase

12 COUNTY
TO BE LET, for three immediate possession Demesne, containing Thi offices and a large Garden cription of Fruit Trees, situ two of O'Brien's Bridge, a House is large and commo manding a view of the Sha scenery of Doonas and Ca laloe, and Dublin packet Lands are of prime quality watered; there have been on these Lands, and a l Offices.
Application to JOSEPH
End House, Castle Conne
A man attends at the L

13 GOV.
A FEMALE of respect wishes to engage in petent to instruct in Engli use of the Terrestrial Gl and every branch of the Mr. Walker's plan, nephe She also professes plain W aid of a Master, and has men from 4 to 10 years of and work for them, resid domestic line, if agreeabl and highly respectable other places, will be obta tency, and attention to t care in every respect.
55, Thomas-street, at M spectfully attended to.