

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE.

ant has offered £100 reward for the in-royed the out-offices and farming stock
e Peacocke, Holycross, Thurles, a few

t convicts left the City Gaol on Monday
with a Subaltern's party of the 37th Regi-
nt and six privates of the 4th Dragoon

rom Castlebar arrived here on Monday
ard of the 64th Regiment, and left the morning for Cork.

oman Catholic Bishop of Killaloe, con-
and adults in Nenagh Chapel last week.
alth at Clonmel has dissolved itself.

Gentleman was arrested in Dublin on 5 was found on his person alleged to be ate Mr. Clement Codd, and taken from his death bed at Kingstown last week.

of Ennis convicted a poacher this week
0 under the 55th Geo III. for breach of omas Connell, and Patrick Fennessy, are county gaol by the Hon. Robert King, gomery, Esq. charged with feloniously of John Dunne, near Galbally, firing at iam Sullivan, therein.

famous sleight of hand professor, per-orrow.

INFLUENZA—When a person observes
e as soon as possible one dose of castor
y will instantaneously be observed.

Cor of the Limerick Chronicle.

diff's Hotel, Limerick, May 20, 1833.
ertisement which purports to be an Ad-Mr. Gregg from his pupils, and which character of my son, is the following

Hodges, we are sorry to be obliged to time he entered the Establishment he was nd by no means a good example to his e understand that his conduct was equally other school he was lately obliged to rote to the Rev. Mr. D. Twiss Riordan of ster of the "other school" alluded to in nly school to which my son ever went, gg's. The annexed letter is the answer I Mr. Riordan. I have determined upon ose journals in which my son has been

it to the public to judge of the conduct nducing his pupils to injure the fame of low, a very young boy like themselves, eference to his behaviour at a former y could have known nothing. This is a a to teach youth, so likely to be impressed ing from a clergyman. Mr. Riordan's n Court on Saturday, it not being deemed at it will be evidence in another Court on am, Sir, your obedient servant,

GEORGE C. HODGES.

THE REV. D. TWISS RIORDAN TO MR. HODGES.

The Abbey, Tipperary, May 13, 1833.

I have received your letter, requesting I as how William conducted himself while n reply, feel much pleasure in being able nduct had been uniformly correct. The an be brought against him is, his having ccasion and having gone to his uncle's,
a day and half—but so little blame did I et, that I felt it my duty to send home a ly forced him to it by the most violent so little did I think his conduct deserving n, that I immediately resolved, when I
in the paper, to write to you on the sub-

DEATHS.

At Poonah, in the East Indies, on the 10th Nov. 1832,
of a brain fever, after an illness of two days and a half, Lieutenant John Ottey, of his Majesty's 6th Foot, eldest son of Quarter-Master Ottey, of the 2d Battalion 60th Rifles, universally regretted by all his brother Officers.

At Dublin, George Newsom Strangman, of Woodstown-
West, in the Liberties of Waterford, Esq.

At Florence, of fever, Charles James O'Donoghue, Esq.
of Glanfesk, Kerry, son-in-law, of John O'Connell, Esq.
of Glens, Killarney, commonly called "O'Donoghue of the Glens," being the Chief of that ancient Irish family—a young gentleman whose amiable disposition has rendered his premature decease a source of deep and general regret.

In Upper Henry-street, Mr. Peter Daly, mail coach driver.

In Nelson-street, Tralee, Mr. Denis Meany, woollen-draper.

At Golden, aged 63 years, the Rev. Thomas Bergin, for 25 years Parish Priest of Golden and Kilfeacle.

Mary Jane, daughter of Edward John Smith, of North Frederick-street, Dublin, Esq.

In Upper Dorset-street, Dublin, Charles Marchant Kan-
ning, a student in surgery, aged 17 years.

At his residence, Little Britain-street, Dublin, David Wilson, Esq. many years a Solicitor of the Law and Equity Courts.

At Charleville, on Wednesday last, Samuel Maxwell,
Esq. a very active and intelligent Magistrate of the Counties of Limerick and Cork, a Major in the Army, and formerly of the 92d, or Gordon Highlanders.

At Spa-hill, county Carlow, Thomas Little, Esq.

In Shandon-street, Cork, Miss Bridget Windle.

Mrs. Anne Murphy, relict of Maurice Murphy, Esq.
merchant, of Cork.

In Ecniskillen, John Atkinson, Esq. formerly of Cavan Garden. Mr. Atkinson was one of the oldest Magistrates of the County Donegal.

Mr. John Ford, Architect, second son of the late Mr.
John Ford, Architect, of Cork.

In Killarney, Mary, daughter of Mr. Nicholas Riordan.

At Brompton, Major Augustus Reppell Colley, of the Chatham Division of Royal Marines.

At Bath, Sarah Jane, wife of Lieutenant-Colonel Watt, Commandant of the Trafford and Hulme regiments of Local Militia, and late Inspecting Field Officer.

At St. Leonard's, Hastings, Sir John Evelyn, Bart.

In New Burlington-street, London, Lady Harriet Ludlow, third daughter of the late Peter Earl Ludlow, and sister to the present Earl.

At Bushey, Herts, Dr. Thomas Monro, aged 74.

At the Herald's College, London, James Rock, Esq. M. R.
I. A. Mr. Rock was for many years connected with the Irish Office of Arms, and lately appointed Rouge Dragon, (Chief Pursuivant of Arms,) in England.

In Bloomsbury-square, London, Augusta Elizabeth, youngest daughter of the late Robert Scott, Surgeon of the 4th battalion of the Royal Artillery.

At Beaumaris, aged 106, Mrs. Elizabeth Henry, called the "Mother of Beaumaris." She was niece of Admiral Henry, who died lately, aged 107.

Major John Buckworth, late of the 64th Regiment.

James Wallis, Carpenter, R. N. who accompanied Capt.
Cook in his second voyage of discovery round the world.

At Bath, Captain Henry Montresor, R. N. C. B.

At the Chapel-House, Wotton-Underedge, the Reverend Theophilus Jones. He was co-pastor with the Rev. Rowland Hill upwards of 16 years.

At Meppershall, Beds, aged 85, the Rev. J. Webster, 43 years Rector of that parish.

In the Inner Temple, London, William Hood, Esq. senior bencher, aged 90.

ENNIS COLLEGE.
Rev. L. W. KING, A. B. and formerly SCHOLAR
T. C. D. Master.

IN pledging himself to impart a truly sound education in which English Literature is primarily regarded, Mr.

WESTERN YACHT
MEETING of the Club will be THURSDAY, the 6th June next,

for the purpose of arranging the Regatta
A Ballot for the admission of Members
the same day. Members having Candidates requested to send the Secretary their names
with as little delay as possible.

After the Meeting, the Yachts of the under the orders of the Commodore. A requested.

By order of the Committee,
THOMAS O'CONNELL,
May 21.

NOTICE

IS hereby given that the entire of the S of the late Mrs. CARROL will be WEDNESDAY, the 22d Instant, at the George's-Street; and as all will be sold Sale will be well worth the attention of encouragement will be given to those in buy to sell again.

All persons indebted to the requested to have their Accounts discha
Mr. JOSEPH LYNCH, at the Shop, is a all Payments.

BUTTER TRADE

WILLIAM WHEELER, having
the Limerick Chamber of Comm Butter in this City, do swear that, during said office, I will execute the duties the my skill and judgment, without favour person whatsoever; and that I will not d
accept of any bribe or gratuity from eith Butter.

Sworn before me, at Limerick, this 21st
JOHN P. VER
WILLIAM WHEELER.

JERRY SNEA

WILL STAND AT MACROOM
Pounds each Mare, and five shil
His Sire, Mr. BATTERSEY's famous Hor Dam, the Spotted Doe, bred by Lord B ing Calendar.

TO BUILD

SEALED PROPOSALS for building River Fergus, at Ennis, agreeably to cations, to be seen at the Office of the RIC Esq. Civil Engineer, Limerick, or of CAPT
will be received by the Commissioners County Clare Grand Jury for that purpose
the 10th of June next, when the proposu
and the successful candidate declared.

COUNTY OF CL

TO BE LET, for three Lives, or th
immediate possession given, ELM Demesne, containing Thirty-four Irish offices and a large Garden, well stocked cription of Fruit Trees, situate within fou
two of O'Brien's Bridge, and one of C House is large and commodious, beauti
manding a view of the Shannon and Ca
scenery of Doonas and Castle Connell;
laoe, and Dublin packet boats pass nea Lands are of prime quality, lime stone so watered; there have been fifty thousand on these Lands, and a large sum exp Offices.

Application to JOSEPH WALLPLA
End House, Castle Connell.
A man attends at the Lodge to show t

TO BE LET

For such term as may be ag