ution of thanks was passed to the Messrs. r conduct in Parliament. Mr. Steele ading in a speech of some length on the present affairs, the policy of Lord Grey's cabinet, on of Ireland. The language and action of t instantly conjure up the lines of the poet, breathe and words that burn." It would herefore, to enter into detail. Donnell has pronounced the Repeal of the on to be impracticable.

of the Limetick I difficult outline on monday ward Maynard Denny is appointed to the ell, &c. lately held by the Rev. Anthony has resigned from ill health. The appointnny, took place on the presentation of Thomas Galway, Esq.

friends.

q. of Ballyhorgan house, Patron of these as been confirmed by the Lord Bishop of come of the Vicars Choral of Limerick is ch sum £263 is paid annually to the members I Choir. iscount Mount-Earl, eldest son of the Right Dunraven, has attained his majority, and the t was hailed with great rejoicing at Adare last inhabitants of the town, the tenantry on his estate, and the numerous peasantry of the eighbourhood. Adare house has been the estivities this week. shop of Dublin has given twenty guineas to Orphan Society in that capital.

al on Thursday and yesterday.

n by charitable contributions. rs of the County Galway Infirmary are to for that Institution the 15th of next month. ed Pierce Egan, of sporting celebrity, made a Cork audience last evening, in Tom and in London. The performance was for the eymour. horses at Naas Races this week were, Mr. by Roller, Mr. Connolly's Juniper by Spot,

. Lawrence, and Mr. Fitzpatrick's Ballysax.

continues remarkably sultry. We have a nd the summer heat of July in its greatest learn an unexpected out-break of cholera in

k. The cases are not many, but two or and sixty cholera orphans are now main-son is nearly closed in the South, and the ants of this City have discontinued purchasing of the early potatoe crop has, in numerous inliscovered, especially within the Liberties of he seed had been sown the beginning of otted, from the moist state of the ground, and vy rains. delightful state of the weather strangers are g in to visit Killarney Lakes. Amongst the I distinguished visitors at Finn's Hotel are the itess of Miltown, Viscount Kingsborough and aly pleased to observe very favourable indinost successful Regatta on the Shannon this the very influential patronage of the Western

There are two or three very handsome yachts

rus in urbe, whose rapid growth in an incredy for a launch, which promise great credit this on this river; and some very elegant and four-oared boats of new construction are r native element, ready for the Aquatic strugcers of the Garrison, we are happy to observe, nding interest in the preparations, and they a handsome craft for one class of the prizes. ies in this city and its vicinage are preparing to the Western coast, for the benefit of sea air Kilkee, Lahinch, and Miltown Malbay. at this period many attractions, and the nu-exhibit better accommodation and comfort . Those marine resorts are perfectly healthy. is now the most desirable promenand about nost frequented, so contiguous to the residence at the West end; while the delightful music l imparts an unrivalled charm to the beautiful oded walks, gay parterres, and variegated e daily resort of youth, rank, and fashion. of our City embraces in so eminent a degree of all that is truly beautiful in nature and art.

marthenshire, to Elizabeth Maria, second daughter of Harry Brett, Esq. of Cheltenham. At Burlington, Yorkshire, Adam Washington, Esq. Bar. rister-at-law, of Lincoln's Inn, to Anne, eldest daughter of Marmaduke Prickett, Esq.

DEATHS.

At her house in Roche's-street, the Lady of John Wight, Esq. and third daughter of the late H. C. Bowen, of Bowen's Court, Esq. at an advanced age, of paralysis, deeply and sincerely regretted by her husband, relatives and numerous friends-a truly Christian, virtuous and amiable woman.

At Exeter, William Gun Paul, of John's-hill House, Waterford, and of Ballyquin, in the county Waterford, Esq. He was son of the late, and brother of the present, Sir Joshua Paul, of Ballinglan, county Waterford, Baronet, and connected, by birth and marriage, with several of the most distinguished families of Ireland. At Clonmel, the Rev. Edward Brennan, R. C. Curate.

In Cork, Sarah, wife of Mr. George Smith-and on the Grand Parade, Cork, Mr. John Roche, aged 76. At New York, Augusta, wife of Charles Lambert, Esq. son of the late Walter Lambert, of Castle-Lambert, county

On board the Leeds steamer, on his passage from Bordeaux, where he had been for the benefit of his health,

Lieutenant Franklin Lecky, 62d Regiment, third son of Averall Lecky, Esq. of Castle Lecky, county Derry.

Smith, Esq. North Frederick-street.

At Litter-house, county Kerry, William Wren, Esq.

Alicia, wife of Francis Berry, Esq. of Tullamore, and youngest daughter of the late Richard Adams, Esq. of Shercock-house, county Cavan. At his residence, Landscape, Rathfaraham, Laurence Waldron, Esq. In Dublin, Philip, only remaining child of Edward John

In Cork, the Lady of Denis Mahony, Esq. of a son. In the prime of life, in Cork, from the effects of influenza, which caused premature accouchement, Mrs. Smith, wife of George Smith, Esq. and daughter of William Seymour,

Esq. of that City, sincerely regretted by her family and

In Castlebar, Henry, third son of Edward Malley, Esq.

The Rev. Mr. Jennings, P. P. of Ballinrobe. In Dublin, Captain Wm. Deane Wainwright, formerly of the 27th Regiment. At Drumcondra, Anne, only daughter of the late Robert Keernan, of Balrothery, county Dublin, Esq.

and the late Lord Viscount Anson.

L'Estrange, Esq. Surgeon.

At Sheerness, John Gooch, Esq. Surgeon of his Majesty's ship Ocean. At Shoreditch, near Taunton, Captain Robert Poole, aged

72. He crossed the Equator to and from the Pacific Ocean twenty-two times; passed Cape Horn seventeen times; and sailed once round the globe. At Corsgedol, Merioneth, Frances, second daughter of

Bell Lloyd, Esq. and niece to the Right Hon. Lord Mostyn,

At his residence, Macville, county Dublin, aged 85 years, and a Magistrate of the County Dublin. At Oporto, Mrs. Ormerod, wife of a respectable English In William-street, Dublin, Sarah, the wife of Francis

William Jolly, Esq. for many years. Collector of Excise, Allen. By the unfortunate wreck of the Mary, off Cape Clear, on the passage home from Demerara, Mr. George Kelly, in

At her house in Merrion-square, Dublin, Miss Hannah

his 16th year, youngest son of James Kelly, of Dominicktreet, Dublin, Esq. In February, on board his Majesty's brig Calypso, the Hon. Augustus William Monckton, aged 24, Commander in the Royal Navy, Flag-Lieutenant to the late Vice-Admiral Sir Edward Griffith Colpoys, third son of Viscount and Viscountess Galway. This young Officer, after passing nearly five years on the West India station, was returning to England, and there is too much reason to believe the Calypso foundered at sea after leaving Halifax, Nova Scotia. FAIRS IN THE ENSUING WEEK. Limerick-Monday, Abington, Adare, Ballingarry, Knocklong; Tuesday, Kilmallock; Friday, Glanogra.

Clare-Monday, Holyisland; Tuesday, Killaloe; Friday, Kilclaran. Cork-Monday, Ballinamona, Carrigaline, Castlelyons, Curron bhealands Downderry: Tuesday.

Scriptures of the Old taken from the most correct copies o Version; with all the Marginal R lection of Parallel Texts-and cop Chapter; and a commentary and Ci London: printed for T. T. and J. and JOHN CUMMING, Dublin; Booksellers in Ireland. N. B.—Prospectuses gratis.

COMPLETION OF MR. MURRA

ONLY COMPLETE E

LORD BYRON'S LIFE By THOMAS MOOR THE Seventeenth and Last Vo LORD BYRON, with his Letter

Life, by Thomas Moore, Esq. will

This Volume will contain a copiou

John Murray, Albermarle-street, MING, 16, Lower Ormond-quay, Dul every Bookseller in Ireland. *** Subscribers are respectfully

their Sets, that they may be insured

Pages will also be given.

beautiful Embellishments which acce of June.

TEPID BATHS-ATLA Miltown Ma ITH anxious diffidence, the l

Concern begs leave again to and to solicit a renewal of that p liberally extended to him during th are the best criterion of the sincerity he is willing to be tried by that stand he is not ungrateful for the generous ances made by the visitors of the last etor was then a new candidate for course the patronage was in a great he hopes that his unremiting exertion him, henceforward, to attach to h principle, those who shall again how port. The Proprietor trusts that all w of his charges-only Five Shillings fast, Dinner and Tea. The House I a new set of Servants has been pro Wines laid in, and the merchants no supply of old Mutton secured, and plenty. As additional inducement Table attached and a well appoin mail), starts from the Hotel every mo passing through Lahinch and Ennist before the departure of the coaches for leaves Ennis, on its return, at One the Hotel again at half-past Five.

Jaunting Car for the use of the inm

for the exercise of invalids, or the re

A moderate fare will be charged, in or jealousies. All the roads in the Hotel, along the coast, are kept in

N. B.—Good Livery and a careful ** Cards of Terms may be he opposite the Club-House, George's-

" Board of Works."

NOTICE S hereby given that the entire of of the late Mrs. CARROL will WEDNESDAY, the 22d Instant, a George's-Street; and as all will be Sale will be well worth the attentio encouragement will be given to those buy to sell again.

All persons indebted to requested to have their Accounts of Mr. JOSEPH LYNCH, at the Shop all Payments.