

... to Richard Litton, Esq.
 Piece of Plate, on this on that Circuit.
 arrest under civil process,
 ents.
 ankrupcty were issued in erseded, and the number years sbould be revived or of this present Month of IV. chap. 35—otherwise and void, as against Pur-were made, before or after k Water Works Company to pay in an instalment of e works contemplated by nmnence on Monday next, sting week. The Kirwan eleven horses are entered, here are five favorites in ore been a winner. There k. itzpatrick's Ballysax, won 30L. added. Mr Morgan's 2L., and 20L. added.
 Joint Stock Bank on Mon-cent for the last half-year.
 t a meeting of the Dublin lopt laws for its regulation.
 ou, the Solicitor-General, titution.
 are now playing at the first rate pleasure yachts to be held in the Shannon of the nobility and gentry n No. 51 of "The Botanic exhibit a very siagular ably will be new to many own that vegetables collect been bold enough to assert on the atmosphere, what-ng merely, if we may be alus to their appetites.
 amongst pure sand, and leaden shot, &c. on being water, have been found to ultimately yielding all the als, earths, &c. which are Hence it is certain, that all been taken up by the roots, ced by distillation, from

Lady Augusta Coventry, daughter of the Earl and Countress of Coventry, to the Hon. Henry Fox, eldest son of Lord Holland.

DEATHS.

At Castle-Connell, after a tedious illness, the Rev. Archdeacon William Galwey, Rector of Kilmastulla, in the Archdiocese of Cashel, many years a faithful Minister of the Church, a kind parent, and a humane man.
 Yesterday morning, at the house of his brother, Doctor O'Brien, in Ennis, where he had gone to attend the election of Surgeon to the County Infirmary, after a few hours illness, of Cholera, Terence O'Brien, Esq; Attorney-at-Law, formerly of Newcastle, and late of this City, a gentleman much regretted by his family and friends.
 At Newborough, county Galway, Netherville Blake, Esq.
 at the advanced age of eighty years. During the first American war (as Captain) he served his King and country.
 Near Carrick-on-Suir, in the prime of life, Mr. Edward Fleming, brother to the Catholic Bishop of Newfoundland.
 In Kilkenny, of cholera, Sarah, daughter of Lieutenant Farrant, 54th Regiment.
 Anne, daughter of the late Mr. William Frazer, of Tuam.
 At Athenry, Miss D. Ormsby.
 At Newtown Park, Mrs. Doyne, wife of Charles Doyne, Esq.
 At Kilmaloodo Glebe, Margaret, third daughter of the late Frederick Clarke, Esq. Passage West.
 At Woodville, Elizabeth, wife of Samuel Croker, Esq.
 At Athlone, Mrs. Catherine Davies, relict of the late James Davies, of Newcastle, county Galway, Esq.
 At Caroline-street, Cork, Mr. Thomas Fisher.
 At Kinsale, Teresa, wife of John Hopkiss, Esq.
 At Miltown-lodge, near Dublin, John Nolan, of Logboy, in the county of Mayo, Esq.
 In Belfast, Doctor Francis Montgomery.
 Of apoplexy, in the Isle of Wight, the Lady of Captain Scargill, late 9th Regiment.
 At Bridgefield, near Castlemartyr, county Cork, Robert Kenah, Esq.
 On his passage from Bahia to Cowes, in the Barque Perseverance, for the recovery of his health, Francis, son of the late James Stewart, of Dublin, Esq.
 In Castlebar, Mr. Howard, Officer of Excise.
 After a few hours illness, Frances, wife of William M.
 Geoghegan, Esq. of Rathmines, aged 26 years.
 At Hampstead, Mr. Thomas Johnstone, Licentiate of the College of Surgeons, Dublin.
 In Grosvenor-place, London, Maria, daughter of Charles Maekinnon, Esq.
 At Alveston, in the county of Gloucester, Maria Anne, eldest daughter of William Norris Tonge, Esq. aged 21.
 Mr. Richard Price, one of the Sub-Commissioners employed by the Record Commission, London.
 At Taplow, in Bucks, Colonel Marmadyke Williamson Browne, of the Hon. East India Company's Bengal Artillery, and brother to Lieut.-General Sir Thomas Browne, K.C.H. of Knockduve House, near Kinsale, their medicinal v

 country, height, t introduction: also,
 tory, qualities, mod
 as may be interesti
 or pleasing to the g
 BY
 A new feature in Two pages on misc
 ing subjects, connec additional char
 highly-finished wor
 Each volume, cont
 Large, 37s.; Sm
 fifth Vol. was issue A beautifully ou paration. For part Is. editions of the London—Simple

10
 Jeremiah Scully, I
 Plaintiff.
 John Tuthill, Esq.,
 others, Defendant

ty Hanly, Willia
 part of the LANDS
 said County of Li Thirty perches in stant, to the order
 Monday, the 10
 Clock, in the a Quay, Dublin.—D

The Tenant to Recognizance.

**//
 Hugh Norcott, E
 Plaintiff.
 William Hill, Esq
 Wife and other Defendants.

Esq. deceased, in t having Charges an
 of the said Willia
 before me, at my C or before the First be precluded the b Dated thi

FREDERICK
 5, Duke-street, Du