

Mary Reeves, daughter of the Rev. E. Thomas, Rector of Ballinacourty, in the county Kerry.

DEATHS.

In Anne-street, Mr. Thomas Mulcahy, for some years past Collector of St. Michael's parochial rate.

In Ennis, at an advanced age, Mrs. Kenny, widow of Edmund Kenny, Esq. of Dysart.

Mary, wife of Mr. Timothy M'Mahon, of Mulloch, in this County.

At Naas, Mr. Richard O'Callaghan, formerly an eminent Woollen Draper, of that town.

In Boyle, Mrs. Lowe, wife of Mr. John Lowe.

At Blenheim Hill, county Waterford, Elizabeth, relict of the late Henry Ridgway, Esq.

At Rathfarnham, Captain William Boyd, of the Wexford Regiment.

In the 63d year of his age, the Very Rev. James Duffy, R. C. Vicar-General of the Diocese of Kilmadough, and P. P. of Craughwell, in the county Galway.

In Patrick-street, Cork, Miss Catherine Fanning.

At Blackrock, aged 68 years, Mrs. Mary O'Donovan, relict of the late Mr. Timothy O'Donovan, Cork.

In Ennis, Mr. John Shally, who for a long time conducted an English School in that town.

At his residence, Ballindeenisk, Francis Harrison, Esq.

In Church-street, Dublin, Mrs. Margaret Mahon.

In Russell-street, Tralee, Mr. Joseph Leggett.

Stephen, son of the late Mr. Stephen Huggard, of Kilarney.

At Athlone, Lieutenant Daniel John Murphy, half-pay 23d Foot.

At Jersey, Doctor Robert Cooke, of the Royal Artillery. In the 63d year of his age, James Craig, Esq. of Glen Park, Carrickfergus. He was for many years Member of the United Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland, for the county of Carrickfergus.

At Bombay, on his return home on leave of absence, William Heron, Esq. Lieutenant in his Majesty's 20th Regiment, only son of the late William Heron, Esq. Hardwicke-street, Dublin.

At the Glebe, near Macroom, the Lady of the Rev. Mr. Roche, Rector of Kilmichael, and daughter of the late Right Rev. Dr. Lawrence, Lord Bishop of Cork.

At Drought-Ville Forest, King's County, aged 78 years, Colonel Thomas Drought.

At Cheltenham, Captain Charles Harrison, late of the 67th Regiment, aged 37.

At Bedford Lodge, near Staines, George Engleheart, Esq. late a Lieutenant-Colonel in the Hon. East India Company's Bengal Establishment.

At Tunbridge Wells, Barnard William, second son of Lieut.-Colonel Gillman, 76th regiment.

At his house in Dover-street, London, Peter Lord King, aged 57.

At Paris, M. Savary, Duke of Rovigo.

At Madras, Thomas Owen, Esq. President of the Medical Board, after 38 years service in the Hon. Company and the native Princes of the East.

Lieutenant Samuel Johnson, half-pay 48th Foot.

First Lieutenant John Highmore Jeboult, half-pay Rifle Brigade.

PRICE OF IRISH STOCKS, JUNE 11.

Bank Stock,..... 208

Irish 3 per Cent. Consols..... 88 1/2

unto affixed, it appears that the woman labouring having a child for the first time, proposed that giving birth to a child, as in the present case, was a death.

But it appeared the necessary, as the profession attended the deceased, the full satisfaction of the family as appeared by the mother and her twins being delivered. However, through the individuals, attached to the deceased, suffered defeat by their election of a favourite of Dromcolloher, the facts were thus circulated, capabilities of Surgeon Co. mitigation, in self-defence from the unfounded calumnies of the medical profession, own feelings as a young man's line. The subject by the medical gentlemen.

"We, the undersigned Evangelists, depose that the body of Elizabeth Kelly, deceased explanatory of her death from the natural causes of a diseased liver, and the procedure further, that the operation performed on her by Surgeon Co. symptoms she manifested.

I remain, Sir, your

June 12.

Standish Peppard, Administrator of Elizabeth Locke,
Plaintiff.

Sir Nathaniel Lavitte
Peacock, Bart. and others,
Defendants.

Cant to the highest and
ing this Cause, (subject)
Those, that part of the possession of James and mon estimation Forty measure, be the same Clare, being part of the
in this Cause mentioned
Dated this 10th day

The Tenant must take into Recognizance for and performance of the
the Court.