of the name of Mack, who was beaten at the Fair rood on Wednesday last, died of his wounds yesternient to said place. vere three sudden deaths in Carrick-on-Suir in the

. On Monday last, as a man named John Bowing, ing with children, he stretched himself on a bed itly expired. On the same day, James Quirke, a r and publican, went to bed in perfect health, ound dead in the morning. On Wednesday night, ned Daniel Mahony took a pint of porter and one unch before he went to bed, and was found dead in ing; he was for some days previously labouring Juenza. A Coroner's inquest was held on the the three above-named persons. The verdict in case was -" Died by an apoplectic fit;" on the -" Died by the visitation of God."

r man named Patrick Murray, a native of Conwho had been for the last six months in the emof Patrick Kerevan, a farmer, residing at Tullainty Kilkenny, was so dreadfully beaten on his in Kilkenny on the fair day, Thursday last, that he on the following day.

us riot took place in the town of Arva, county of on the evening of Saturday last, the fair-day, in nan named Brady lost his life and several persons erely wounded. or enabling tenants for life of settled estates in Ireise money by mortgage for improving the same and tating the loan of money upon real securities in has been ordered to be brought in by Mr. Sergeant d Mr. Walker. purt of King's Bench has pronounced its opinion se of Marcus Costelloe, v. Trinity College. The stice said, that the case was one of too much consebe disposed of by mere motion, and they now he mandamus, to give an opportunity of trying the in full, on its merits, and on the return of the writ. mains of the Hon-Mr. Clifford, who was in his 27th d died suddenly in this city, as stated in our last, oved to St. John's Chapel, from whence the funeral e left at twelve o'clock on Wednesday, followed by troops in garrison, and surrounded by an immense of spectators. Prayers were read in the Latin service surch yard, by the Clergy present; after which the f his own company fired three rounds over his body, troops marched home in quick time. llowing was the order of the Procession, which had posing effect :- 3 Dragoons in front, mountedarty, 50 rank and file-2 Dragoons, mounted-83d Regiment-Muffled Drums, 83d Regiment-'Namara, and 20 R. C. Clergy, 2 and 2, in white THE BODY-home on a gun-carriage, by 4 horses of l Artillery-6 bearers, Officers of the 83d regiment ians and Surgeons of Regiments-Gentlemen Ciwo and two-83d Regiment, in sections-32d Resections-Royal Artillery-Dragon Guards, dis-reeting of the Cork Trades Association this week. icis B. Beamish in the Chair, it was agreed to e City and County parishes to petition forthwith for the Union Dr. Baldwin has already apprised the on by letter of Mr. O'Connell's hostility to the of the subject.

-Officers of Corps-General and Staff. ourt of King's Beach, in the case of Kenny v. Delas discharged the conditional order for a criminal on against the defendant.

y, the ceremony of the episcopal consecration of Rev. Doctor Crotty, late President of Maynooth who has been recently nominated Roman Catholic Cloyne and Ross, took place at Maynooth. The . Doctor Murray, Right Rev. Dr. Murphy, of Cork, v. Dr. Cantwell, of Meath, Rt. Rev. Dr. Kiernan, r, Doctor Abraham, of Waterford, Doctor England, ston, in America, were the Prelates present. After ony, the new Bishop gave a splendid dejeune to p, Clergy and Laity, who attended the ceremony. d gentlemen afterwards sat down to an excellent w Roman Catholic Parochial Chapel of Bruff will rated in a few days by the Right Rev. Dr. Ryan, een some weeks past on a visitation of this Diocese. hursday Mr. Commissioner Burrowes dismissed the f Stephen Barrett, late of York-street, Blackpool, lican and chandler, for gross fraud on his creditors. even persons have given notice of registry at next ons for the City and Liberties of Limerick. Their d description of title appear in first page.

Curragh June Meeting, on Monday, Capt. Wesreney won the Kirwan Stakes of £50 each, beating tersby's Barebones (second), Mr. Kelly's New (third), and three more. The odds were eight to ist Freney at starting, and he won the race cleverly. day, Mr. Kelly's Peacemaker won the King's Plate mineas for three and four years old, Lord Sligo's unning second, Mr. Kelly's New Fashion third, others no where. itted to the City Gaol by Alderman Watson and n Crine Lawrence Ryan and Michael Halpin, DEATHS.

At Fethard, after a few hours illness, in consequence of inflammation of the stomach, produced by making use of salad, Mrs. Woodward, wife of the Rev. Henry Woodward, Rector of that parish. In Jail-street, Ennis, of cholera, the wife of Serjeant Grant, Clare Militia.

In Market-street, Ennis, at an advanced age, of cholera, Miss Mary O'Brien. At Ameville, near Corofin, aged 63 years, Mrs. Owens, relict of William Owens, Esq. At Glanahilva, Kerry, Mr. Patrick Dingle Moriarty, in the 24th year of his age. At the College of Killainey, at an advanced age, the Rev. Eugene M Carthy, many years a respectable Roman Catholic Clergyman in that parish.

At Ballyardveen, Kerry, aged 78 years, Mr. Thomas Cahill, formerly of Minnard.

Joseph Knox, Esq. Beau street, Waterford.

At Greenville, county Kilkenny, the Rev. Wm. Murphy, of St. Peter's College, Wexford. At Gorey, Mrs. Hart, late of Kilkenny, aged 110 years.

At Balindeenisk, Cork, Francis Harrison, Esq. Rev. Jeremiah Crowly, P. P. of Castlehaven and Myross. Of decline, in his 12th year, Martin, eldest son of Mr.

Thomas Ryan, Main street, Clonmel. At Roundhill, near Ballinahinch, the Rev. Alex. Brown, Curate of Dromara.

At Ipswich, Charles Harcourt Stisted, eldest son of Lieut .-Colonel Stisted, of the 3d Light Dragoons. At Booterstown, Margaret, daughter of the late Mr.

Mark Long, of Westmorland-street, Dublin. At Moat, Hannah, relict of Richard Skellern, Esq. late of Rathfarnham.

At Richmond-place, Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Sarah, relict of the late Captain Vincent, of Clonmellon, county Westmeath.

In Gloucester-street, Dublin, Major William Holland, late of the 1st Royal Veteran Battalion.

At the house of her son, Edward Flood, Esq. of Kells, county Meath, Mrs. Anne Flood, aged 60 years.

In Kilkenny, of cholera, after a few hours' illness, Miss Prim, daughter of the late John Prim, Esq. of Ennisnagg, in that county.

In Kilkenny, of cholera, Mrs. Lawrenson, wife of Mr. Thomas Lawrenson, Grocer-and in the same house, also of cholera, a few hours previously, Miss Mary Purcell, niece to Mrs. Lawrenson.

At Dreppe, Elizabeth, relict of the late G. Montgomery, of Santry, near Dublin.

In Clarence-place, Belfast, Arthur Crawford, Esq. In Dame-street, Dublin, Mrs. Catherine Rebecca Robinson, of Castleblayney, aged 73 years. At Mount Merrion, suddenly, the wife of William Murphy, Esq. sales-master of Dublin. At Gibbings Grove, near Charleville, after an illness of some duration, Bartholomew Gibbings, Esq. At Newtown Park, county Carlow, Mrs. Doyne, wife of Charles Doyne, Esq. In York-street, Portman-square, London, Rhoda, the eldest daughter of David Walker, Esq. Baggot-st. Dublin.

At the residence of her son, Albany House, Byfleet, Surrey, Rehecca Sarah, aged 53, widow of the late John Freebairn, Esq. In the city of Cuenca, Colombia, on the 6th September, 1832, after a tedious illness, which terminated in dropsy, General Arthur Sandes, of the Service of the Republic, son of the late John Sandes, Esq., of Listowel, in the count of Kerry. This distinguished officer early took part in the war of the Independence of South America. From the beginning of 1818 he accompanied Bolivar, the Liberator of three nations, successively through all his campaigns, from which period he took an active part in most of the enterprises of that great man. In the battles of Pantano de Vaigas, Boyaca, Carabobo, Bombona, and Ayacucho, he displayed the genius of an accomplished soldier, combined with a chivalrous valour, which reflected honour on his country. In the first-mentioned of these bloody affairs which took place on the 25th of July, 1819, (Bolivar's birthday,) he received two severe wounds at the head of the victorious regiment, the Rifles, while commanding that corps as Major, and finally his horse being shot under himunable to stand from loss of blood, he supported himself leaning against the carcase of the dying animal, and could not be prevailed on to quit the field until victory was proclaimed, and at Ayacucho he was named General on the field of battle. Equally beloved by his friends, and esteemed by the government, the remains of this illustrious General received every mark of respect due to his transcendant merit -he was buried in the convent of Carmelites. He named as executors to arrange his earthly affairs, his friend and comrade, General Thomas C. Wright, and Charles Sweet, Esq., Commission merchant, both residents in Guayaquil. -He was brother of Captain Sandes, 47th, and Lieutenant Sandes, 9th Regiment, in the British service.

LIMEBICK CLUB. THE MEMBERS are requested to pay their Subscrip.

Wholesale English and Irish Cotton Cord, Clo Waistcoating, Calico, Stuff, and Hat Wa I ouse, NO. 1, CLARE-STREET, LIMERICK.

WILLIAM HUMPHREY

TAKES leave to inform his Friends and the Public he has this day received in addition to his pre-Stock, a few Bales which will be sold on as good term any house in the trade.

Pi3.-An Apprentice wanted.

1 Do. Starch,

THEFT

W. H. would set a new Store in Clare-street, It is ada ted for the Skin and Feather business, having the Loft and a ground floor.

June 1

FFER the following Goods for Sale-all of w they are determined to sell on reasonable terms: 3000 Corn Sacks, Sail Cloths, Bleached and Brown, 1000 Flour Bags, 7-8 and 4-4 Lineus, Sacking and Bacon Sheeting, Wrappering, 20 Tons Yellow Soap, Drills and Ducks,

Nankeens,

JOSEPH ROBINSON & CO

Scotch Linens, Il Do. Lard, Pat-Ashes, Candlewick, White Quills Nankeens, Sione and Button Blues, Millspun Yarns, Pitch, Tar and Glue, &c. Tickens, &c. &c. New and Old Archangel Mats.

J. R. & CO. can supply Housekeepers with Prime F and Bacon, &c.

Office and Ware-Rooms, 7, Bank-Place. Limerick, 6th Mo. 15, 183

TO BE LET, N Excellent, newly-finished HOUSE and SHOP, An extensive Yard, Stabling and Coach-House, ated at the upper end of Ellen-Street, contiguous to Post-Office, Haymarket, Butter Weigh House, and Denm street Meat Market. The interior of the house is finished in a very sup style: the Out-Offices extensive, and the situation or the most desirable and well adapted for business of any An early application is necessary to Mr. M. SCANLAN Der mark-street.

Limerick, June 15, 183

LAND STEWARD

I S now disengaged, and wants a Situation-a ste active Man, who understands Agriculture of all I and laying down land in the best manner; can be sati torily recommended.

Application to Mr. JOHN ABRAHAM, Seeds George's-street, Linerick-if by letter post-paid-fo O.R.

TO THE PARISHIONERS OF THE PAR OF GRANGE, NEAR NEWCASTLE. Croagh Glebe, May 10, 18

Y FRIENDS-I have been informed from very in the Parish of Grange, that they are desirou willing to pay me the tithe if I can prove my title, and Lord Cork had no power to give a lease to Mr. Morgan. certificate of composition is sufficient to show my title as to Mr. Morgan's claim, I have no way of proceeding by a civil bill process. The Assistant Barrister would given decrees last year, on seeing the certificate of ap ment, but it was suggested to him, that there was a su peoding between Mr. Morgan and me; but when he l ao't that there never was a law suit in this case, only M. Morgan shewed a lease from Lord Cork on these t and is I knew that Lord Cork could not grant this lea ther fore publicly challenged his Lordship's title, and Loreship never took defence, nor went to law with how, or what reason had I to go to law with him? I i to process three or four of the parishioners at the nex sions, and, in my opinion, Mr. Morgan, nor no agent of Coric's will appear against me. The Barrister will the course, grant me decrees, but these decrees shall be n pense to the parishioners, as when I take them out, inste handing them to the Sheriff, I will give them up to the and worthy men that I shall serve processes on. I did i to proceed by Latitats, but as I never put any man t yet, and that, at my time of life, I do not intend to now I would have the expense of the executions to should I succeed, which would be more than the sum

so I prefer this process, and I trust those, whom I sha ces, will not be offended. I now lay before you the c two letters, one directed to Lord Cork, and written about six months ago, and the other to Mr. Morgan can judge from those letters that I will be able to s just title. The debt now due is of such a nature that it must be factory to every honest and conscientious parishioner,