

er's driver, to be confined one formations were ordered against g linen belonging to the Rev.
 Michael Keene, Michael Shine, for an assault on Mary Noonan.
 has sentenced William Meany, a as hard labour for an assault on Miss Exham, by which both were isoner was riding a horse on the ting by every means to annoy the animal, making him rear on his at every other horse. Mr. Exham consequence of a collision with blence from their gig, and received ntusions. A medical gentleman Exham's ribs was only saved from g of her stays. Mr. Exham was y weeks after the casualty. ebtors to be heard at Tralee, on next:—Richard Newton, River-lan, Michael Kerrish, William r, James Connor, jun., Cornelius atrick Sullivan, James Ash, John son, Michael Buright, Cornelius ott, John Corridon, John Madden, Brenan, Alexander Mayberry, livan, Catherine Fitzgibbon. at Cork:—Francis Cooke, Alexornelius Cahill, William Sayers, eeahan, Henry Hewitt, jun., Gent., essor of dancing, William Walsh, oyle, Kilbarry, David Walsh, Daniel Sheehan, John Dorgan, linehan, Patrick Hurley, Michael Edmond Keane, of Anah, James braize, William Scannell, Michael H. Rogers, clerk, of Youghall, big, George Egar, John Coleman, Rowland of Charleville, Thomas Michael Guiney, Mathew Harring-Daniel Daly, Jeremiah Mahony, ghall, Roger E. Hendley, William our, John Berry, John Brook, ckley.
 ATRE—(MISS SHIRRIFF).—We ady with increased pleasure, and ns of her powers and acquirement. female Singer now on the English those essential qualities in a singer the former arising out of natural nt of sensibility. Her execution, ost perfect that has, perhaps, been te in our day. Her voice, too, is nd; in some of its notes there is ss,—in all there is smoothness and they are valuable in a stage singer. ither her notion of what expression t not at present—is the best and to her singing. Her execution of rage," was perfectly delightful; hat at present exists amongst us of g merit of singing, which consists g the expression, sentiment, and ent whole.—Court Journal.— ight a Limerick audience ere the EDITOR.

to Eliza, daughter of the late G. Stevens, of Old Windsor Lodge.

DEATHS.

In Rutland-street, after a very short illness, Mr. Charles Eveleigh, of the House of Francis Eveleigh & Sons, Usher's Quay, Dublin, and Union-street, Borough, London, Hat Manufacturers. His remains were interred this morning in the Friends' burial place.

On Thursday, at Barnstead (Blackrock,) Cork, universally and deservedly regretted, Martha, the beloved wife of Croker Barrington, Esq. after a protracted illness. She breathed her last with a lively and well-grounded hope of forgiveness through the blood of her Redeemer.

In Cork, aged 22 years, Anna, only daughter of Mr. Thomas Haynes.

On Friday last, Mrs. Blake, wife of Mr. Pat. Blake, of Blakemount, in the County Clare.

At Rosetta, Blackrock, aged 16 years, Martha, daughter of the late Michael Foott, Esq. Solicitor, Cork.

Edward Cocker Ellis, eldest son of Mr. Harman Ellis, Prince's-street, Cork.

At Fermoy, on Sunday, Major Hennis. This regretted officer had been in a very delicate state of health for some time previous to the unfortunate affair at Exeter, between Sir J. W. Jeffcott and his son (Dr. Hennis), which ended so tragically to the latter.

At Buttevant Barracks, Helen Stewart, the infant daughter of Major Clarke, 76th Regiment.

Friday, in Church-street, Ennis, Mrs. Carmody, relict of Mr. Patrick Carmody. Thus, in one short week, have ten children, six of them very young, being deprived of both their parents.

On Thursday, in Ennis, Mr. John Marshall, son of the late Mr. Pat. Marshall.

In Nelson-street, Clonmel, Jeremiah, son of Mr. T. B. Russell.

At Newtown, near Rosscarbery, Enoch Plummer, Esq. in the 75th year of his age.

At Lowtown, county Kildare, the residence of her grandson, Mr. John Forrest, Mrs. Jane Young, relict of the late Edward Young, Esq. of Lisburn, county of Antrim, and cousin to the late Baron George, aged 108 years.

In Dublin, Robert, eldest son of the Rev. Dr. MacDonnell, F.T.C.D.

Mrs. Helen Mannin, relict of the late John Mannin, of Caher, Esq. and daughter of the late Dominick Burke, Esq. of Kiltomur Castle, both of the county Galway.

At Strawberry Hill, Lisburn, aged 78, in the 55th year of his ministry, the Rev. Andrew Craig, senior Minister of the Presbyterian Congregation of Lisburn.

At Kinsale, Roger Edward Green, Esq.

Major John Cornwall O'Dell, of the 41st Native Infantry, East India Company's Service—after a sickness of five years duration, brought on by tedious services in the Burmese war. Of abscess on his liver, at the seat of John Collis, Esq. Grangemore, County of Kildare, Arthur Grueber, Esq. senior Lieutenant of the 31st Regiment.

At Edinburgh, the Rev. J. Andrew, L.L.D. and F.R.S. late Principal of the Hon. East India Company's Military Seminary at Addiscombe.

At Rotherhithe, Dr. Gaitskell, M. D. aged 71.

At Malta, aged 18, Mr. T. Huskisson, Midshipman of his Majesty's ship Cordelia, eldest son of Captain T. Huskisson, Royal Navy.

At Oundle, J. Douglas, Esq. late of Bedford-street, Bedford-square, London.

Called to this impor-ential families in Li-own part, Mr. Hog-such a manner, as to and support.
 His pretensions ar-he got first place ;
 sical Premiums, an eight best marks.
 the Lord Chancellor
 his Lordship's Son, F.T.C.D. Doctor
 Master of the Clo-Rector of Maghera and from many othe he will only mention of the Royal School Huddart, Mountjoyblishments he was Those Gentlemen,
 children to Mr. Hog-shall be wanting on can, their advanced attention shall like pure Scriptural primay be best known
 — " In any fo
 " any time my stron
 " cations to instruct
 " You can have, I
 " testimonials; he
 " best teachers he e
 " of the few indivi
 " best mark at the-
 " Finding it men
 " certificates which
 " you a first best
 " Scholarship, I th
 " I examined you
 " over the judgme
 " the last four or
 " the only instance
 " Your compete
 " a School is very
 " who have witne
 " life, and who ha
 " your assistance.
 " to form the most
 " and I rejoice to
 " have shewn me
 " able stations, tha
 " amply sustained.
 " Forkhill Rect
 All particulars r by applying to Kingsmill, F.T.C.
 Moyemore, Coun
 that he will return
 The most efficient department.