

in England, and are well accommodated in the con-ce. which will, in a great ment heretofore experienced air was held on Monday.— f buyers and sellers and a perceptible in almost every respectable grocer in Dublin ery of £2,226 belonging to orth Great George's-street, r of this County, has directed Sessions clerks shall attend in order to facilitate the pro-e.—How are their expences als at the City Sessions the i. M.P. for Sligo county, has tion of £150 towards build-d to Carew O'Dwyer, Esq. ntimating to the inhabitants will be given to them for the ed for the relief of Cholera lth received an advance of Board of Health, Dublin.

on Thursday the Assignees of y, silk-mercens, brought an n, to recover 900%. amount of eriffs under execution; plain-sale was fraudulent and that ssrs. Greenham, and Parr and efendants.

erely indisposed with gout, nable to encounter the fatigue erefore it is the days are not

Yacht Club is fixed to com-ff Ballyglass and Loughree,

Tralee theatre on Thursday Mr. Melrose and Mr. Horn-ded the certificates both in last at the University Quar-our fellow citizens we attest e by the pupils in Mr. Gregg's, t. This happy manifestation ntly conspicuous at the June l this week, and the satisfaction ing such uncommon specimens ious branches of literature, aternal care, and attention of regg.

d exempted from serving on
ap. 18. sec. 3.

Wednesday, present—Aldermen and Francis Spaight, Esq.:

lamb at Cunnigar; Patrick aling timber from Mr. Spaight; lass in the shop of Mr. Evans, calicoes thereout, were com-yes, and Deborah Coffey, for in the street, were sent to the Bart. of a daughter.

DEATHS.

In Ennis, Edward Burton Armstrong, Esq. formerly High Sheriff of the County Clare—a gentleman very deservedly esteemed.

In John-street, Mrs. Massy, widow of the late Mr. J<sup>r</sup>s bert Evans, and wife of Mr. George Massy, of Belfast.

In Patrick-street, Mr. John Collopy, boot and shoemaker, a truly honest and industrious man.

At Newtown-avenue, Blackrock, Dublin, in an advanced age, George Hastings, Esq. late of Killaloe, a gentleman highly respected by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

In Tralee, Mr. Robert Slattery, an eminent Classical Teacher.

At the Vicarage, Kilgarvan, near Kenmare, in his 10th year, of a decline, Arthur Herbert, Esq. only son of Rev. Bastable Herbert, Vicar of Kilgarvan and Killaloe, Kerry.

At Marble-hill, county Galway, at the advanced age of 76 years, Dowager Lady Burke, mother of Sir John Burke, Bart. and grandmother of the Marquis of Clanricarde, Marchioness of Sligo, and Countess of Howth.

Of cholera, at Ballyturn Lodge, county Galway, Richard Kirwan, Esq. of the Galway Regiment, youngest son of late Captain Andrew Kirwan, of Dalgan Park, county Mayo, and of the 5th Royal Irish Dragoons.

At the Ursuline Convent, near Ennis, of brain fever, Miss O'Flaherty, of Galway.

At Tramore, Anne, fourth daughter of William Aylward, Esq. of Waterford.

At the Widows' Apartments, Waterford, the relict of the late Rev. John Frazer, Master of the Waterford Endowed School.

At Jamaica, Color-Sergeant Thomas Crowe, 37th Regiment,—an honest man, and a good soldier, sincerely regretted by his numerous friends, military and civilians.

Suddenly, Felix Daly, jun. Esq. of Morgan-street, Cork.

Mr. Solomon Moore Frost, aged 21 years, eldest son of Mr. Frost, of the West of England Cloth Establishment, Dame-street, Dublin.

At Willbrook, county Sligo, Mrs. Palmer, relict of Thomas Palmer, of Summerhill, county Mayo, Esq.

At Ballihalwick-house, Dunmanway, county Cork, Jean Hutchinson, of Liverpool, Esq.

At Brompton, Madelina, wife of Mr. Spagnoletti, of the King's Theatre.

At Bath, the Hon. Augusta Julia, wife of T. G. Babington, Esq. and daughter of Sir Gerard Noel, Bart. and the late Baroness Barham.

At Harrow, aged 68 years, the Rev. B. Evans, Under Master of Harrow School.

At Bryanston-square, London, the Right Hon. Julia Viscountess Dudley and Ward.

At the house of her grandmother, Viscountess Dowager Hawarden, Cumberland-terrace, Regent's-park, London, aged 25, Georgiana, only child of the late Right Hon. Lord Wm. Stuart, Captain R. N.

At Brighton, Anne, the only sister of the late Sir T.
Blomefield, Bart. aged 82.

At his residence, Crescent, America-square, London, David Knox, Esq. aged 82 years.

At Haslar Hospital, the Hon. E. Bruce, son of the Earl of Elgin, Midshipman of his Majesty's ship Belvidera.

At Hull, aged 82 years, Neville King, Esq. late Colonel of the 3d Lincoln Militia.

Cumming, 16, Lower Booksellers.

*** Subscribers are their Sets, in order that sions of the beautiful em Work.

TO PAINTER
W. B.

117, GEORG

HAS for Sale in his Lead, in convenie sale and Retail purchase prices, together with e Varnishes, and Brushes.
Colours will find their a him, as every article sha the same terms as to who
TO APOTHECARIES

SARIES

The DRUG, and CHE sively supplied with the can afford, with the imm ration that science prese fessional Gentlemen, a Messrs. Weiss and Son confined to His Establish Instruments at the Lond mediately on Sale, will known quality and supe ments it is quite unnece

THE MINERAL

The continued patron blishment have had for proof the Proprietor can in order to promote a wish of his extensive co informed that the price reduction.

The decided preferen fifteen years past is a g his exertions for public

A regular supply of Fresh gathered ROS

CAUTION!—To p orders to this establish and directed as above.

A GENERAL Me

A Fever and Lock

TUESDAY next, the missioners' Room, at

Physicians and One

Candidates to send in t

Ballot to commence at Proposals will also b the above Institution w and Cuttings, from 5th

June 26.

LIMERICK ASY
CHURCH

ENNIS COLLEGE.

Rev. J. W. KING A. B.

The following Contr