DEATHS.

Sunday, at Parsonage, the Rev. Richard Cox, for many years the excellent Rector of Cahirconlish, in this County. His death is very deservedly lamented.
 In Upper Glentworth-street, after a short illness, Mrs. D'Esterre, wife of Henry D'Esterre, Esq. Barrister at Law—a lady of the most amiable disposition, and whose death is a source of deep affliction to her friends and acquaintance.
 At Newcastle, on Sunday morning last, Eliza, eldest daughter of Mr. Hodge Sweeny, a young woman remarkable for her amiable disposition, and deeply regretted by her family and friends.
 Saturday morning, at Glentworth-street, much regretted, Mrs. Powell, wife of William S. Powell, Esq. Landwaiter at this Port.
 At Troy Cottage, Derry, William O'Doherty, jun. Esq, Attorney at Law.
 At Cork, Denis Coyne, Esq. Warehouse-keeper of that port.
 At Leinlara, county Cork, John Standish Barry, Esq.
 At Croan, near Clonmel, Mrs. Howell, widow of the late Edward Howell, Esq.
 In Waterford, Elizabeth, wife of William Edwards, Esq. King-street.
 Margaret, daughter of the late William Keating, Esq. of Waterford.
 At Cillertine, near Dunmanway, Elizabeth, relict of the late Mr. James M'Givern, of that town.
 In Wentworth-place, Dublin, Harriet Mary, wife of the Rev. John Hogg.
 At Exeter, Mrs. M'Bean, relict of Captain M'Bean, and formerly the wife of Major-General Bowles.
 At Tunbridge Wells, Henry Noel, eldest son of the late Colonel Sir T. Noel Hill.
 On board the Emulous, from St. Vincent, J. Gowen, Esq. formerly surgeon of the 33d regiment.
 At Portsmouth, the Hon. E. Bruce, of his Majesty's ship Belvidera, son of the Earl of Elgin and Kilmarnock, aged 18 years.
 At Elstead, Surrey, the wife of Sidney Bazalgette, Esq.
 In Green-street, Grosvenor-square, Jane Maria, Viscountess Hampden. Her death was quite unexpected.
 At Acton, Pontefract, aged 70, Sir Edmund Mark Winn, Bart.
 At Tunbridge Wells, aged 39, Lieut.-Col. H. Gillman, of his Majesty's 76th Regiment.
 Doctor Morgan Finucane, Surgeon Royal Navy.
 On Wednesday, at Regent's Park, London, of brain fever, Ann, second daughter of the late Sir Walter Scott, Bart.
 At Bangor, North Wales, William, third son of the Rev. T. Kelly, of Rathmines Castle and Kelly Ville.
 Captain Edward Dryden Hawkins, Royal Artillery.
 At Gibraltar, the Lady Jane Houstone, wife of Lieutenant-General Sir William Houstone, Lieutenant-Governor, and sister of the Earl of Lauderdale.
 G. Chenye Groat, Esq. aged 77 years, the eldest Purser in the Navy, having acted as such in 1775.
 In Lancaster-place, London, N. Byrne, Esq.
 In Upper Harley-street, London, Sarah, the wife of W. Leake, Esq.
 At Ballymaine, county Dublin, aged 103, John Doyle, better known by the name of "Silly Jack." This was the man who betrayed Robert Emmett, by giving information that he was at Harold's Cross, for which service he received £200 secret service money, and two guineas per week, which he received until the short administration of the Duke of Bedford, when that weekly gratuity was discontinued.
