Lugarty, C. Hugh Dillon Massy, Esq. High Sheriu of Clare, has actuon tenes of the Unuren his name to the Royal Western Yackt Club. P. Corballis, The friends of Mr The Galway bay Regatta commences on the 16th of scriling to defray a , P. Maurice August, Lord Wallscourt, Commodore. Three days racing refusing to pay tithes a Mr. Riely, for yachts, hookers, six and four oared gigs. The Earl of Shan a Catholic. Sir John Comoy, Secretary to her Royal Highness the Female Orphan Asyl Duchess of Kent, is elected an Honorary Member of the Sir Edward Denny the past and Royal Yacht Squadron at Cowes, Isle of Wight. Her countess, near Trale Jury, and the Royal Highness, who is at Cowes to enjoy the pleasures of Four hundred me on of Dublin, the Regatta, has presented the Club a Prize Cup, and 100 Canal, and they now ng to custom. measurement. sovereigns for the Pilots. In compliance with an application made to the King of Lord Kenmare has he King, the the Netherlands by the Royal Northern Yacht Club, his or shoot on his estate Duke of Cum-Majesty has been pleased, in the most prompt and handsome A temporary Lying immortal memanner, to allow the yachts of the Club the privilege of The Master of the William, Proentering the ports of Holland free of dues. motions, and will not The Corporation of Liverpool have conferred the freedom nd State, and In the memory of of that borough on Mr. Williams, the enterprising founder of extensive in the Sou n of Ireland. of the first trading steam company which ever crossed the never had a better p and lamented potatoes, which peop channel: removed from Wednesday the Mayor held an inquest on the body of the constant rains, a Patrick Connors, who was found dead same morning in his l, on this day, most places. There house at the Old Windmill-road, with an extensive wound in Clare, and the corn. sgow steamer, his throat inflicted by a razor which was grasped in the right healthy. The coun Isle of Wight. hand, and which had severed the carotid artery. The Jury abundant harvest. pressly for the found that he committed suicide while labouring under The total number temporary mental derangement, for which no cause was other passen-County Limerick ne who accomassigned in evidence. for, including Sup Mr. Crumpe, a young Irish gentleman, his mother, and ng friends and which is less by £2, his two brothers, were upset in a sail-boat in Douglas-bay, The applications for ave arrived in Isle of Man, last week, and all unfortunately perished --Cahirconlish Road S compliment to Miss Crumpe, his sister, was saved. of £371 to lower and Four men employed at the Bandon distillery were suffolar has underwhich was thought last sad obsecoted on Monday in a foul vat. sioners. In Costlea The Orangemen of Ferns celebrated the Battle of the sentment for £653 to itary one, and Boyne with great splendour. The Castle of Ferns, belonging Annislinga and B of respect that to Richard O'Donovan, Esq. was decorated in a most fanciful similar purpose, the style, and a grand banquet was given in its halls, where the pay on an occamen of £654, betw Rev. J. Alexander and the Rev. M. Charters, Vicar of Ferns, ersal sympathy. COUNTY LIMER and Chaplain to the Local Lodge, assisted. prescribing the Royee, John Blens On Friday the Orangemen were assailed in the Marketbridge, Robert Hun cross of Cootehili, Cavan, and a desperate conflict ensued Thomas Furlong, between them and the Roman Catholic party. It is true, that tried before the Howley, Robert Ic four of the latter were killed, and many seriously wounded. ay, for stealing William Smyth, R Several Orangemen were badly wounded. On Monday last and acquitted. George Gough Gu two Orangemen were attacked at Bailieboro'-market, and homas Leonard, Henry Lyons, Day murdered by the opposite party. Mason, Richard Renny, of the The Rev. Mr. Hore, a Roman Catholic Priest, was burned Convers, E. Lloyd, in effigy at Camolin, County Wexford, the 12th of July. ix silver spoons, Peacocke, Hugh At Cavan Assizes nine Orangemen were tried for an illegal a butler of Mr. Ion Studdert, Jeren assembly on the 12th of July last year, on the prosecution of se of his master, pard, Edward Gree the Crown. The Jury acquitted all the prisoners .- Nine Ryan, John Upton, Roman Catholics were tried and found guilty on the same Shine, Thomas R is struck at Ennis charge on the 21st July. Judge Burion next day discharged Tobias Belmege, h Singleton against the Roman Catholics on their own recognizances. dale, James Massy, James Caraher, Thomas Comerford, and John Burney, stlebar Assizes, in-James Shine, Willi three of the police on the peace preservation establishment of Langton, Edward for murder, 12 for the county Louth, were indicted for a brutal assault on a action, 8 for rape, man named Taafe, at the last assizes for that county. The Esqrs. case being clearly proved, they were convicted, and the Lord for minor charges. · CITY RECORD d a revenue policejun. Captain Joh