

ed in our Second Edition last Post.)

on Wednesday, present—the Mayor, Watson, and Crips, T. P. Vokes, and —informations were received against rt Adams, and three females, for, yes- ing Captain Kidmouth, of the brig 50. William Gleeson, for fracturing, was committed to prison. Daniel lins, for violently assaulting William a Sunday, to pay a fine of £1 each, months. James Ryan, for a violent e month's imprisonment.

Dragoons, named Taylor, shot him- day last.

amon, John Bradford was hanged in of Joseph Raymond, a policeman.— n apprehended by the deceased on a g, and, on the way to gaol, they both t at the house of the deceased, whose ner, and bestowed every hospitable at- er, who complained of illness. In the he prisoner requested permission to go purpose; and, on getting outside the the deceased, he attempted to escape, struggle ensued in which the police- and, as he was re-conveying the pri- th his naked bayonet in his hand, the more powerful man tripped up the de- bayonet from him and inflicted two after proved mortal. At the same as- tween Athleague and Roscommon was zzzling £4 from a letter; sentence of el Assizes were opened by the Chief ice Doherty, before whom the follow- sworn:—

ttie, Foreman; Hon. G. O'Callaghan, ephen Moore, John Bagwell (Marl- father, William Ponsonby, R. Butler Jacob, J. H. Massy Dawson, John William Purefoy, Thomas E. Lalor, George Ryan, James Lenigan, Stephen well, (Glenconnor,) Samuel Phillips, Stoney, William Quinn, Esqrs.

atulated them on the returning tran- characterised the county; and observed ere very gross crimes on the calendar, considerable, yet many of the crimes nce the last Assizes.

found guilty of stealing tobacco from illiam Cullinane, for vagrancy; Pat. to the charge of stealing £10 from Devitt and Martin Doyle, for stealing Nicholas Nugent—all sentenced to 7 Robert Stack and Daniel Donovan, 0th Regiment, were found guilty of Blake, of Roscrea; they were acquitted Timothy Fogarty, for the murder of he 10th March, near CloghJordan, was s were passed for the new road by ashel to Limerick.

heard in the Record Court on the first he judgment of the Assistant Barrister, rned. There were four records of no d of; in the last there was a verdict in Alice Maher, against the Sovereign e erroneous proceedings in the Tholsel Verdict £1 3s. 4d.

ESTERN YACHT CLUB.

received with the most lively feelings nexed letter, expressive of the interestoyal Highness the Duchess of Kent Shannon Regatta, and the important ated with the welfare of the Club.— ixed the very best season of the year, ring a triumphant patronage for the ts, hookers, and boats, which enter for t. The Cowes, Cork, Belfast, and ill all have terminated by the middle hich the Shannon Regatta commences auspices. A strong fleet of yachts ill rendezvous in our river, and the DEATHS.

Tuesday, at the advanced age of 85 years, George Waller, Esq: of Prior Park, county Tipperary. He filled an important situation in his Majesty's Revenue for many years with inflexible integrity, which character pre-eminently distinguished him to the latest period of his mortal existence; as a peculiarly kind husband, and tender parent, his afflicted family may truly exclaim—"Search the land of living men, you'll hardly look upon his like again."—By his death a considerable pension reverts to the Crown.

At Peronne, in France, on the 17th ult. Captain Marshal Clarke, of the East India Company's Service, third son of the late Rev. Marshal Clarke, late Rector of Shrone-Hill, county of Tipperary—a gentleman universally and deservedly regretted by his numerous circle of friends and acquaintances.

In Pembroke-street, Dublin, Anna Letitia, daughter of the late Richard Going, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, and Chief Magistrate of Police.

On Thursday morning, at Ross Glebe, Acheson, second son of the Rev. Richard Coplen Langford, aged eight years.

Tuesday night, at Lahinch, after a few hours illness, Francis Whitestone, Esq. sincerely regretted.

In Henry-street, Mr. James Mackey, for many years principal Usher in Ennis College, and Author of many admired and popular Poems.

At Calabar, Africa, in the month of March last, on board the Lancaster, bound from Liverpool, Lancelot Scott, Esq. Surgeon, aged 21—he is deeply and sincerely regretted by his family and a very numerous body of friends.

Captain O'Connor, of Dunmore, county Galway.

On Monday, in Waterford, Burton Ryland, Esq.

At Shannon-view, county Galway, aged 29, Mary, wife of Hubert Butler Moore, Esq.

At Rosshill, Galway, Belinda, daughter of Patrick Comins, Esq.

At Greenlane, near Kenmare, John Mayberry, Esq. many years a respectable Magistrate of Kerry.

At Sallybrook, Cork, Janetta, daughter of James Hodnett, Esq.

Suddenly, at Cashel, Marianne Dillon, relict of Charles Bunworth Dillon, Esq.

At Oporto, of cholera, Captain Thomas Phelan.

Suddenly, in Dublin, Mr. John Oates, Saddler.

The Very Rev. Dean Egan, of Dunmore, formerly Parish Priest of Castlebar, a very old Clergyman.

Ignatius Gould, Esq. of Knockraha, county Cork.

At Blackrock, Catherine Anne, eldest daughter of Arthur W. Webb, Esq. Post-master of Cork.

At Wellington Lodge, Cork, Jane, wife of Richard Lavit Percy, Esq.

At Frenchville, Galway, Mrs. Brett.

At her brother's residence, Fairview Avenue, Dublin, Miss Greene, aged 26 years.

In Dublin, John Edward, son of Captain Hunter, 5th Dragoon Guards.

Of cholera, aged 20 years, Mr. William Mahon, of Gordon's-lane, Dublin.

At Rathmines, Catherine, wife of Wm. Buchanan, Esq.

In Galway, Mrs. Browne, relict of the late Nicholas Browne, Esq. of Newtownsmith.

Suddenly, Dr. Tweedie, of King-street, Bloomsbury.

At Williamstown, Dublin, Richard Thompson, Esq. Solicitor, formerly of London.

On the coast of Africa, on board the Elizabeth of Liverpool, Michael Farrell, son of Mr. Michael Farrell, of the Head Police Office, Dublin.

At Buckingham, William, son of Major Macdonald, R.M.

At Tullydoey, county Tyrone, Edward Eyre, Esq.

At Bath, William Mussenden, Esq. brother to the late Daniel Mussenden, Esq. of Larchfield, in the county Down.

On his passage home from Bombay for the recovery of his health, Lieutenant Charles J. Curtis, 18th Native Infantry.

At Thornbury, aged 73 years, Susanna Maria, daughter of the late Colonel Beverley Robinson, and sister of Lieut.-General Sir Frederick P. Robinson, and of Commissary-General Sir W. H. Robinson.

At Carhead, Yorkshire, Lady Amcotts.

At her house in King's-road, Bedford-row, Mrs. Sarah Smart, relict of the late Richard Smart, Esq.

In Lansdowne-place, Hackney, George Thomas King, Esq. aged 73 years.

NEW TIMBER DEALS &c.

FRANC

FROM THE SAL

A VERY EXTENSIVE A

IN consequence of some extensive and sh TEAS, by some "PRETENDED EA state, that they never deal in MADE UP but receive the Original Chests in the same CHARTERED EAST INDIA COMPAN for the purpose of Tasting. A considerable Quality, have also been added to their forme THE

- Bohea.....
Good Strong Congou.....
Superior Tea Pekoe flavor, pa
Good Jamaica Coffee.....
Ditto.....
Patent Cocoa.....
Shell Cocoa.....

They call public attention to their S Quality. From the quantity already Vende to any other House.

N. B.—A respectable Lad will be taken

TOTAL ABOLITION

MINERAL ZAFFERIA FOR FILLIN AND INCORRODIBLE MINERAL TE PATRONISED BY HIS MOST GRACI

RUBY

Who have NO. 11, FITZ

HERR. LEWEY

Will attend in this City, Mr. JOHN SEYMOUR'S, UP (OPPOSIT BEING MOST POSI

BEG leave most respectfully to invi universally esteemed

So highly recommended by the Faculty of being introduced in the cavity of the Tooth hardens into enamel speedily, so as to rend progress of farther decay, and lasting many

The loss of Teeth influences digestion, b nated with saliva, and consequently the a of a good chyle. It has an influence on t ral, nassal, feminine and fluted; the artic