

on his returning
Steele's trial ai
on Wednesday at
ed to transportation
ay to be embarked on Mr. French was voke a duel to Mr.
nty. Mr. French
ted at Galway on a woman near Head-
gaol for violating a uation in the Civil elf at his lodgings in sic acid.
ted Seneschal of St. ay, full as they are of
rally interesting trial Crown for libel, must n of some Advertise-

ick Chronicle.
your columns to em-
gainst yourself, and
ion of your journal,
of the Herald, I fear
personal to myself,
shall be very brief.
YIELDING to Mr.
in Election brochures
mber last, conveys an
ugh very, very base,
no strangers to the
d to whom the quality
s are so well known.
f those brochures (for
miss for the present in my quarrel with Mr.
collect, upon this very
ON had stated at the . Yielding had made
ught to abstract there-
with a present to me,
appear in the Herald
e for Limerick. With d to defend my prin-
ent as to the truth or angy correspondence
ICKSON and me. The

BIRTHS.

At his house near the Spa, Tralee, the Lady of George Day Stokes, Esq. of a son.

In Tralee, the Lady of Robert Rae, Esq. of a daughter.

At his lodgings, Grand Parade, Cork, the Lady of Wm. Purcell, Esq. of Altamira, of a daughter;

At Baughier, the Lady of Captain Vandeleur Creagh, of a daughter.

At Fortwilliam, near Ballyshannon, the Lady of the Rev. George H. Reade, of a son and heir.

At Tutton Park, Cheshire, the Lady Charlotte Egerton (daughter of the Marquis of Ely), of a son.

DEATHS.

At the residence of her son, William C. Ronayne, Esq. on the South Mall, Cork, Ann, wife of Patrick Ronayne, of Ann's Brooke, in that County, Esq.

At Newcastle, on Sunday night last, after a short illness, Mr. Robert Allen, aged 66 years. He was a respectable, intelligent, and kind hearted man, and is sincerely regretted by his family and numerous friends.

In Tralee, Mrs. Delahunt, widow of the late Mr. Michael Delahunt.

At Talbot-street, Dublin, Thomas Lyons Mulkern, Esq. of Lisduff, county Galway, aged 27 years.

In Dublin, of Scarlatina, Emma, youngest child of the Rev. C. H. Minchin.

At Portarlinton school, of brain fever, Ormesbey, son of the late Ormesbey Rutledge, Esq. of Greenwood Cottage, in the county of Sligo, aged 15 years.

At Irishtown, Dublin, Anne, wife of William J. Stanley, of Blackwater-lodge, in the King's County, Esq.

At Finchley, William, son of Lieutenant-Colonel Vans Agnew, C. B.

In Rutland square, Dublin, aged 89, Isabella, widow of the late John Hamilton, Esq. of Brown Hall, co. Donegal.

Catherine, wife of Mr. Patrick Healey, of the North Main-street, Cork.

At Artane, near Dublin, Matthew Boyle, Esq.

At Newbridge, county Kildare, Briusley Nixon, son of the late Rev. John Moore, of Dublin.

At Maryville, Raheny, Hannah, widow of the Rev. A. Knox, formerly Vicar of St. Catherine's, Dublin.

In London, Louisa Frances, fourth daughter of Henry Wood, Esq. of the Bengal Civil Service.

Lieutenant-Gen. David Ballingall, of the Royal Marines.

In James street, London, Colonel the Hon. Robert Glive, brother of the Earl of Powis, aged 64 years.

At Flitton, Bedfordshire, G. Wellesley, Esq.

At Edghaston, near Birmingham, Maria, wife of J. Scholefield, Esq. M. P.

At Florence, Captain C. Montagu Walker, R. N.

At Aberdeen, Dr. Dauney, aged 84, Professor of Civil Law in the King's College, Aberdeen, and Sheriff Substitute.

WANTED.