DEATHS.

On Monday last, at Nenagh, in the prime of life, Timon Meagher, Esq. Lieutenant b. p. 103 Regiment of Infantry.
Mr. Meagher had seen a great deal of active service in the last American war. His loss is deeply felt by his sorrowing widow, and infant family, and indeed by a wide circle of respectable connexions, to whom the amenity of his manners,
and his kindness of heart had endeared him.

Wednesday morning, in William-street, after a short illness, deservedly regretted, Thomas George Bodkin, Esq.

In Roche's-street, aged 70 years, Mrs. Teresa Crowe, relict of the late Mr. Francis Crowe.

Near Tralee, of consumptive decline, much regretted,
Mr. Rowland Mason.

Suddenly, Mr. Francis Quinn, of Walkin-street, Kilkenny.

At Kingston, Jamaica, Daniel Jos. Daly, Esq. formerly of Cork, merchant.

At Athlone, after a severe illness, Mary, the beloved wife of Mr. Sproule, merchant of that town.

At Ballymacoonock, Wexford, Mrs. Mary Redmond.

At Roslaré, Wexford, Mr. Francis Edensor, of Manchester.

In Dublin, Edward O'Halloran, Esq. formerly of the firm of Hewitte and O'Halloran.

In Cork, of consumption, Ellen, wife of Mr. P. Swiney.

Of paralysis, in Douglas, Isle of Man, John Watkins, Esq. of Old Court, county Cork.

At her father's residence, Fermoy, Christiana Byrom.

At his house near Harold's-cross, William Richard, son of Samuel Elly, Esq. of Elly-walks, in the county Wexford.

Mr. Nehemia Price, Superintendent of the "Old Man's Asylum," Russell-place, Dublin, for upwards of 21 years.

At Crossgar, Dromara, James Mathews, Esq. late Captain in the 38th Regiment.

The wife of Richard Gregory, Esq. of Coole, co. Tipperary.

At Passage, county Cork, Joshua Newsom, Esq. formerly of Waterford.

At Serpentine Avenue, Sandymount, Eliza, wife of Dean
Wilson, Esq. of the Treasury, Dublin Castle.

Thomas Marriott Perkins, Esq. of Wentworth-hall, and of Walker-house, Yorkshire, the eldest son of the late Provost-Marshal General Perkins.

On the Island of Barbadoes, M. Coulthurst, Esq. King's Advocate in his office of Admiralty there, and Judge-Advocate-General of his Majesty's Forces in that Island.

At his residence, Clapham-road-place, H. Tandy, Esq.
of his Majesty's Customs.

At her house, Forty-hill, Enfield, aged 93 years, Anne, relict of the late R. Gough, Esq.

In Green-street, Grosvenor-square, Lady Anne Ludlow, first daughter of Peter, Earl Ludlow.

At Rome, Cardinal Laurent duc Mattu.

Of Cholera, at the house of Lord Segrave, Spring-gardens, Lady Charlotte Berkeley, sister of the Duke of Richmond, K. G. and wife of the Hon. F. Berkeley, one of the Lords of the Admiralty. Her Ladyship was seized with malignant cholera on Sunday evening, and, notwithstanding every medical assistance, expired at 20 minutes before nine next night.

At Cheltenham, the Hon. Catherine, youngest daughter of the Viscountess Newcomen.

At Stranraer, aged 90, Jean Campbell, of Ayres, eldest sister of the late Colonel William Campbell, Governor of Bermuda, and aunt to Major William Ross, of the 23d
