

... entered the house
ughnane, at Killmore, land, they inflicted on wounds.

... was held at Lea Castle, Michael Connolly, who y a car laden with hay no person present when as killed on the spot.—

... o'clock, a fire broke out occupied by Jane Usher, k wind blowing at the rapidly, and the fire soon which were speedily conwithstanding all the assist-tue it, had communicated rd, where it destroyed a ols. Here the flames pre-extended to the waggon th the barn, was totally y of wheat, amounting to ow and clover hay, four ndry implements, and a e entire loss is estimated at tress in the village.

... ouring servant in the emwas killed with a stone in siles of Dungarvan, upon alton, who was reaping in scended.

... slators flung into the river down for the Rev. Alfred successor of the murdered e, Cashel.

... evens, with Sub-constables ed to execute a warrant, oy Petty Sessions, against entered the house of John y, and assaulted him while ng Fox go into a shop in e, and then arrested him.—

... wife and attacked the Police t happily without inflicting rived him of the weapon, g him, when a crowd col-most unmercifully with nd Serjeant Levens twice

... own at them, and such was posed that, were it not for tain Lushington of the 9th, (92d,) either the prisoner lives would have been lost.

... the 15th Hussars and Ser-d to the assistance of the corted to the Bridewell—usly injured, and Captain m a stone in the shoulder.

... ge processions at Bandon, eted Captain Vignolles, the a Thursday evening, after e before Counsellor O'Gor-nined against, and twenty-

... nton, of a son.

At Bruges, Belgium, the Lady of Sir David Cunynghame, of Milneraig, Bart. of a daughter.

DEATHS.

On Tuesday last, at Kiltrush, rather suddenly, Nicholas Clarke, Esq. of Springfield, county of Clare, a gentleman whose urbanity of manners rendered him an object of affection to his numerous friends and acquaintances.

In Clare-street, John Parker, Esq.

At Harold's-cross, Dublin, of cholera, in the house of her brother-in-law, Standish Peppard, Esq. Mary, daughter of the late William Browne, of Cullenswood, Esq. and niece of Michael B. White, of Clare-street, Esq.

At Ballynamona, county Tipperary, Henry Shortt, Esq.

At Carhue, near Corofin, Miss Eliza Rice, the last ten years Governess in a school established in that neighbourhood for female children.

Of apoplexy, near Ennistimon, to the regret of his family and acquaintance, Surgeon Thomas Henry Sweeny.

At Macroom, Miss Ellen Houlihan.

In the Presentation Convent, Killarney, of decline, Miss Catherine Mahony, youngest daughter of the late Lieutenant John Mahony, Kerry Militia.

On Tuesday, Anne, wife of Mr. John Meara, of Quil-lough, Lower Ormond, Tipperary, aged 60 years; and on Thursday, after a short but painful illness, Mr. John Meara, of same place, aged 70 years.

At Oporto, in the 22d year of his age, Wallis G. Carleton, Esq. second son of the late George Guy Carleton, of the county Cork, Esq.

At Guilford, county Westmeath, Catherine, relict of the Rev. H. Usher.

Francis Corban, Esq. M. D. Cork.

In Castle-street, Dublin, Mr. Robert Lodge, for many years of the Common Council of the Guild of Merchants.

At Moorefield, county of Kildare, Mr. William Sweeny, sen. of Golden-lane, Dublin.

In Newry, Samuel Ogle, Esq. merchant.

After a few hours illness, in the prime of life, Mrs. T.
Clinch, of Kevius'-street, Dublin.

At Fitzgibbon-street, Mountjoy-square, Dublin, of hooping cough, Mary, daughter of Captain William Smyth, late of the 68th Light Infantry.

In Galway, Mrs. Lovelock, relict of J. Lovelock, Esq. formerly of the Island of Dominica.

Ann, wife of Dr. Miller, of Southernhay Place, Exeter, and daughter of General the Right Hon. Sir George Hewett, Bart. G. C. B.

At the Chapel-house, Meath-street, Dublin, the Rev. J.
Byrne.

At Kingston, Jamaica, Mrs. Lynch, wife of John Lynch, Esq. Solicitor.

In Burlington-street, London, Thomas Alcock, Esq.
Surgeon.

At the Hazles, Lancashire, Sir Joseph Birch, Bart.

In the King's Bench prison, London, Edmund Clavering, Esq. of Calvelley Park, in Northumberland, formerly belonging to the firm of Wright and Co. bankers, Henrietta-street, Covent-garden.

In Hans-place, Sloane-street, Mrs. Evans, relict of Admiral A. F. Evans.

At the age of 82, Dr. George French, Professor of Chemistry in Marischal College. The deceased was the oldest practitioner of medicine in Aberdeen.

HERALD will cease to whose reasoning faculty it cannot pervert, but annihilate.—Recent dethe consequent forfeituin numerous instances Journals, are solemn wa-lost on those who now try in furtherance of the

In undertaking the and the advocacy of the Conductors would be vour of that public if from peculiar sources, what can be command-description. They have earliest possible intelli-of the contents of the Journals; the state a-both at home and in dom. Naval and Mil-attended to; and in it may be proper to stions and Exchanges
EVENING HERALD
Dublin Papers—an acciated by Military in-country.

The Scientific and a new plan, by the F-transactions in the Me-and by the peculiar the FEMALE REAL presenting the most in-ions, &c. &c. will, i-tions, and introduce fail to prove highly in-rate compilation of w-Scholar, the Merchpre-eminent. A spe-affairs, together with now become so neces-claim the most specia-

All the persons con-HERALD bring to with the several dutportant task they ha-have been ordered e-HERALD; and as i-gest size and finest tlence of its Typogrageneral appearance, ful comparison with

Subscribers' names received at THE Hand Stationer,) 39, F-Post-Offices in this s-

TERMS.—To the St.—London Agent
square, and Messrs.
Agents—The Cler-
Messrs. J. K. John-