Lord Decies, the most liberal benefactor to the poor in this country, has given this week £195 to the charities of Dublin.

The entire family of Captain Adams, Cavan Regiment, and the Rev. Edward Parsons have fallen victims to the cholera at the Isle of Man where it has committed extensive ravages.

By the death of Mr. George Osborne, of this City, there is a vacancy in the Vicars Choral and Minors Canons of the Cathedral. The appointment is in the gift of the Very Rev.
Dean Preston.

The new Roman Catholic Chapel at Luigan, was consecrated on Sunday last by Dr. Blake.

Bishop Doyle means to pass the ensuing winter in the South of France, for the benefit of his health, and return to Ireland in the spring.

The Rev. Robert J. M'Ghee has addressed a very able letter to the Deans, Archdeacons, and Clergy of the Church of Ireland, on the present calamitous condition of the establishment. He arraigns the principle of the Archbishop of Cashel assuming to himself the Bishopric of Waterford and Lismore, for which he contends there is no precedent whatever in ecclesiastical history. He invites all the Clergy to address the Archbishop of Cashel, and request him to resign his new office.

The North side of Dublin is about to be freed from Turn Pikes, in consequence of an application to repeal the Toll Bill.

A letter from Dr. Ferguson, President of the College of Physicians in Ireland, intimates that the College never authorised Dr. Townsend to make a proposal to Mr. St. John Long, relative to the treatment and cure of consumption.—
As the statement originated in our columns, we beg to explain that we had it from Mr. St. John Long in person, on his recent visit to the South of Ireland.

The Limerick Temperance Society now numbers 300 Members; many of whom were persons of notoriously inveterate habits of intemperance, and reduced to a state of wretchedness inseparable from habits of intoxication, but are now temperate, orderly, and respectable members of society, enjoying with their families ease, comfort, and comparative independence!! The Committee announce their intention to open a Coffee House, under the superintendence of the Society; they have formed a Mortality Society, i.e. a Society for affording relief to the Sick, and defraying the expenses attendant on the interment of deceased Members.

Fraser's Magazine for this month is one of the most clever and successful efforts of that spirited Periodical.
