

melancholy to relate, when unged one of the knives (a victim, who instantly fell, ed him twice with the other red. Carroll is at present to abide his trial. erry gaol for a desperate mother-in-law with a reap-d for any information lead-of the late Colonel William ayo. alently made up, were dis-Some were partly filled rge stones were found.
ay of Galway, every night ccessful.
n done to unreaped grain rops, in various districts of y weather with which the nd of last week.
e bakers should conform to y act, regarding the assize ssed in the last Session of ing trade in Ireland. The proclamation, called upon m to the law.
hony, and Henry Watson, eached for stealing a horse —Martin and John Kenny, errott's orchard, and seven n Sunday night last.
ol by Thomas Davonport, ay 5s. or be imprisoned one Coroner, Maurice Quin, e, otherwise Patt Connors, aiden-hall, on the 2d Sept. n—by James Russell, Esq. wounding John Herlihy—nes M'Manis, for breach of months hard labour—by d James Ryan, for being of embled at Killeely. is personage has had the s to write to the Editors of n to insert a long statement Mayor of London's exposure be on their guard against y write, stating that for a ome important information sure it is an attempt to rob e, have been favored with s that the Lord Mayor and more or less benefitted in a me, will, in future, be pu-which the delinquents will he Judges have now been ted to four years' imprison-labour in this country before begins. The same punish-, &c. Vide, the recent act for housebreaking, &c.
Magistrates of Ballin-lassy, Esq. and Richard ard Casey, alias Curran, Rossmore, to one month's in the County Gaol, for as a household servant.

At St. Botolph's, Bishopsgate, London, Joseph Fenwick, Esq. of Fowkes'-buildings, Tower-street, to Miss Hughes, late of Covent-garden Theatre.

DEATHS.

In Calcutta, in March last, in the 35th year of his age, Charles Burton Hoare, Esq. for fifteen years Surgeon in the Hon. East India Company's Service, second son of the late Rev. John Hoare, Chancellor and Vicar-General of the Diocese of Limerick. The melancholy tidings of his death reached his afflicted mother and friends, when they were in daily expectation of hearing of his arrival in England, after an absence in India of upwards of ten years.

In Upper Glentworth-street, after a few weeks illness, George Osborne, Esq. His eminent abilities as a most accomplished Organist and Professor of Music were universally acknowledged, and without prejudice to any sect, ever at the service of charity and religion.

At Newcastle, in this County, at the advanced age of 86 years, Miss Ellen Woods, aunt to the late Mr. Fitzgerald of that town, whose death we announced a few posts back.

At Cork Barracks, Captain Gaston, of the 70th Regt.
The death of this respected and lamented Officer was caused by an extremely rapid attack of cholera. He attended to his military duties down to the middle of Tuesday; he expired about half-past twelve that night.

At Clontarf, near Dublin, of cholera, most sincerely and deservedly regretted, Anne, the beloved wife of Major Flood, of Riversdale, Belurbet, in the county of Cavan.

In his 35th year, Edward James O'Brien, Esq. of the 25th Regiment, son of Major-General O'Brien, of Stonehouse, Plymouth.

In Galway, aged 96 years, Mr. Henry Martin, father of the Rev. Mr. Martin, P.P. of Castlagar.

At Prospect Villa, Drumcondra-road, aged 80 years, Mrs.
Sullivan.

At Clifden, county Galway, Thomas Pierson Firman, Esq. of Firmount, county Tipperary, Chief Constable of Police.

At Boulogne-sur-Mer, the Hon. Mrs. Charles Murray, wife of Major the Hon. Charles Murray, third son of David, late Earl of Mansfield, and brother of the present Earl.

Mr. Thomas Lynham, of Pill-lane, Dublin, aged 77.

At Brookville Cottage, Enniskerry, John H. Straton, Esq.
In Leeson-street, Dublin, Eliza, daughter of T. Quinan, Esq.

In Duke-street, Westminster, in his 70th year, James Farquhar, Esq. of Doctor's-commons, London, and of Johnston Lodge, Kincardine, N.B., for many years Representative in Parliament for the Aberdeen district of burghs.

At Englefield-green, of scarlet fever, aged 6 years, William Henry, only son of Captain Oram, late of the Royal Scots Greys.

Dorothy, relict of the late Benjamin Williamson, Esq. of Cleckheaton, in the county of York.

Lately, Mrs. Evans, relict of the late Admiral Evans.

At Chart Lodge, Kent, John Adamson, Esq. of Billitersquare, London.

At the Pinnock Cottage, near Atherstone, the Rev. C.
Boulbee, Rector of Baxterley, Warwickshire.

At Bellary, East Indies, of spasmodic cholera, Alexander Campbell, Esq. Ensign in his Majesty's 55th Foot, aged 20.

—At Ganamma, in the vicinity of Skikarpoor, of cholera, Elizabeth, wife of Major J. P. James, of the 2d Regt. N. I.

At Bancoorah, Ensign W. F. Alexander, of the Hon.
E. I. Company's 50th Regiment N. I. and youngest son of the late Major-General W. Alexander, of Derry.

Very suddenly, of cholera, at Douglas, Isle of Man, the Rev. Edward Parsons, for upwards of 40 years Minister of Salem Chapel, Leeds.

ration and other Public Bodies make the preliminary arrange-

The Directors are encoura-dertaking by the support of whose Property will therebtageously connected with th-the remote Western Districts

Whilst the Southern Coun-participate in the benefit to cheap mode of communicatioto the success and permanent Subscribers will not be ans-their respective Shares.

 Applications for Share-tary in London or Bristol, fro-Lithographic Map, may be c-

THE C PERFUMERY WAREHOUSE NEW ARRIVALS AT J. D.

HAS this day imported, elegant and extensive the Ornamental Hair, Perfum-merate which would go far b-tisement, and amongst which

140 Cases Eau de Colog

10 Boxes of Windsor ar

120 Dozen Military and

30 Dozen Patent Frenc

30 Dozen Real French

A splendid assortment o and Ivory Combs

Tooth Powders, best in

Morosini Dye, and Balm

Perfumery from the followi-Hendrie, Delcroix, Smyth a Price and Gosnell, Rowlar Demarson and Bouberet a Pa

DALLAS, in returning tha-aud Gentry, respectfully takes the conflicting advertisements to place his own on the high-easy for the Public to distingtages are to be found—trial th-which a just judgment can yet fearlessly challenges the the inspection of a Stock, uni-and quality, by any House in a patronage, unprecedented a and most influential portion of to the support of a discriminatclaim it—confident that in th-the most powerful advocate in The Public may r-no inferior Goods in this Estabof profit would induce the P-Article. DALLAS's inimitabbeing correct imitations of n-dance for Cutting and Dressin-in the London and Paris Fashi-

A great variety of Scizzor-Minature Ivories, &c. &c. at l-