

Foot, Rector of Longbrady, Dorchester, hands of W. I. Mason, Esq. Five Pounds, for the erection of the Asylum for the of England Chapel in this City.

Received a communication from the Treasurer of of the Widow and Family of the late Rev. stating that the subscription has commenced favorable auspices. The names, amount, &c. in a few days, when some applications to the importance is attached shall have been the County Gaol by T. P. Vokes, Esq.—severely assaulting John Coffy;—By Bolthomas Davenport, Esqrs. Michael Neale, assault on Patrick Kelly, one fortnight's pay 10s. each;—By the Rev. C. P. Coote, murder of Timothy Quirk; and Cornelius in his possession a pistol and a short gun, and not account, to pay £5 or be imprisoned;—By Wm. Massy and James H. Massy Timothy Egan, assault on Lawrence Hogan, be imprisoned with hard labour for one n. Wilcocks, Esq. John Fogarty, Patrick sh, Robin Walsh, Patrick Casey, and John of an armed party who assembled on the f, and forcibly dug and feloniously carried of potatoes, the property of John Coffy, and at the Police and at said Coffy.

appeared in our Second Edition last post.) man, named William Clarke, was way-murdered by five or six men, at Drom- anty, last Thursday evening, near his own outrage resulted from an old party spleen. d by Mr. Bennett on Friday, and a ver- der returned against the perpetrators.

at factions the Hayes, and Connors, who into the late fair of Hospital, and dispersed mblod on Friday in still greater force at more, whither a troop of the 4th Dragoon garrison went by express early same remained to assist the Civil power.— the military prevented a conflict, but a ere fired, and the military immediately, who fled in all directions. One man of ssy, exulting at the imaginary triumph of a blunderbuss which exploded in his brought into Hospital on Friday evening, amputation of the wounded member.— med Coffee running out of the fair with a ch he wished to conceal from the authori- his pocket, where the charge instantly gerously lacerated his arm. Those are which occurred.

of the Archbishop of Cashel, as Diocesan of Lismore, was held at the Cathedral e on Wednesday, by the Rev. R. Hobson, the Diocese, when an excellent and ap- was delivered by the Rev Archdeacon dance of the Clergy was unusually nu- mbishop was not present.

missioners in the county Kilkenny are meet- ble opposition. Outrages are as frequent een in that county, notwithstanding the

Fusileers, under trial by Court Martial ater on his defence next Thursday, to eedings are adjourned was given in the town of Kanturk, on ur fellow-citizen, Edward Tierney, Esq. e of Lord Egmont, as a mark of the tenantry entertain towards him, for his e interests of the estate, and his kind, humane consideration for the occupiers of ere upwards of 100 persons sat down to a ment, of which many of the most respect- the County also partook.

At Bolney, Sussex, Reginald Brook Boddington, son of Benjamin Boddington, of Badger Hall, Salop, Esq. to Frances Ann, second daughter of the Rev. William Vincent, Vicar of Bolney, and grand-daughter of the late Dean of Westminster.

At the British Legation at Munich, Charles Woodmass, of Montagu-square, London, Esq. to the Honorable Harriet Erskine, seventh daughter of Lord Erskine, his Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the King of Bavaria.

DEATHS.

At Kilrush, after a few hours illness, Michael Creaghe, Esq. eldest son of the late John Creaghe, Esq. of Water- ville, in this County.

At Debsborough, on Sunday last, Catherine, the wife of John Bayly, jun. Esq. aged 23 years.

In Kilrush, of cholera, Mrs. Brew, wife of Mr. Francis Brew.

At Clifden, county Galway, Mrs. Honoria Harte.

At Aherlow, Cork, the Rev. Edward W. Warren, Rector of the parish of Kilbonane.

In Great Britain-street, Cork, aged 72 years, Thornhill Archer, Esq. brother of the late Rev. Dr. Archer, Inspector-General of Prisons.

In Wexford, Bridget, wife of Mr. William Price, printer and bookseller.

In Mary-street. Mrs. Hayes, wife of Mr. J. Hayes, Baker. She was a good mother, an affectionate wife, a fond sister and a truly benevolent woman. Her death will be long regretted by her family and friends.

At Banagher, Henrietta, relict of the late Arthur Daly, Esq. aged 72 years.

Florence Victoria, youngest daughter of Charles Whitton, Esq. of Lower Gardiner-street, Dublin.

At Calais, Hugh Doherty, Esq. brother to the Right Hon. the Lord Chief Justice Doherty, late of Charles-street, St. James's-square, London, and of Laurel-lodge, Herts.

In Belfast, Frances Mary Anne, relict of John Y. Crozier, of Killileagh, Esq. many years Captain and Adjutant of the Royal North Downshire Militia.

In London, Macleod Robinson, Esq. Ordnance Office, Tower.

In Waterford, James Henry, youngest son of Lieutenant Colonel Wahab, Madras Army.

At the Manor, Waterford, Mr. Benjamin Moore.

At Glaupipe, county Kilkenny, Mary, relict of the late William Beleher, Esq.

At Rathmines, county Dublin, Miss Catherine Wallis, late of Renny, county Cork.

At Kingstown, Mrs. Kelly.

At Grenville-place, Cork, Mrs. Elizabeth Jameson, relict of the late William Jameson, Esq.

On his passage from Madras to England, Captain Duke, of the 48th Regiment of Infantry.

In the Fleet Prison, London, Dr. Gordon Smith, formerly of the 12th Lancers, and well known for his works on medical jurisprudence.

At Sallymount, county Dublin, Joseph, second son of the late Francis Metcalf, of Metcalf Park, co. Kildare, Esq.

In Ardnaree, county Mayo, William Bourne, Esq.

At Lake-house, Hants, H. M. Wemyss Isabel, daughter of Captain F. Matthews, late of the Scots Fusiliers.

At Mount Tamar, near Devonport, Major-General John Harris, of the Royal Artillery.

On his passage from Oporto to England, Captain Samuel Chinnock, aged 31 years. This officer, after escaping barely with life from all the actions in which he had so gallantly distinguished himself, accidentally met with a watery grave whilst leaning over the side of the vessel during a violent gale of wind.

At Toxteth-park, Liverpool, Sarah, wife of Surgeon Parker, on half-pay of the 19th Regiment.

At Gravesend, Frederick John, youngest child of Lieut.-Colonel John Keightley, of the 11th Regiment.

Of apoplexy, Mary, wife of Dr. M'Andrew, of the 78th Highlanders.

Believing that the statement has not made than called forth by the existence Female Schools superficial knowledge due attention to the more lasting advan- tion, Mrs. Sullivan will omit no means such a deficiency. Her system will ap- and polite literature, while her most in- shall be given to ensure a proficiency in

The discipline of the establishment the mild and conciliatory plan of emu- exercise this great incentive to applica- of Weekly Judgments, Medals, &c. and it is hoped that the co-operation of and auxiliary to this desirable object.

The house is among the largest and City, combining in its situation the ad- country.

It will be a matter of unceasing soli- prietress, that her School may afford to joyments of home. The most sedulous at- be given to every domestic arrangement comfort and happiness.

Incorporation of L

TOLLS, CUSTOMS, & NOTICE is hereby given that Pro- printed Form to be had at the of- (ain) will be received by the Right W- for the Tolls and Customs, and Duties than the Tolls and Customs on Potato- the Sixteenth day of October next.

Printed Proposals only will be re- Form of Lease is posted at the Office of

The solvency of the Person or Per- posal, and of their Sureties, will be into, and their presence required at the Seventh day of October next.

Should the Proposals sent in be com- mitted to the Common Council, in adeq- the Tolls, Duties, and Customs, or Person or Persons making the Propo- Sureties be disapproved of—the said Customs, other than the Toll and Custo- be put up and let by public Auction to the Tholsel, on the said Seventh day the hour of Two o'Clock in the A- according to the aforesaid terms, and of Lease.

THE CLEANSING OF TH

Including the sweeping of the Str- carrying away the dirt, for Twelve Seventh day of October next, will on October next be put up to public Auc- following Lots, and under the Regulati- Mayor's Office, Exchange, and at the berlain. Terms Cash.

No. 1.—From Thomond-Gate to Brid- the street to the Island, Barrack-stre- right and left, Sheep-street, and Bridge-street.

No. 2.—From Bridge-street to Baal's back lanes, right and left, from C- Bridge, George's-quay, New Brid- Quay.

No. 3.—From Baal's Bridge to the ol- cluding Baal's Bridge, Lock-quay, far as the Assembly-house, and all ba- and left.

No. 4.—From the old Market-place to cluding Francis-street and Palmerstov- lanes to Mungret-street to the right a-

No. 5.—From the old Market-place to Bull outside John's-gate, including and left, the Square as far as Blake's Limerick, 21st