On Saturday night, at his seat, Croydon, near Dublin, of cholera, to the sincere regret of every individual who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, Jonas Stevelly, Esq.
 for many years a Six-Clerk in the Court of Chancery—his extensive estate and property descend to his only son, Robert J. Stevelly, Esq. the hospitable proprietor of Glanduff, in this County.
 On the 19th instant, at Croydon, near Dublin, the seat of his uncle, Jones Stevelly, Esq. Robert Sanders, Esq.
 late of Sanders-Park, county Cork. He has fallen a victim in the prime of health and vigour, to that raging pestilence, cholera, and has left a numerous circle of sorrowing relatives and friends to deplore his irretrievable loss.
 At Kilkee, the infant son and heir of the Right Hon.
 Lord Clarina.
 At Dalystown, county Galway, Power Le Poer Trench, youngest son of Captain the Hon. Wm. Le Poer Trench, R.N.
 In Cheltenham, John Carroll, Esq. of Stephen's-green, Dublin, son of the late Ephraim Carroll, Esq. and nephew of Chief Justice Doherty.
 At Millmount, county Galway, Eliza, eldest daughter of the late Henry Cannon, Esq. a young lady much lamented.
 In Galway, Mr. B. Oliver.
 At Blakrock, Mr. John Shelley, for 60 years a member of the Methodist Society.
 In Cork, Mr. James B. Fogarty.
 At Stranorlar, Mrs. Steel, wife of the Rev. James Steel, Presbyterian Minister.
 Aged eighty-nine, Mr. David Burtchaell, of Lacken, in the county of Kilkenny.
 At Roscor, Miss Anne Dundas.
 In Galway, the wife of Mr. Joynt, Revenue Officer.
 In Dublin, Edward M'Cahe, Esq.
 At Cashel, Dr. Hemphill, Surgeon County Infirmary.
 In Carlow, Dugley Hill, Esq. Secretary to the Grand Jury. He had nearly numbered four score years. Two days previous to his death, there was born to one of his daughters his forty-sixth grandchild.
