

she was obliged to return to her anchor on Monday morning, however, she again succeeded in getting out to sea. The Deed, and on her arrival will be placed under Captain Mackay, of the Bevenge, Co. Cove.

the soldier of the 29th who was tried by Court Martial some short time ago, at Cork Barracks, and robbing his master, Captain Hickey, of the County Gaol to the hulk Surprise, being transported as a felon for life,—as was one of the 70th and one of the 77th for desertion, as felons for 14 years.

of the charges against Lieutenant Losh, tried by Court Martial at Clonmel, was an officer and a gentleman, in having at Clonmel, on the 25th June last, when playing a game called Vingt-un, privately subtracted a sum of money with the intention of cheating his brother officer of the party." The affair occurred in the presence of Lieutenant Parker of the same corps, and Lieutenant Losh secretly abstracted the ace of spades and put it under his feet, upon which he called "Bigge then put both officers under arrest; he saw no unfair play or wish for concealment of Lieut. Losh. The proceedings for the same were terminated in consequence of the death of Lieut.

of the 10th Hussars, was shot on the evening by his comrade William Smith, a match of Cricket was played in the City of Dublin, between eleven of the 2d Batt. of the 10th Hussars, and eleven from the Infantry Guards. The match was won by the Rifles, who were the victors in a single innings, with 49 runs.

of the 8th Hussars, is under arrest for striking an Officer. Thomas Kelly, a private of the 10th Hussars, was shot on the evening by his comrade William Smith, a match of Cricket was played in the City of Dublin, between eleven of the 2d Batt. of the 10th Hussars, and eleven from the Infantry Guards. The match was won by the Rifles, who were the victors in a single innings, with 49 runs.

of the 35th Regiment, and John Cannon, are lodged in Manchester Gaol; the latter being charged with attempting to rob and murder Mr. John Smith, a private of the 10th Hussars, is under arrest for striking an Officer. Thomas Kelly, a private of the 10th Hussars, was shot on the evening by his comrade William Smith, a match of Cricket was played in the City of Dublin, between eleven of the 2d Batt. of the 10th Hussars, and eleven from the Infantry Guards. The match was won by the Rifles, who were the victors in a single innings, with 49 runs.

of the name of John Clune, from near Clonmel, was committed to Ennis gaol to abide his trial for harbouring James Jones, an outlaw, who was the murderer of Michael Molony, of Cratloe, in the County of Tipperary, for whose apprehension a reward was offered.

of the name of John Clune, from near Clonmel, was committed to Ennis gaol to abide his trial for harbouring James Jones, an outlaw, who was the murderer of Michael Molony, of Cratloe, in the County of Tipperary, for whose apprehension a reward was offered.

Worsley, eldest daughter of the late Sir Leonard Worsley, Bart.

DEATHS.

Of premature confinement, aged 34 years, Catherine, the wife of Colonel P. Maunsell, of Guernsey, and eldest daughter of the Rev. James Farrell, of Lanesboro', county Longford.

At her residence, Rutland-square, Dublin, the Lady Frances Vandeleur, widow of the late Right Hon. John Ormsby Vandeleur, and daughter of the late Marquess of Drogheda. The memory of Lady Vandeleur will be long cherished by the people of Kilrush—to the poor she was a munificent benefactress, and every wish of her heart seemed to be to increase the happiness of all around her.

Friday night, at the Tontine Buildings, after a short illness, to the sincere regret of her family and friends, Alicia, daughter of the late Joseph Gabbett, Esq. of this City, Alderman.

G. Blennerhassett, Esq. R. N. son-in-law of Sir A. B. King, Bart. of Dublin.

In Galway, Mr. Francis Dobson, Tidewaiter of that port. On the Quay, Galway, Mr. James Burke, late Tidewaiter of that port.

In Sligo, Mrs. Phibbs, relict of W. H. Phibbs, Esq. of that town.

In Youghal, Mr. Edward Bateman, a member of the Society of Friends.

At Leghorn, the son of Alderman Sir Thomas Whelan, of Dublin.

In Galway, Maria, youngest daughter of A. Lynch, Esq. In York-street, Dublin, aged 75 years, Charity, relict of the late Arthur Richards Neville, Esq. and grand-daughter of the late Colonel Pepper.

Maria, eldest surviving daughter of the Rev. H. Maturin, Rector of Clondevaddock, aged 23 years.

At Lochgilphead, Captain Duncan Campbell, half-pay 91st Regiment.

At Bellary, Lieutenant Wake, 55th Regiment.

Thomas, son of James Coppinger, Esq. of Paris.

In North Anne-street, Circular-road, Dublin, Catherine, wife of Michael Houston, Esq.

In Enniskillen, the daughter of Jason Hassard, Esq.

At Porto Bello, near Ecinburgh, Lieut.-Colonel Seath, half pay, 25th Foot.

At Ballary, Madras, Captain Champion, 55th Foot.

At Laturm, Jamaica, Captain Dale, 84th Foot.

At Bruges, Captain O'Flaherty, late Royal Vet. Batt.

At Dominica, Lieutenant Thomas, 1st Foot.

At Poonahcottah, in the East Indies, of cholera, Lieut. John Curre, 8th Regiment of Madras Native Infantry, son of William Curre, Esq. of Ilton Court, Monmouthshire.

At Cawnpore, Major Henry Edmund Peach, Assistant Commissary-General.

At Pimlico, near London, Richard Heber, Esq. one of the greatest Bibliophilists of any age or country. So extensive is the library that he has collected, should he have ordered it to be sold by auction, on the most moderate calculation it is estimated that the sale would occupy 365 days.

At the Vicarage, Streatley, Berkshire, aged 77, the Rev. John Wetherall, D. D. Chaplain to his Royal Highness the late Duke of Kent.

At East Ilsley, Berkshire, Lieut. Charles Hemsted, R. N. the Governor of Travers' College, Windsor.

At Audley End, near Saffron Walden, Mary, the wife of William Cowell, aged 60. About a week previous to her death, she accidentally pricked her finger with a needle, in consequence of which inflammation took place in her arm, and was the immediate cause of her death.

In Dorset-street, London, Mrs. Banan, relict of Owen Banan, Esq. formerly merchant in the city of Cork, aged 78 years.

Ballyclough Flour Mill.

NO BE LET, for such term as may be agreed on, the

Tomfinlough, Kilanasulla, Kilnalury, Kilconry, Clonlohan, Burratty,

Special Sessions for Public Works in the U holden at the Court-H stions for the Lower Sixmile-Bridge. Each assessed only with the

FEE SI

THE House, Dem near Nenagh, in in the entire 465 acres sure—of which the 208 acres 3 roods and remainder is held by re The House is most subs of fortune. The Out- enclosed by a high wa The Garden, one of th with all kinds of Fruit There is a good sup further particulars appl Esq. of Prior-Park; a Dawson-street, Dublin Title.

RINGMO

IN THE

AS HER Proposals will be rec Tullamore, until 1st D The Purchaser, if th between the 1st and 10

IRISH FARM MAGAZINE

OF RU CONDUCTED by PHY, A. B. No. the 1st of November, Communications and the publishers, WILLI Sackville-street, Dubl any Bookseller in town

DUTCH

HAVE arrived to in prime condit Sir Edward Banks, f ship City Limerick, to had at his Seed Wareh parcel of prime Winte The Lodgings the Mouth, or for a ter ferred. There are N Vaults, Stable and Co 8, G

PH

FIRE INS No. 35, Old Jewr NO. 40, HIGH