

daughter of the Rev. Lynch Burroughs, Offley-place, Hertfordshire.

DEATHS.

On Friday, at her mother's house in George's-street, to the deep regret of her family and friends, Letitia, youngest daughter of the late Arthur H. D'Esterre, Esq. of this City.

At the North Strand, this morning, Jane, wife of Daniel Cudmore, Esq. and daughter of the late William Russell, Esq. of this city—a Lady of very amiable disposition and engaging manners.

At Dunboe Parsonage, near Coleraine, William Thomas Monsell, eldest son of the Venerable the Archdeacon of Derry, and grandson of William Thomas Monsell, Esq. of Tervoe, aged 23 years.

On Monday last, at Lisloghtin Abbey, after a severe illness, which she bore with the most exemplary and christian fortitude, Mrs. Crosbie, relict of the late Pierce Crosbie, of Ruheen House, Esq. and Lieut.-Colonel of the Kerry Regiment of Militia.—A Lady no less distinguished for her high accomplishments, than for her urbanity of manners and kind disposition, combined with a truly benevolent mind, ever actively and unostentatiously engaged in acts of the purest charity—endeared to all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Her irreparable loss will long and deeply be lamented by her afflicted family, extensive connexions, and friends.

In Dingle, aged 14 years, Catherine, eldest daughter of Henry M'Can, Esq. of Tralee.

At Ballyroan, Queen's County, aged 74 years, William Fitzgerald, Esq. Barrister at Law.

On Thursday, at Ennis, much lamented, James Crowe, Esq.

In Cork, the Rev. Richard Henry Rogers, jun.

At Coomligane, county Cork, Leonora, relict of the late M'Carthy O'Leary, Esq.

At the Rev. Mr. White's boarding-school, Wexford, James, son of George Little, Esq. Attorney.

At Dr. Renwick's, Wexford, Margaret, youngest daughter of Counsellor Hatchell, of Merrion-square, Dublin.

On Pembroke-quay, Dublin, Joseph Logan, Esq.

At Hill-Hall, county of Essex, Sir Thomas Smyth, Bart.

At Brighton, Mrs. Catherine Hunt, sister of Sir Humphry Davie, Bart. of Creedy, county Down.

Maria Julia Christiana, only child of John Bellew, Esq. of Newtown-avenue, Black-rock, Dublin.

At Armagh, of influenza, Anne Elizabeth, wife of James Baxter, Esq. and only daughter of the late Samuel Moffat, Esq. M.D. of Faranfadh-house, county Down.

At York-house, Bath, William Henry Tonge, late Lieutenant of the 17th Lancers.

At Wood-hall, Hull, Arthur Maister, Esq. Colonel of the East York Militia.

At Bangalore, Madras, Captain Meyrick, of the 39th Regiment.

Mrs. Dickins, wife of F. Dickins, Esq. of Woilaston Hall, Wellingborough, Northamptonshire.

At the Cape of Good Hope, Lieutenant-Colonel Edward Vaughan, 98th Regiment.

and Game, a most lux to every palate. Sold Nicolas, at their Fish Milbank-street, Lond Fish Sauce Venders and 4s. per bottle.

COP

Sworn at the Mans

BENJAMIN SHOUT the County of Middle oath and saith: that of the Sauce called introduced the genui Public, in the year C teen; and that he h and sell it under the

Sworn at the Man day, June 2d, 1831,

None are genui Sold only by M where also may be ha prepared by a new superior Pickles.

SCHOOL OF

THE Professors v tal Attendance following hours:—

Doctor Crampton at Eleven o'Clock.

At Twelve the Lecturers, Dr. Cran

At One, Dr. Mac

At Two, Dr. Bar

At Three, Dr. L

At Four, Dr. Gra

Clinical Lecture week, by Dr. Cran

The Lectures on cine, and Institutes Lectures, will be d

Lectures on Anatom Demonstrations will Dr. Macartney, Dr.

Operating Pupils Chemistry, at the C

Dr. Allman's Le last week of April, to the second week Dr. Montgomer authority of the C Sir P. Dunn's Hosp

Registrar to the