

for a member of Parnosen by the D'Oyer 2150, and so is the other emoluments.—
 s also elected by the ointed for life, salary executions. He has are nominated by the ve fees. The Mayor
 cers, or by the Recor-le alone there. The declined within the y elected by ballot to St. Michael's parish
 d, Lady Bloomfield, resent stopping at his ain Lodge, near New-ere received by a nu-very demonstration of order, and appearance
 ed by any in Ireland :
 te of the cottages and ny in England, and by an industrious and f an encouraging and iam D. Godfrey, Esq.
 ast on a visit at Bally-Arthur Blennerhasset, a Magistrate of the in Liscannor, county Fitzgerald, and Cor-rward in contributing
 , and procuring medi-rish since the 27th of he 28th, 2 died and 2 nd Strokestown, where oman Catholic Chapel
 onths for want of funds.
 ppointed to investigate st week by the Mayor, ets, careless of which nes and a slight fall of ce Sunday last. The len, and the weather is e division of Rathkeale day, before Assistant-ivil bill processes; and DRD.
 on of Ennis commenced vil Bills entered. The ice of registry at Tralee y of Kerry, and 23 for our next.

At Beer house, Buckinghamshire, the Hon. Mrs. Barrington, of a daughter.
 At Suffolk House, Cheltenham, the Lady of Lieutenant-Colonel Allen, of a son.

DEATHS.

On Sunday morning, at her father's house in Upper Mal-low-street, Catherine, second daughter of Villiers Peacocke, of Dooneen, Esq.—a young lady whose superior mental endowments, and many amiable qualities, have rendered her premature dissolution a source of the most poignant affliction to her family and friends.

In Denmark-street, to the sincere regret of an affectionate husband and young family, Mrs. Flannery, wife of Mr.
 Edmond Flannery, of this City.

At the North Strand, on Saturday, Jane, wife of Daniel Cudmore, Esq. and daughter of the late William Russell, Esq. of this city—a Lady of very amiable disposition and engaging manners.

At Kilrush, aged 86 years, Mrs. Statham, widow of Thomas Statham, Esq.

At Templeogue-house, Mrs. Ellis, relict of Thomas Ellis, Esq. Master in Chancery, daughter of Colonel Mousell, of Terroe, and sister to the Archdeacon of Derry.

In Mary-street, Mr. John Gubbins, boot and shoe maker.

In Killarney, after a lingering illness, Guilford Magrath, eldest son of Mr. J. L. Magrath, of that town.

At Clongowes Wood School, aged 13 years, John, second son of John Donovan, Esq. of Tralee.

At Madras, on the 28th May, sincerely regretted by his brother Officers, D. Doherty, Esq. Assistant-Surgeon 49th Regiment.

At Ballyroan, Queen's County, aged 74 years, William Fitzgerald, Esq. Barrister at Law.

At Woodstown, county Waterford, Morgan Power, Esq.

On Thursday, at Ennis, much lamented, James Crowe, Esq.

In Cork, the Rev. Richard Henry Rogers, jun.

At Rye-hill, county of Galway, Sarah, wife of Michael Balfe, jun. Esq.

In Sandwith-street, Dublin, Mr. John Delahunt.

In Mountjoy-square, Dublin, Eliza, wife of Dacre Hamilton, Esq. of Cornacapa, county Monaghan.

In Londonderry, aged 70 years, Mary, relict of the late Edward Stevenson, of Tullyally, Esq.

At Glenties, county Donegal, Captain Folvill, R. N.

At Cornamuckla, near Ballymahon, Mr. John Dimond, aged 78 years.

In Bedford-place, London, A. Onslow, Esq. Sergeant-at-Law, aged 75 years.

At the Cape of Good Hope, Lieutenant-Colonel Edward Vaughan, 98th Regiment.

At Hatfield, Gloucester, the Rev. Saunders W. Miller, 46 years Rector of that parish.

At St. Michael's-terrace, near Devonport, Major Van Cortlandt, eldest son of the late Colonel Van Cortlandt.

At Esher, Surrey, Mrs. Vidler, widow of the late John Vidler, first mail-coach contractor, aged 87.

At Downington House, Lechlade, Gloucestershire, Major Samuel Hawkins, aged 62 years.

At Ayr, Lieutenant and Adjutant Duff, late of the 42d Royal Highlanders, in which regiment he distinguished himself during the whole of the Peninsular war. He was an affectionate husband and fond father, and is greatly regretted by a numerous circle of acquaintance and friends, whom his uprightness of character and warmth of heart had gained him.

defiance of a conti-
 injure, which the Jury saves Mr. G's
 From Mr. G's
 City, and his above Establishment, it
 Seminary is entitl
 established his clai
 and Science Schol intended for the Un
 in the College Cou
 Science be hencefo Seminaries.

MONSIEUR F
 Department and M in the Writing De satisfactorily disch Wanted at a Graduate or Schol

CECIL-RO
JOSEPH
THE Proprietor
 public atten-
 A negotiation w
 the Principal of a view to the union
 made to him from best attention; bu
 plish their object
 concert.

Many Individuals
 having been cogn became pret'y ge expected: and to
 to his interests, M
 of such a connexi

The Cecil-stree
 on the same pri character, and by tained a support as

A few of these notice:—

1st—The Propri
 ed, and the objec
 best interests of e
 should never exc
 may be faithfully

2d—Select As what is of more i
 matter deeply affe
 SULLIVAN engag

3d—The debas Seminary explod
 system of Emulati effect a course of fessions of life.

It forms part of
 as evening pupil
 their quarterly ex
 gaged in business
 to their improvem

An assista