

four-mile course, beating nine others.
 We continue the publication of the new Irish Grand Jury Act this post, and expect we shall be able to conclude in our next.

The new Glasgow Lottery is announced at 116, George's-street, in this City.—See Advertisement.

Committed by Alderman Watson, yesterday, to the City Gaol, George Campbell, Royal Artillery, for receiving goods under false pretences from Mr. Scalan, Mungret-street. Campbell was only discharged on Saturday from the County Gaol, where he was confined four months pursuant to sentence by Court-Martial, for a breach of the Articles of War.

Committed to the County Gaol, by George W. Bennett, Esq.—John Fox, assault, 2 months imprisonment, or pay 5*l*.—by Hon. George E. Massy, Matthew Coffy, further examination—by Alfred Furlong, David Guiry, assault and rescue.

The annexed Memorandum came too late to add to the Rev. Mr. Gregg's advertisement, in first page:—

"N. B.—Vacation is not charged when the entrance of the Pupil takes place after First November."

FURTHER SUBSCRIPTIONS FOR THE FAMILY OF THE LATE REV. MR. COUSINS.

	£	s.	d.
Wm. Michin, Esq.	10	0	0
Mr. Donnelly, Georges'-street	1	0	0
John Waller, Esq. Castletown	10	0	0
Rev. A. Champagne	2	10	0
John Blennerhassett, Esq.	1	0	0
Wm. Hubt, Esq.	3	0	0
J. A. Douglas, Esq.	2	0	0
D. F. G. Mahony	1	0	0
Lady O'Brien	2	0	0
Rev. E. Herbert, Killfyn	1	0	0
A Bruff Protestant	5	0	0
Caleb Powel, Esq.	2	0	0
Wm. R. Yielding	5	0	0
Rev. R. Dickson	3	0	0
Mrs. Maunsell	3	0	0
R. G. Maunsell	3	0	0
Rev. J. R. Fitzgerald, BallyM'Elligott	10	0	0
Mr. Peacocke, William-street	10	0	0
A Friend, per Mr. Bowen	1	0	0
Poole Gabbett, Esq.	5	0	0
A Friend, per Rev. R. Moore	2	0	0
Samuel Caswell, per ditto	1	0	0
Doctor Franklin	2	0	0
Per Hugh Finch, Esq.	2	0	0
Michael Bevan, Esq.	5	0	0
Wm. Finch, Esq.	2	0	0
A Lady, Georges'-street	2	0	0
Ditto, ditto,	1	0	0
Thomas Mahon, Esq.	1	0	0
Francis Castles	1	0	0
Thomas Maunsell	1	0	0
E. Maunsell	3	0	0
Hugh Finch	1	0	0
Robert Peppard	5	0	0
A Friend	5	0	0
Per Rev. E. N. Hoare.	5	0	0
Edward Bernard	1	0	0
Captain Sayers	1	0	0
Miss Gubbins, Strand	1	0	0
Rev. E. Hoare	1	0	0
A Friend	1	0	0
Sir Joseph Barrington	1	0	0
R. Grantham, Esq.	1	0	0
Captain Coppinger	1	0	0
Rev. Mr. Stuart	3	0	0
John N. Russell	10	0	0
John Stevenson	1	1	0
Smith and Wallace	10	0	0
Joshua Seward	5	0	0
Mr. Jackson, Georges'-quay	5	0	0
Mr. Jackson, victualler	2	0	0
Wm. Wilson	1	0	0
Alexanders	1	0	0
Rev. J. O'Donoghue	5	0	0
Richard Seymour	10	0	0
Walsh, Thomas-street	1	10	0
Mrs. Bunton, ditto	1	0	0
Simon Rose, Esq.	3	0	0
Rev. James Ellard	2	0	0
Thos. Gabbett, Esq.	1	0	0
Mr. Borbridge	1	0	0

In the last List, instead of "Richard Payne, Esq." read "J. P."—Instead of "Mrs. H. D. Massy, Somerville," read "Summerhill."

J. GABBETT, } Secretaries.
 T. WILLIS, }
 HENRY H. ROSE, Treasurer.

Oct. 23.

At Camberwell Church, near London, James Rogers, of Dublin, Esq. Barrister-at-Law, to Mary, third daughter of the late John Roberts, of Forest Hill, Surrey, Esq.

At Heworth, the Hon. Wm. Edwards, eldest son of Lord Kensington, to Laura, fourth daughter of Cuthbert Ellison, Esq. of Hebburn-hall, county of Durham.

DEATHS.

On the 13th instant, in Baggot-street, Dublin, Lieut.-General Croker; he survived his wife but two months and four days—he for many years commanded the 15th Regiment, and was brother of the late Edward Croker, Esq. of Ballynegrard, in this County.

At her husband's house in Richmond Place, Mary Anne, the beloved wife of the Rev. Henry H. Rose, of this City.

On Wednesday last, at Mount-Pleasant-Avenue, Dublin, Matilda, youngest daughter of the late John MacAdam, Esq. of Anne-Grove, county Clare. She exhibited throughout a protracted illness, and most triumphantly towards its close, an unshaken and joyful reliance upon Him who had redeemed her, and washed her from her sins in His own blood.

Saturday, John Hill, Esq. merchant, one of the Society of Friends.

In Church-street, Ennis, of premature confinement, Mrs. Archer, wife of Mr. William Archer, hotel-keeper.

In Mullingar, of cholera, Mr. Wager, Barrack-Serjeant in that garrison. His remains were interred by the 47th Regiment.

In Fermoy, William, son of Mr. James Talbot, Postmaster of that town.

At Cove, Kate, third daughter of B. Verling, Esq.

In Bandon, Mr. Thomas Loane.

At Lukeyville, near Fermoy, Maria, relict of the late George Lukey, Esq. and aunt to Henry Bevan, of Camus, in this County, Esq.

At advanced age, at Gibsborough, Mrs. Rudyerd, of Field-House, Whitby, relict of the late General Rudyerd.

On the 10th inst. at Valence, near Avignon, in the south of France, where she had been some time residing with her affectionate and truly amiable Lord, who is inconsolable on the heart-rending occasion—the good, the charitable, and pious Countess of Farnham. She was sixty-one years of age. The remains of the inestimable Lady are on their way for interment in the family vault Newtownbarry.

At her house, Lambeth-road, London, Mrs. Grubb, relict of the late Mr. James Grubb, late private Secretary to John Quincy Adams, Esq. President of the United States of America.

In Lisnaskea, of apoplexy, Surgeon W. Armstrong, R.N.

At Dresden, near Carndonagh, Mrs. Metcalf, wife of Captain Thomas L. Metcalf, late 2d Royal Veteran Batt.

Near Maghera, Mary Jane, daughter of Mr. John Millar, of Petersburg, Virginia.

At the Rev Charles Nisbitt's, Greenhill, Donegal, the Rev. Charles Smith, Rector of the parishes of Arklow and Ballin Temple.

At the Lucan Iron Works, aged 64 years, Captain Wm. Blair, late of the 2d Regiment of Life Guards.

At Bray, Gustavus Merydith Warner, son of the Rev. Gustavus Warner, of Dunamon, county Down.

Sophia, wife of the Hon. Richard N. Bennett, Chief Justice of Tobago.

In Mullingar, Mr. Henry Hill, Printer.

In Westport, Mrs. Daffron—and on the following morning, her husband, Joseph Daffron, Esq. Supervisor of Excise, both of cholera.

In Mullingar, of the epidemic prevalent there for some far some weeks past, James Gunning, Esq.

In Boyle, of pulmonary consumption, Miss Margaret Hall, sister to Mr. John Hall, Postmaster.

Mr. James Butler, of the Globe inn, Clonmel.

At Ballinrobe, Catherine, youngest daughter of the late Charles C. O'Callaghan, of Roscrea, Esq. aged 25 years.

At Kiltimon, Newtown Mountkennedy, county Wicklow, aged 92 years, William Eccles, Esq.

At Whigsboro', in the King's County, the Rev. Joseph Burns, deeply and deservedly regretted.

At Speenhamland, in her 85th year, the Hon. Mrs. Bertie, widow of the Hon. Peregrine Bertie, brother of the late Earl of Abingdon.

In Beaumont street, Devonshire-place, Louisa Alexandrina, widow of the late Lieut.-Colonel George Lyon, 11th Light Dragoons, and mother of the late Capt. Lyon, R. N.

At Strasburg, Sir Charles Henry Colville, of Dufield Hall, Derbyshire.

At Edinburgh, Captain J. Fullerton, 30th Regiment.

In Salisbury-street, Strand, London, Major-Gen. William Binks, late of the Woolwich Division of Royal Marines.

At Lambeth, London, Anne, wife of Edward Johnson, Esq. of the House of Commons.

Lieut.-Colonel John Moore, of the Bombay Artillery.

At Smeaton House, Sir John Buchan Hepburn, Bart.

At Edinburgh, Lieut. Archibald Hamilton, of the Londonderry Militia.

Furniture Bazzar, 19, Stephen's-street.

Wholesale and HOUSE-FURNISHING AND GERY AND HARDWARE
 135, GEORGE'S-STREET
 CORNER OF HON

12 P. HOOD

MOST grateful for the patronage of his late Establishment, respectfully informs his Friends and the public, that he has opened the above extensive Warehouse, since occupied by the late Mr. W. Merchant, for the sale of every article above trade.

His present very extensive stock, he himself personally, within the last few days, has selected from the best Manufacturing Houses in England, to sell at such prices, as, he is very liberal patronage.

The Stock consists of the best of Register Grates and Stoves, of great variety, Cutlery and Locks, Bridle Bits, Whips, &c.; a large assortment of Steam Kitchens, and Kitchen Furniture, and Japanned Goods; Tea and Inkstands, &c. &c.—His Brushes made on the Premises.

(No SECOND PRICE at this Unfurnished Lodgings.

NEW PUBLISHED

This Day is Published in Royal 8vo., Price 2s. 6d., or 1s. 6d. and on India Paper

PART II. of the ILLUSTRATED WORKS of Sir WALTER SCOTCHOT

- CONTENT
- 1 Rhymers' Tower,.....
 - 2 Roslyn,.....
 - 3 Braid Hills,.....
 - 4 Brig of Bracklin,.....
 - 5 Matilda,.....
- CHARLES TILT, London; JOHN O'MOND-quay, Dublin, and Sold by

Equitable Labour

AT a MEETING of GENERAL MARK'S ROOMS, Lower Cecilia-street, Birmingham, on the 11th Instant, for the purpose of forming an EQUITABLE LABOUR EXCHANGE in London and Birmingham, and of holding public lectures on the subject.

It was moved by Mr. M'Nulty, Geary, and Resolved unanimously

1. That Subscriptions be now opened for the purpose of establishing a Branch Labour Exchange in London, the shares of £1 each.
- Mr. Mark having liberally offered a commodious Room for the purpose of holding public lectures, moved by Mr. Furlong, seconded by Mr. M'Nulty, and resolved unanimously.
2. That a Public Meeting of the same nature be held at the earliest opportunity (to be given) for the purpose of promoting the formation of a Labour Exchange, and of hearing the explanation of the subject.
- Moved by H. Clements, Esq. and resolved unanimously.
3. That Colonel O'Donnell, C. B. be appointed Treasurer and Mr. Furlong as Secretary.
- Moved by Mr. Furlong, seconded by Mr. M'Nulty, and resolved unanimously.
4. That these Resolutions be published in the Limerick papers.

H. A. O'DONNELL, C. B. having taken the same, It was Resolved unanimously, That the best thanks of this Meeting be given to Colonel O'Donnell for his conduct in the Chair.

T. WILKINSON, W. FURLONG

October 23.