

Lucia, to Janet Bullen, second daughter of John M'Lachlan, Esq. of Baddon Hall, Essex.

At Pitminster, Somersetshire, Sir J. Coleman Rashleigh, Bart. of Prideaux, Cornwall, to Martha, youngest daughter of the late John Gould, Esq. M. D. of Truro.

The Rev. Thomas Lowry, Glenboy, Clogher, son to the Rev. Joseph Lowry, Lisara, to Florella, daughter of the Rev. John Reid, Upper Clenances.

At Castlereagh, Peter Dillon, of Springlawn, Esq. to Miss Fitzgibbon, daughter of Edward Fitzgibbon, Esq.

At West Wrating, Cambridge, J. Bendyshe, Esq. of Barrington, to Ann, daughter of Sir C. Watson, Bart. of Wrating Park.

DEATHS.

At Fermoy, James M'Namara, Esq.

In Shannon-street, Margaret, wife of Mr. John Stenson, Bookbinder.

On his way home from the Coast of Guinea, Mr. Thomas M'Namara, of this City, Master Cooper, son of Mr. James M'Namara, of Brunswick-street.

In Nelson-street, Mr. James Keane, Grocer and Spirit Merchant.

In Belfast, the Rev. Robert Orr, Presbyterian Minister of Killead, in the 48th year of his ministry, and the 74th year of his age.

In Richmond-street, Dublin, of an apoplectic attack, Mrs. Murphy, relict of the late Mr. Murphy, of Kennedy's-lane.

At Kingstown, Philip Newton, Esq. of Dunleekney, county Carlow.

At Ballyrogan, county Wicklow, Philip J. Furlong, Esq.

At his house in Lower Gloucester-street, Dublin, T. B. M'Shean, Esq. Proprietor of the Fenaighlian Institution.

At Tuam, Mrs. M'Hugh, wife of Mr. John M'Hugh, merchant, of that town.

In Belfast, Hugh, son of Captain Hill, of the 52d Light Infantry.

At Gadgarth-house, Lieut.-Colonel Burney, late of the Hon. East India Company's service.

In Richmond street, Dublin, Rose, relict of the late Bryan Murphy, Esq. merchant.

At Newton-green, Ayr, Lieut. William Duff, late of the 12th Foot.

Of brain fever, on his passage from Cork to Lisbon, Capt. Clements, Royal Marines

At the advanced age of 85, Justin Kearney, Esq. of William-street, Dublin, an eminent and highly respectable Apothecary.

At Reading, the Rev. Dr. Wise, Vicar of St. Lawrence.

At Patshull, Staffordshire, Mary Ann, wife of Sir G. Pigot, Bart.

At Wycombe, Charlotte, relict of the late Major-General Fisher.

At Dunbar, Allen Caméron, aged 102. Allan was a fiddler, and musician to the Dunbar Castle Lodge.

At Blackheath, Maria Moore Sturrock, grand-daughter of the late Archdeacon Sturrock.

At his house in Sloane-street, from an attack of apoplexy, Robert Raymond Stewart, Esq.

John Bent, Esq.
Thomas H. Call, Esq.
Thomas Harding, Esq.
John G. Harris, Esq.
William Paxton Jervis
Rev. PH. LE Breton, AUDITORS—T. Be
J. Wilson, Esq.

SECRET

Bankers—Messrs.
73, Lombard-street ;
Bond-street.

Physicians—T. Th
Saville-Row, Burling
SOLICITOR—Willia

THIS Company co
duced premium
Half-Yearly, or Ann grant Annuities on si
Money on Annuity see Leasehold Property, or

The Assured with th in the profits.
The Bonus declared
all Policies effected on 1829.

GE

AGENT

Abel Labertouche.
Thomas Folingsby..
Jameson and Kellet
Edward Duffy,

PUBLI

ON OF EQUITABLE

PURSUANT to a Gentlemen held at
Colonel O'DO

A Public Meeting o
rick and its vicinity wi
Room, Lower-Cecil-st
the 29th INSTANT,

PARE, of Birmingham
and practice of EQU
as now in operation in benefit of the productiv

may be deemed expedi
system throughout Ire
BRANCH LABOUR

possible, in this City.

The Chair will be ta
W. F

October 26, 1833.