

son of Sir Henry Boynton, Bart. to Louisa, youngest daughter of Walter Strickland, Esq. of Cokethorpe Park, Oxfordshire.

DEATHS.

At Ferriter, near Dingle, of fever, the Rev. Maurice Quill, aged 30 years.

At Dromid, Kerry, the Rev. James Sheehan, P. P.

At Tralee, Honora, relict of the late D. Murphy, of Listowel, Esq.

At Rathkeale, Mr. John Downes, saddler and harness-maker.

At Passage, Cork, Catherine, eldest daughter of the Rev. Thomas Kenny, of Donoughmore.

The wife of Rev. J. Creighton, Curate of Aughnacloy, and sister of the Hon. Baron Foster.

In Paul-street, Cork, aged 19 years, Margaret, daughter of the late Mr. C. Spear.

At Drumheriff, near Loughgall, Robert Cherry, Esq.

In Dundalk, Mrs. Maxwell, wife of H. Maxwell, Esq.

At Bray, after a few hours illness, Mrs. M'Kay; and on the following day her husband, Mr. James M'Kay.

At Ballyheige, Tralee, Mrs. Lawrence, wife of Lieut. Henry Lawrence, of the Royal Navy.

Of a rapid decline, Joanna, wife of Mr. Andrew O'Brien, Parliament-street, Dublin.

At St. Leonard's Cottage, near Exeter, Mary Emma, eldest child of John Tyrrell, Esq. Barrister-at-Law.

In Athlone, Maria Louisa, wife of William Nelligan, Esq. M. D.

At Belville, near Athlone, Susan Elizabeth, daughter of Gustavus Jones, Esq.

At Darndale, county of Dublin, Mrs. Gogarty, wife of Francis Gogarty, Esq.

In John-street, in this City, on Monday night, in his 23d year, of consumption, induced by influenza, Mr. Thomas Tyrrell, Organist of Eunis. He bore a protracted illness with a resignation truly becoming a pious and exemplary christian.

In Upper William-street, Mrs. Purcell, widow of the late Mr. John Purcell, Architect.

At Brooklawn, aged 83 years, Patrick Hyland, Esq. for forty years a merchant of the city of Dublin.

At Chatham, Margaret, wife of Captain Webb, R. M.

At Bordeaux, where she was residing for the benefit of her health, Miss Lattin, sister to Patrick Lattin, of Morris-town Lattin, in the county Kildare, Esq.

At Taunton, Eliza, widow of Lieut.-Col. Combe, and daughter of the late General Barclay, R. M.

At Oakhampton, Olivia, daughter of the late Lieutenant-General Strickland, R. M.

At Boulogne, of cholera, Lady Graves, relict of Lord Graves, who committed suicide some time since.

At Rotterdam, aged 79 years, the Rev. James Anderson, D. D. Emeritus Minister of the National Scottish Church in that city.

In India, Lieut. J. C. Ross, 48th Regiment, son of the late Colonel Ross, 25th Regiment.

Lieutenant and Quartermaster Jenkins, Queen's Royals, Bombay.

domestic purp

Composed of and calcined highly service
acidity, flatu mended as an Bottles, 2s. 6d.
Fluid Extr

For the imm
rior to the me
This extract
salt of Sarsapa
It is highly es
Scrofula and c counteract the @ 8s. each.

Tonice
This Tinctu
petite, and ma recovering fro
the constitutio

B Carefully pr is highly este with Sarsapar
purifier and su
Is. 6d. each.

Famil
Those Pill
teemed a safe ness, &c. Th be taken at al

Citro
This highly efficacious dra particularly r accessible at season, it cla draught.—In dicine in repu
for the sale of
and NICOLLA Pickles.

17 T
A T a Me held at 7, the followi
WILL
Mr. O'Har Proposed by

Resolved—the exertions