

LIEUTENANT POE.

THE DUBLIN EVENING PACKET. Marcourt-street, 13th Nov. 1833. In the Evening Packet of Saturday Poe, I own that I felt struck with exceeding. The facts that I have Poe had hitherto conducted him—military and civil life as an officer the extraordinary occurrence which vessel returning from Calcutta to ed Ross misses from his trunk a £5 ings. Suspicion suspects (if I may) Mr. Poe as the thief; and, on d, some silk stockings are found, himself to say are his. Mr. Poe an at a Chinese Bazaar. It is re- e is not traced to his possession; n board ship not only consign him nder of the voyage, but demand, on a Court-martial at Chatham, which n guilty, and cashier him—a sen- d by the highest authority. Now, stion the propriety of the investiga- sposed to agree with Mr. Price, Mr. eared and applied for a prohibition Bench in England, in this very ence, inasmuch as the crime which ith was a felony, and not within ny Act or the Articles of War.— retted that Mr. Price was not em- ge of the proceeding, so as to have

Mr. Price's attention to the first chap- ection: xi, in these words—"When- mitted officer, or soldier shall s crime, or of having used violence, against the person or property of the ishable by the known laws of the icer of every regiment, troop, or com- n so accused shall belong, is hereby use his best exertions to deliver over Magistrate, so as that he may be to law." Had Mr. Poe been so in England, he would have had a nal conversant of criminal proceed- e had the benefit not only of legal e presiding Judge, who is constitu- risoner; and lastly, the humanity in all probability, have returned a a young gentleman be saved to his This is my humble opinion, and I without any reserve.—Your obedient

ISAAC BURKE BETHEL.

Drama was revived in this City under auspices most flattering to and the character which a Lime- a natural good taste, and encourage- rely, it is true, appears before them. e Opera; but the lion of the night The boxes presented a splendid on, while the pit and gallery fully s of the hearty welcome which this ived from every part of the house. of Madame D'Arberti are very pre- Piano Forte, and occasionally the her in the Italian pieces.—The n that celebrated modern composer, euted in the most brilliant style.— s of her voice are powerful indeed, d cultivation which that voice has -thrilling notes which characterise accomplished lady, could leave no us critic in vocal music, ungratified. ole scale with infinite ease from the deep tenor, always sweet full and arshness, but great variety in every etly marked, rapid as the passages her voice at one instant swells on heart in delicious strains of music,

DEATHS.

This morning at the Crescent, very much lamented, Alderman Nicholas Mahon. He served the office of Sheriff in 1796, and Mayor of this City in 1826.

At Tipperary, after a short illness, on Thursday morning, the Rev. William Massy, a magistrate of this county.

At the Glebe-house, Aghada, William D. Adams, Esq. son to the Rev. Charles Robert Adams. He held the situation of Second Master in H. M. ship St. Vincent, and was the third son whom his afflicted parent lost in the service.

On Monday, the 11th inst., at his house in Leeson-street, Dublin, in the 75th year of his age, Jacob Geoghegan, Esq. As a father, a friend, and a Christian, his memory will long be revered by a numerous family, and by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

In Stephen's-green, Catherine, relict of the late Arundel Caulfield Best, Esq. of Best Villa, county Carlow, and Clone House, county Kilkenny. She survived her brother, Philip Newton, Esq. only three weeks.

In Ely-place, Dublin, Alicia Rothwell, relict of John Rothwell, Esq. of Staffordstown, county Meath.

On the 31st ult. at Loemers House, Hemel Hempstead, in his 79th year, E. John Collett, Esq. deeply regretted.

At Pointzpass, of cholera, Mr. James M'Connell, of Tanderagee, in the county Armagh.

At Kildare, county Dublin, Maria Elizabeth, daughter of Richard Townsend, Esq.

At her son's house, Grafton-street, Dublin, Mrs. De Villeis, aged 66 years, widow of John De Villers, Esq. and sister to the late Major Hamilton Archdall, of the 40th Regiment.

Suddenly, R. S. Guinness, Esq. of Kildare-street, Dublin.

At Kilpoole, county Wicklow, William Ellis, Esq.

Tuesday, at his mother's house, George street, after a lingering illness, deeply regretted by his relatives and friends, John (son of the late Thomas M. Rose, Esq.) Lieutenant h. p. 96th Regiment.

At Aghrim Glebe, county Galway, Bessy, daughter of the Rev. Henry Martin, aged 16 years.

At Hamilton-row, Merrion-square, Dublin, Mary Anne, wife of William White, Esq.

Grace, the wife of the Hon. Robert Leeson, at his house in Ely place, Dublin.

At Purfleet, Swann, son of Lieut.-Colonel Hill, late of the Royal Scots.

At Paington, Devon, William Harvey Hooper, Esq. Secretary of the Royal Hospital, Greenwich.

At Eaton grove, Norwich, Captain Joseph Barwick, R. N. in his 69th year, one of the few remaining companions of his present Majesty in the glorious victory of Camperdown.

At Woburn-farm, near Chertsey, Charles Stirling, Esq. Vice Admiral of the White, aged 74 years.

At West Wrating Park, Cambridgeshire, Charlotte, wife of J. Gibbons, Esq. of Stadwell, Middlesex, and daughter of Sir C. Watson, Bart.

At Clapham Common, aged 74 years, Demetria, relict of the late Captain Hudson.

At Westerham, Kent, aged 85 years, Mrs Jane Collett, relict of the late R. Collett, Esq. Cheapside.

At the Hague, Mr. Richardson, one of the foreign messengers of the British Ministry.

At Stonesfield, the Rev. Walter Brown, Prebendary of Canterbury, and Rector of Stonesfield.

At Taunton, Eliza, daughter of the late General Barclay, Royal Marines; and relict of the late Lieut.-Col. Coombe of the same corps.

At Odessa, General Coble, youngest brother of the Rev. John Coble, of Cheddar, Somersetshire. He was a distinguished officer in the Russian service during the reign of the Empress Catherine II.

FAIRS IN THE ENSUING WEEK.

LIMERICK.—Monday, Ardpatrick, Rathkeale; Tuesday, Ballinvreeny; Thursday, Ardagh.

CLARE.—Monday, Baunroe and Moynoe; Tuesday, Brodagh and Ennistimon; Thursday, Broadford; Friday, Corofin.

CORK.—Monday, Crookstown; Wednesday, Butterant, Connagh, Dromagh, Gooseberryhill, and Milford; Thursday, Donaghmore, Kilworth, Kinsale, and Newmarket; Friday, Kilbritton, and Middleton.

KERRY.—Monday, Killorglin; Wednesday, Nedeem;

WEST OF ENGL
FIRE AND LIFE
ASSURANCE COM
EXETER.

(EMPOWERED BY ACT OF PARLIAM
Original Capital..... £6
Surplus Capital, exceeding..

TRUSTEES.

Right Hon. Earl Fortesque, Lord Lieutenant of Devon,
Right Honourable Earl Morley,
Right Honourable Lord Clifford,
Sir Thomas Dyke Aekland, Bart. } Members
Edmund P. Bastard, Esq. }
Samuel Frederick Milford, Exer, Esq.

PRESIDENT.

WEARMAN GILFORD, ESQ.

FIRE DEPARTME

Loss paid without Average.

REDUCTION OF RATIO

First Class.....from 2s. to 1s. 6d.
Second Class.....from 3s. to 2s. 6d.
Third Class.....from 5s. to 4s. 6d.

THE Court of Directors of this Company Notice, that they have reduced the Pre- rance as above stated, throughout the Uni- being an immediate abatement, equal to, and than that offered by other Offices.

In addition to the above important advanta- pany adhering to the Return System, affor- benefit of dividing among the Insured one-four- Profits at the expiration of every fifth year, has heretofore averaged 15 per Cent. on the a- miums paid to the Company. The reduction and Periodical Returns being superior to Companies.

LIFE DEPARTME

Insurances are effected on terms most fav- Public, the Premiums having been reduced by Ten per Cent. both on the first and subs- Payments.

ANNUITIES granted and purchased. PREMIUMS due at Midsummer should before Monday, the 8th of July, 1833.

JOHN PIERCY & S
AGEN

OFFICE,

No. 47, George's

Limerick, November 16.

Auction of Sugar

LARGE, ADAMS AND

WILL offer for Sale by Auction, at HORATIO N. SEYMOUR, Commer- LIMERICK, on TUESDAY, the 3d Decembe- o'clock, Fifty Hogsheads TRINIDAD SUG- Terms at Sale, and Deposits required.

H. N. SEYMOUR,

Limerick, November 16.

WELCH SLATE

J. RUSSELL has for Sale at his yard, 150 Tons Superior Slates; 4,500 12 inches, by 12 inches; 4,500 Countesses, 2 1/2 inches.

Those Slates for Color, Evenness, and Co- exceeded, if equalled. This can be seen, than idle assertion.

They will be sold on liberal terms, by ap- Office, Henry-street.

Wanted an Appren

TO THE WOOLLEN DRAPERY B

A Lad of Extensive and respectable Coun