SCRIPTIONS FOR THE FAMILY TE REV. J. COUSINS. crick, (per Rev. J. .............. iscouch ..... ton-street, Dublin, . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . Green, Esq.) ..... , Tullybrackey ... to Treasury) .... ggot-street, Dublin, . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . . J. Douglas ..... v. J. Bennett) .... 0 J. GABBETT, Secretaries. T. WILLIS, H. ROSE, Treasurer. Debtors to be heard at Limerick, on

of December next :- Michael Ryan, ly, do ; Ellen Fitzgerald, widow ; ; Robert Richardson, do.; Denis ony, do.; Martin Ryan, do.; Ed-Edmond Sheehan, farmer; John Costello, blacksmith; John Donar, stonemason; Patrick Culhane, yeo-, farmer; Michael Fitzgerald, do.; .; William O'Sullivan, innkeeper; er; Catherine Fitzgerald, widow; er; Denis Molony, farmer; Thomas ace, dyer; John Mangan, labourer; ioner; John King, spirit retailer; iyer; Charles Dowd, slater; and t Debtors to be heard at Ennis, on of December :- James Browne, do. ; Darby Aughlim, do. ; John ladden, do. ; Patrick Aughlim, do. ; Ennis, county Clare, brewer, lately of "Burton, D'Arcy, and Co." rien, late of Denmark-street, city t, trading under the firm of O'Brien merchants; Michael M'Namara, rman, do.; Patrick Cussen, do.; mason ; James Hogan, farmer ; ; and James Bourke, carpenter. LIP -The patent for this admirable ed in Scotland; but it will be seen that the patentee continues to cond scarcely add, that he is able to s well, and as cheaply, as any other inprovements like this, it is much to nch time is lost in making them brought into use, that the inventor beginning to reap the fruits of his pires. Such has been Mr. Morton's us the report of a Parliamentary 1832, when he endeavoured to get t though it was admitted that he ely remunerated, the Government, inciple of patents, did not consider to his proposal. The evidence as e Slip was most conclusive. Mr. Harwich, states, that by the old a ship for repair would cost £170, he can do it for £3, and in a far with more safety. A Slip answers than a dry dock, and costs but one-The fact that the enormous mass n be hauled up on dry land, beyond at the rate of four or five feet per nteresting truth in mechanics. The

I by the Americans; we mean that ted without any fee to Mr. Morton, it, it has been patented by some invention.

DEATHS.

In William street, Mr. Patrick Kelly, Post-chaise Proprietor.

At Annadale, near Killorglin, Kerry, William Lang rd. Esq.

At Aughrim Glebe, county Galway, Bessy, daughte of the Rev. Henry Martin.

In Portarlington, Mr. Jumes Russell, Saddler, for many years Coach Agent in that town.

At Lurgan, county Armagh, aged 72 years, William Burke, Esq. Solicitor:

At Lissadell House, Caroline S. Gore Booth, only daughter of Sir Robert Gore Booth, Bart.

At Kingstown, aged 72 years, the Rev. Edw. Contest Ellen, second daughter of Charles Mills, Esq. of Cuffestreet, Dublin.

At Clifton, near Bristol, of consumption, Caleb Heary O'Callaghan, Esq. aged 22 years, second son of the late Henry O'Callaghan, Esq. of the county Clare, and of Upper Rutland-street, Dublin.

After a protracted illness, Mary, wife of John N. St. Giorgio, Solicitor, of Mount-Pleasant Crescent, Dublin.

In Merrion-square, Dublin, Lady Anne, wife of William Gregory, Esq.

On Wednesday last, at his house, Garryclogher, near Nenagh, Mr. Michael Hanley, aged 84, and a few hours after Mary, his wife, aged 66,-sincerely regretted by their family and a numerous circle of acquaintances.

Miss Margaret Roberts, of Waterford.

In Harcourt-street, Dublin, Henrietta, Caughter of the late John Hackett, Esq. Stratford-place

In Market-street, Cork, Anne, wife of Mr. George Devilt. At Cove, aged 20 years, Miss Fanny Peirce, niece of Frederick Prangnall, Esq. Hood view, Kilworth.

At Grouse Lodge, Kerry, David Fitzgerald, Esq. Attorney at Law.

In Cork, Denis M'Carthy, Esq. an extensive Butter Merchant, of that City.

At Glenview, county Waterford, the infant daughter of Pierse Marcus Barron, Esq.

At Belfast, of water on the chest, Thomas Craig, Esq. Officer of Excise.

At his house in Euston-square, London, Alex. Riley, Esq. In Upper Harley-street, London, Mary, the wife of Lieut .-Colonel Henderson.

At her mother's residence, in East-place, Lambeth, Lontion, aged 15 years, Mary Maria, youngest daughter of the late Charles Husey, Esq.

In London, Lieut .- General Sir Kenneth Douglas, Bart. Colonel of the 58th Regiment, and formerly Lieut.-Colonel of the 52d.

At the house of the Duke de Bruglio, in Paris, Miss Fanny Randall, sister to Charles Randall, Esq of Norfolk.

Miss Harriet Tucker, at her residence in Gloucester-place, Portman-square, London.

At Woodford, Essex, in the 61st year of his age, Charles Waite, Esq. M. D late of the 83d Regiment.

During the late awful gales in the East Indies, Septimus Edward Atkinson, of the Hon. Company's Bengal Marines, youngest son of the late Thomas Atkinson, Esq. London.

Mr. Joseph Newell, of Whitecross-street, Cripple-gate, London. He was the author of several works on the liberties and privileges of the Citizens of London. In Charlotte-street, Portland-place, London, Mary Jane, wife of Lieut.-Colonel Patrick Campbell, C. B. late 52d Light Infantry. At the house of her son-in-law, Captain Simmons, R. A.

London, aged 77, Anna, relict of John Perry, Esq. for many years a member of the House of Assembly in Jamaica. At Kensington, Deborah, widow of Thomas S. Evans, Esq. L.L.D. In London, aged 75, Mr. Callow, the father of the medical booksellers. He was the head of the firm of Callow and Wilson, of Princes-street, Solio, in the house now occupied by Mr. Churchill.

At Edinburgh, Jane, wife of William Horsman, Esq. and daughter of the late Sir John Hamilton Dalrymple, Bt. of Consland.

AUCTION OF HOUSEHOLD FURA HORSES, JAUNTING-CAR,

TE LIMERIUM U

HARNESS-PIANO FORT TO BE SOLD BY AUCTION, on T 28th inst. and succeeding days at No

the residence of the late JOHN PARKER, Es of the entire House, comprising-Parlour, and Bed-room Chairs, Dinner, Breakfast, Dressing Tables, Sofa Bedsteads, Sofas and Forte, Carpeting, an excellent Time Piece, Curtains, some truly valuable Oil Paint (elegantly framed), Fenders and Fire Iron Stair Rods, Chimney Ornaments, and Sidebo and Guardavines, Chest of Drawers, Basin Glass, and a very large Dinner Service of Articles of Plate and Plated Ware, Kniv Shower-Bath, Dumb Waiter, Bedsteads Palliusses, and Mattrasses, a number of ex Beds, Blanketting, Sheeting, and Table Li Books, Ment Safe-a great quantity of Kitch Also, 2 good Draft Horses, a choice Mare, ( good roadster, rising four,) a Jaunting-Ca Harness, &c. &c. &c.

Terms at Sale to commence at 12 each GEORGE R. CROW 15, George's November 27.

L To be Sold, FOUR year old CHESNUT MARE out of a very well bred mare, by Das Guineas. And a three year old COLT, by Guineas-out of the same dam, a well know huntress with Mr. Tuthill's hounds. Also, a Detonating GUN, by John Man new-price £35; cost £60. May be seen at Yard, on Saturday.

Limerick, N

PUBLIC THAN THE Gentlemen of the Community of Convent pray leave to return their n deep felt thanks to their Fellow Cirizers, for ing favors received at their hands in behalf on Sunday last.

To their Protestant and Dissenting fellow beg to return their best acknowledgements liberal support given on this as many like oc

To Miss FORDE and Mr. MELROSE, who offered the valuable aid of their gratuitous day the Gentlemen of the Chapel tender thanks.

They feel truly grateful to Colonel HAILE nity, and for the handsome manner in which mitted the attendance of the excellent ban Regiment. Captain GIBBONS also deser thanks for allowing them the effective aid of 60th. And they cannot refrain from express acknowledgements to Mr. MAGRATH who pianoat the Oratorio on Sunday last, as also to M Master of the 28th band, and to Mr. FOGOL their gratuitous aid on the occasion.

Limer

NOTICE County of Limerick, ) TS hereby given, To Wit. Pierse Cruise,

- Barrister for said Co suance of an Act of Parliament, him there has, by Warrant under his hand and seal bear instant, appointed Michael Lynch, jun. of the Barony of Clanwilliam, to be a Proces for said County.

Peace Office, 25th November, 1833. WILLIAM CONNELL, I

NOTICE.

County of Limerick, N pursuance of a To Wit. liament passed 4th Wm, the 4th, ( 9, entituled "An Act for Consolidating

" the Laws relative to Jurors and Juries

FRESH ARRIVALS