

of the Castlebar
the Jury have found ed for the office of d to investigate the utmost virulence in e counties Armagh was so seriously inon Sunday last, as n upon the opening e worthy Curate of ion enjoyed by the
the Church Living
nal.
will certainly fix his ingular that in the e one resident Dig-Bashel, Dr. Adams, have resolved upon
act.
; Killeen, County
ave appealed to the ssioners composition p of Waterford, has Catholic Curate of sion of the house and
P. deceased, to Mr.
also having claimed ented the Rev. Mr.
l Affane, vacant by l of emigrants has xchange books was
of last year.
been exported hence
cial communications, st-office at Dromcolnd that his Lordship ce against any loss napel beg to return unraven, the Right
and William Roche,
st Sunday.
reference to a para-
that Mr. John Scott is son of the late e Militia, formerly

At the residence of the Chief Justice of Upper Canada, Captain Ogden Creighton, (formerly of the 81st Regt.), to Eleanor Eliza, second daughter of the late Henry Dyett, Esq. of London.

DEATHS.

After some days illness, in Francis-street, Mr. John Cooper, master of the schooner Margaret, in this port, last from Oporto, with wines.

In Nicholas-street, Mrs. Kerley, widow.

At Cove, where he had gone for the benefit of his health, Edmond H. Roche, of Killarney, Esq.

Robert Rogers, Esq. one of the High Constables of Cork.
Mr. Rogers was in the morning quite well, and pursuing his usual business about that city, but feeling himself indisposed, he was obliged to return home, and in a few minutes after,
expired.

At Hillsborough, aged 80 years, the Rev. J. Henderson.

In Derry, Sidney, third daughter of the late William Lecky, of that city, Esq.

Aged 84 years, Ezekiel Graham, Esq. for upwards of 50 years a respectable merchant of Derry.

In Harcourt-street, Dublin, Henrietta, third daughter of the late John Prendergast Hackett, of Stratford-place, London.

At Auburn, Athlone, Maria, eldest daughter of John Bruce, Esq. aged 23 years.

At her house in Great George's-street, Dublin, Lady Catherine Creighton, daughter of the late Earl of Erne.

Maria, the wife of Edward Harte, Esq. of Duirow, and eldest daughter of Charles Harte, Esq. of Tenderry, county Tipperary.

At York-place, Lambeth, John Scott, Esq. aged 75 years.

In London, Lieut. Charles Kerr Dow, R. N.

Thomas Stone, Esq. M. D. of Newington-place, Surrey.

At New Grange, Leeds, T. Benyon, Esq. for many years a Deputy-Lieutenant and Magistrate for the West Riding of York.

At Paris, of the small-pox, Alicia Caroline, daughter of James Coppinger, Esq.

At Bury St. Edmund's, on his way to London, after an illness of two days, the Rev. Daniel Petteward, M. A. of Trinity College, Cambridge, and Rector of One-house and Great Finborough, Sussex, aged 70 years.

At St. Heliers, Jersey, John Burke, A. B. T. C. D. eldest son of Dr. Burke, of London, late of Dublin, aged 23 years.

At Ilford, near Christ Church, Hauts, the son of Captain George Duff.

At Worthog, the Rev. Mr. Wooly, many years Head Master of Rugby School.

At St. Lucia, Lieut.-Colonel J. Marrett Stephens

The Rev. Richard Cox, Methodist Missionary to Western Africa.

At Belgaum, Captain T. Gordon, Assistant Adjutant-General of the Southern Division of the Bombay army.

Mr. Andrew Picken, the author of several popular works, at his house, Park village east, London.

"Sir,
of your
an elasti
hesitatio constituc
to 2 no
stufing
to as t
"Pro
to be not vil tried

To A
be seen
M

MIL
N. B. are inva
Compos
tached
all the VENS
PUMP
HALL.
County
9, enti
"it
Spe
of sion
nex
on all per
By Quarte
respect
Cou