

Rev. B. Lucas Cubitt, son of George Cubitt, Esq. of Catfield, Norfolk, to Emma, youngest daughter of Francis Holyoake, Esq. Tettenhall, Staffordshire.

DEATHS.

William Smyth, Esq. of Ballylin, in this County,—several years a very efficient Magistrate and Grand Juror. He was a kind landlord and a steady friend, and is deeply regretted by his numerous and respectable friends.

Yesterday morning, William Sexton, Esq. many years Lieutenant Limerick City Regiment, and son of the late Alderman George Sexton, of this City.

Tuesday, at Mount Rivers, County Tipperary, (the seat of her son-in-law), Mrs. Holland; relict of William Holland, Esq. late of this City, daughter of Standish Grady, of Lodge, in this County, Esq. and sister of Henry Deane Grady, Esq. Merrion-square, Dublin. She bore a short, but painful illness with pious resignation and Christian fortitude.— Faithful in the discharge of the relative duties of this life, she calmly resigned to her Redeemer a life spent in virtue and integrity, fully trusting for salvation only through his merits.

The Rev. David Kenny, P. P. of Kilraghtish, co. Clare.

E. J. Collett, Esq. late M. P. for Cashel.

On the Grand Parade, Cork, aged 14 years, Eliza, daughter of Mr. Michael J. Barry.

At Naas, county Kildare, of cholera, aged 61 years, Captain Benjamin Carter, of the Royal Navy.

At Lisburn, aged 49 years, William Cupples, Esq. eldest son of the Rev. Dr. Cupples, Vicar-General of Down and Connor.

Joseph Furlong Harding, aged 18 years, second son of George Harding, Esq. of Cherry-hill, Cork.

In Stephen-street, Waterford, Mr. Michael Power.

At Rathmines, aged 36 years, the Rev. Christopher Elias Costello, of the Carmelite Convent, Aungier-street, Dublin.

In Dublin, Mr. John M'Laughlen, of Black horse-lane.

At Mill Park, Dublin, Joseph Christie, Esq. a member of the Society of Friends.

In Belfast, Miss Dorcas Louisa Bland, second daughter of the late Captain Humphrey Bland, and niece to the late General Bland.

At Millbrook, near Crossmoline, Robert Orme, Esq. for many years a member of the Grand Jury of the Co. Mayo

At Kilmarnock, Deputy Assistant Commissary-General Robert Wylie.

At Pitheairly, Captain Cathcart, of Carbiston, R. Navy.

At Walmer, aged 17 years, Ebba Georgiana, youngest daughter of Sir Thomas and Countess Augusta Baker.

In London, James Lock Cartwright, Esq. aged 68 years.

Harriet, wife of G. Hale, Esq. of Uxbridge, and granddaughter of the late Lord Chief Justice Willies.

At Ashurst Park, Kent, William Fowler Jones, Esq.

At Forty-hill, Enfield, Miss Mary Farren, aged 64 years.

In Walcot-place, London, the Right Hon. Lord Viscount Kingsland, Baron Turvey. The late Peer married thrice, and has issue by his first wife an only son, John, the present Viscount; by his two last wives he has no issue. The title is an Irish one, and not that of a Peer of Parliament.

The Rev. J. M. Rice, of the Royal Crescent, Brighton.

At Ballogie, Aberdeenshire, aged 86, the Rev. H. Innes, Roman Catholic Clergyman.

At Woolwich, Miss E. G. Maclean, third daughter of the late Captain Maclean, of the 40th Regiment.

order in which we government of the Sc Indentures of the C and believe to be per reluctance, on the pa accounts to the overse contrary, an anxiety they required. We a been any but a prop books of this valuable convinced the Manag We also visited, at compose the property in the Old Town of they are set for an rents of which we s collected with difficul

We also visited this in company with the everything connected

JA
Commis
W
Chaplain

N. B.—It may be sa the number of person comprise, 24 women, a Master, School Mistres after four years' edu papers, ink, &c. are a guineas each.

I believe the forego look upon Mr. M'Ada is such, that anything honorably and consci

December 5.

DEAR SIR—In answ tion to the report of my which appeared in the as given before the Co I beg to state that the sion is not correctly giv spirit with what appea certainly said that I ask them; but I never me manager refused to pro I was Chief Magistrate produce them, and to have ever since pressed with you and examine

To Thomas H. M'Ac
* There is no such Report—EDITOR.