

be armed and protected himself ould, no doubt, have been mur-served notice to register the nty Clare, at Ennis Sessions the orough.

edford Row, on Friday night, , we inadvertently omitted to gines present that of the Sun Edward Murphy, Esq. which e assistance in subduing the cene until the fire was wholly Limerick, was on Friday duly e Apothecaries' Hall of Ireland, ateria Medica, Medical Botany, ractice of Physic; and received profession of an Apothecary.— MADDEN, Sec.

ewell, Liverpool, merchant, e, at the Clarendon Buildings, rs. Radcliffe and Duncan, Lington, Gregory, and Faulkner,

No. 2.—“One of the strongest ust punishing with Death any s furnished by Doctor Johnson e Rambler, No. 114. To equal serves, is to reduce murder to nion minds the gradations of mission of a greater crime to s. So of burglary, and some

NEWS OF LIMERICK.

arry's Mall, 10th December. al severity of the weather, the than usual, is I believe, the d sickness so prevalent among necessary for me to say, that I erous and pressing calls made ple of this County and City in nful to me to address you on ng the situation I do among a ent any longer, and witness the d sickness before my eyes. It many of the poor are immoral, nds, whilst God in his inscru-punishment of such miscreants are neither drunkards nor bad w afflicted with evils almost sick without beds or bed-mp cellars, bleak garrets, and drink water, their food a few a farthing to purchase it, the hilst it is to them a temporary sery on their afflicted families. ellow-citizens, drawing on my am no speculative minister of ith whom I have the honor of try, spend our nights and days are seldom equalled and never atures are our fellow-citizens, nage of the living GOD; and, ilst rioting in health, have dis-still we should recollect, that relieving an enemy, and Jesus of his blessed protection and an adulteress.—If disposed to alls for charity, let us, for a e of those enjoyments (I will n we are wont to indulge, and assistance to those who if left ond the reach of our neglect Judge, to whom we must all ardships. Sickness, which is he poor, will, if left unheeded, mansions of the wealthy, and a fellow-creature to piue and Gentlemen,

at humble Servant, RAGHT, V. P. St. Mary's. be thankfully received by ge's street.

to Frances Maria, eldest daughter of the late Major George Bean, Royal Horse Artillery.

DEATHS.

At Ryde, Isle of Wight, Mrs. Lemon, relict of the late Mr. Lemon, of Bath, and sister to the late Lord Muskerry.
This Lady was possessed of immense property, a considerable portion of which we are happy to hear will devolve to her nephew, the present Lord Muskerry, now residing at his seat, Springfield Castle, county Limerick.

In Dominick-street, after a few hours sickness, Mr. John Kirby, Officer of Excise in this district.

After a long illness, Mr. Peter Morrisson, Officer of Excise, in this City.

In Roche's-street, Mr. William Brennan, Spirit Retailer, deservedly regretted by his relatives and numerous friends.

In Dominick-street, after a few days' illness, Mr. Patrick Thomas Tuohy, many years Deputy Clerk of the Peace for this City.

In Killrush, Margaret, wife of Captain Charles Smith, Commander of the Clarence Steamer, sincerely and deservedly regretted.

Susan, daughter of George Cotter, Esq. of Cork.

On the North Mall, Cork, Sarah J. Deaves, relict of the late John Deaves, merchant, of that city.

At Knockglass, county Kerry, Mrs. Curry, relict of the late John Curry, Esq. aged 78 years.

At Sunday's Well, Cork, Callaghan Holmes, Esq.

At Newtownsmith, Galway, after a very painful and protracted illness, which she endured with the resignation of a Christian, Harriett, wife of Michael Browne, Esq. of Woodstock, in the county Mayo.

In Nile-street, Mardyke, Cork, Mr. Edmund Nash, aged 70 years.

At Bandon, Mr. George Sullivan.

At Broom-hill, Mitchelstown, John Fitzgibbon, Esq. formerly an extensive Butter Merchant of Cork.

Mr. Pierce Hayes, of Three-Mile-Bridge, Waterford.

At Penzance, aged 19, Frances Louisa, eldest daughter of Colonel William Napier.

At Cassino Lodge, county Longford, John Walter Scott, Esq. 86th Regiment. The premature death of this esteemed young officer was occasioned by disease contracted while serving with his Regiment in the West Indies. He has left a beloved wife and three children to mourn his loss.

At his house in Blessington-street, Dublin, John Darby, Esq.

In Boyle, Catherine, wife of Mr. John Foy—and William, son of Mr. Howard, Cloth-merchant.

In Carlow, Mary, wife of Mr. Daniel O'Brien, merchant, and a member of the Society of Friends.

At Ballynabinch, aged 38 years, Mary Ann, wife of the Rev. James McClelland.

At Haystown, county Dublin, aged 82 years, Walter Bickard, Esq.

At Mount-Pelier Parade, of consumption, Oliver Ledlie, second son of the late Wm. G. Ledlie, Esq. of the 90th Regt.

At Clifton, Fanny Porter, youngest daughter of the late Bishop of Clogher.

In his 91st year, Sir William Macleod Bannatyne.

In Londonderry, at the advanced age of 82, Mr. Charles Boyle, for many years a respectable inhabitant of that city.
Since the revolution of 1688, he was the first Catholic that was permitted to reside within the walls of Derry. His son, the Rev. Charles Boyle, of Annesley bridge, Dublin, was the first Roman Catholic Priest that was born and educated in Derry during the above period.

At Carlsruhe, Albinia, second daughter of Sir Edward C. Disbrowe, G. C. H. of Walton-hall, Derbyshire, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of Stockholm.

At Lees, near Coldstream, Sir Charles Majoribanks, Bt.
M. P. for the county of Berwick.

At Belgaum, East Indies, Lieutenant Thomas Sydenham Kennedy, Bombay Engineers, second son of the late Alex.
Kennedy, Esq. of the Madras establishment.

At Hoteombe-house, near Minchinghampton, county of Gloucester, aged 49, Sarah, wife of Henry Fletcher, Esq. many years a Captain in the 77th Regiment.

At his house in London, of scarlet fever, on Thursday last Lord Viscount Exmouth.

At Lambeth, aged 23 years, William Henry Nelson, youngest son of the late Colonel Siride, 12th Regiment.

At Barahill, Kildare, Captain John Hill, aged 90 years.

At Glasgow, Professor Millar.

Limerick, on Monday, the 23d day which all persons concerned are he Notice.

EDW

C. Pe

City of Limerick Peace Office, December 11, 1833.

*Abstract of the Act for Amending Jurors and Juries in Ireland, &c.
Chap 91.*

QUALIFICATIONS OF

Every person, not entitled to the future section of the Act, between years and sixty years, residing in any have in his own name or in trust for city, &c. Ten Pounds by the year, abor tenements—or in rents issuing of lands, tenements, or rents, taken tog-Tail, or for his own life, or the life person or persons—or who shall have city, &c. Fifteen Pounds by the ye lands or tenements held by Lease or for a term of not less than twenty-one minable on any life or lives or not;
merchant, freeman, and householder tenements in any city, town, or bor-said county, of the clear yearly valu such city, town, or borough not being be qualified, with respect to property Juries for the trial of all issues in Record, and in all Courts of Assize Terminar, and Gaol Delivery—suc-being triable in the county in which respectively shall reside; and shall liable to serve on Grand Juries and Courts of Session of the Peace, in th persons so qualified shall reside; thereinafter exempted) being betwee tioned, residing in any county of a ci and qualified as already stated; a merchant, freeman, and householder ments, or personal estate, of the va Pounds, shall be qualified and liable any of the Superior Courts of Recor Assize, Nisi Prius, Oyer and Termin within the city or town in which suc (Sec. 1.)

EXEMPTIONS.

All persons coming within the c following are declared to be Exemp and from serving on any Juries or In All peers; all judges of the King Dublin; all Clergymen in holy or shall teach or preach in any relig sergeants and barristers at law actual tant barristers; all judges of eccles vocates in ecclesiastical courts or in actually practising; all attornies, soli admitted in any court of law or equit admiralty jurisdiction, in which a proctors have usually been admitted, having duly taken out their annual of any such courts, or of any court actually exercising the duties of thei public notaries duly admitted; all keepers of houses of correction; all of the King and Queen's college of actually practising, and all other phy-ing; all surgeons, being members of of surgeons in London, Edinburgh, o practising; all apothecaries certifie aminers of the governor and company of the city of Dublin, and actually in his Majesty's navy or army on f customs and excise; all sheriffs' offic and parish clerks; all postmasters g ties, and all other persons employed a of his Majesty's post-office; all tre grand juries, and all persons exempt b tion, charter, grant, or writ, shall c exemption.—(Sec. 2.)

Aliens, except on Juries de medi outlaws, &c. are disqualified.—(Sec.