

...ve been particularly successful in ately shipwrecked at Ballybumion, l in getting up from the peasantry, popular, five-punchions of whiskey, of butter. Mr. Crosbie has also n, detected in the act of plundering

...n Wednesday, the case of Mr. Jacob Beech, for assault, was dismissed. ered against Timothy Gallagher Mr. James Colgan, Patrick-street.

Corbett and Parr, were brought on complaint made by the Mayor to that they had not retained in their Worship had given in charge to ne late fire in Bedford-row. The Bench that he did not mean to enter this matter at present, but in case a similar nature, he felt it imperaat the Police and public generally at, as Chief Magistrate of the City, erson for the security of the lives and and that he should not, in the ex-important a duty, be interrupted or in the discharge of this serious trust. fire, he had taken upon himself to ut the aid of military bayonets, in ight play with freedom on the flames, r of any collision with the crowds f great excitement and confusion. usion, that the two Policemen now be visited with any penalty, but ates would admonish them as instruc-uct in such cases. The Police were

...ndividual who furnished the Report e which appeared at length in the we learn from him that the obloquy the character of the Overseers by a those Gentlemen on visiting a pub-son named M'Namara, arose wholly nd we are truly concerned that so should have inadvertently appeared ow and appreciate the arduous duties to perform as Overseers under the eat personal inconvenience, without we should be deficient in our regard we did not render them our cordial

...sions on Tuesday last, before Henry Esqrs. Magistrates, John Kennedy the Stamp Act, for having, in the cted in the capacity of Game-keeper out having the proper certificate ac-eared that Mr. Lysaght Pennefather on Lord Bloomfield's preserves) met n was he a game-keeper? He re-as employed by the game keeper to the game on the mountains, and told e was on Lord Bloomfield's preserve d that he was there to warn off all ppearing to the Bench that Kennedy breach of the Act, inasmuch as he to the game-keeper at a daily hire, e penalty,—consequently they dis-reat satisfaction of a crowded Court. ennefather's examination, he seemed respectful terms of Lord Bloomfield, he was a bigotted Peer, &c. Upon ened to commit him if he persevered concurrent testimony of the country eful tenantry speak for the character

...Stirling, daughter of Robert Cunynghame, Esq. and granddaughter of the late Sir William A. Cunynghame, Bart. of Milucraig.

DEATHS.

At Bushy Island, in this County, on Tuesday, the 10th instant, aged 72 years, to the deep and unfeigned regret of an highly respectable circle of relatives and friends, Thomas D'Arcy Evans, Esq. eldest son of the Rev.
Thomas Waller Evans, late Rector of Dunmanway, in the County of Cork. In recording the death of this Gentleman, we cannot do justice to the many amiable qualities which endeared him to all those who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. He bore a tedious illness with the resignation of one, whose hope was beyond earthly happiness. Early in life Mr. D'Arcy Evans was called to the Irish Bar, and though he soon relinquished the profession of the law, yet he is remembered by his contemporaries as a man of very superior learning and literary attainments. In him the neighbouring poor have to mourn a kind benefactor.

In Kiltrush, much regretted, Mrs. Hunt, relict of the late Thomas D. Hunt, Esq. and sister of the late Thomas Morony, Esq. Miltown Malbay.

In Nicholas-street, Mrs. Hodges, relict of the late Mr.
Godfrey Hodges, of this City.

At Rockvale-Mills, near Newport, County Tipperary, Mrs. Roache, wife of Mr. Miles Roache, to the deep regret of her family and friends.

Near Newport, on the 3d inst. Anthony Bourke, Esq. aged 70 years—he possessed the most extensive information on almost every subject, and was universally acknowledged to be an intelligent, elegant, and accomplished gentleman.

Suddenly, at Denmark-street, on Thursday morning, Mr.
Patrick O'Brien, spirit retailer.

In Parteen, Mr. Michael Crowe, formerly Sergeant-at-Mace, of this City.

In Askeaton, Mrs Scott, wife to Lieutenant James Scott, late of the 47th Regiment.

In Castlebar Barracks, Joseph Berridge, Esq. senior Lieutenant of the 30th Regiment, caused by a severe cold while on duty.

Ann, second daughter of James M'Crea, Esq. of Londonderry, merchant.

On Monday, Alderman Thomas Dunscombe, of Cork.

At Mitchelstown, Robert, second son of the late Mr.
Robert Slattery, of Tralce.

At Prehen, county Londonderry, Miss Knox, daughter of Lieut.-Colonel Knox.

Lieut.-General Walter Ker, of East Bolton, Northumberland, aged 69 years.

At his house in Kildare-street, Dublin, Bladen Swinny, Esq. aged 75 years.

Near Dublin, Penelope Anne, wife of Lieut.-Colonel Cator, Royal Horse Artillery.

In Galway, Mr. Bartholomew Fahy, shopkeeper.

At New Orleans, Mr. Francis Browne, of Galway.

In Mary-street, Margaret, wife of Mr. John Clanchy, Grocer and Spirit Retailer.

At Drumcar, co. Louth, of putrid fever, Charles M'Clintock, Esq. Captain in the 74th Regiment, son of John M'Clintock, Esq. of Drumcar, in the 27th year of his age.

Mr. Joshua Hobson, of Deighton, near Huddersfield, in the 104th year of his age.

At Carisbrooke, Lieut. Stephen Butcher, R. N. formerly of Plymouth, aged 49 years.

At Woburn, Fitzroy William, the youngest son of Capt.
Sir George F. Seymour.

In London, T. Blackstock, Esq. of Serjeants' Inn, Fleet-street.

In Southampton, Captain J. Lys, Royal Navy.

At the Hasells, Bedfordshire, Francis Pym, Esq. aged 78 years.

...next Sess
last meeti
The fol
For consid
First—should be under the sioners to
Harbour C
Second
them from forming a Thomond
any charg regulation Liverpool me in this sary, as th of accom almost im the presen chants ;
considered the gener Thirdly able unde to the cha this amer able at L Fourth
all other a tonnage what is n
These but when matters n
Assum
for the tr
there can to obtain any respo an saign ed to one be enable imposed o
and uncer
To rais tonnage o
The quay
the water and Mr. J in lieu trade wo fained ch
From
consequ to a gran
I cann
of the Tr report of able, as exceed tonnage 33,489 t tonnage
The re last nine years, be ceeding and oth received grounds
I w