DEATHS.

At his residence, near Henley, Oxfordshire, on the 11th instant, Henry Thomas Parker, Esq. late of the 9th Lancers, and youngest son of the late Anthony Parker, of Castlelough, county Tipperary, Esq.

On Sunday morning, in George's street, aged four years, Henry, eldest son of H. R. Addison, Esq. late of the 2d Dragoon Guards.

Mr. Thomas Lynch, of Ballybricken, near this City, a worthy honest man.

At Bantry, Elizabeth, wife of Mr. J. P. Kingston.

At Doneraile, Miss Christian Hozard, aged 87 years.

In Dublin, after a few days illness, Dorothea, Lady of Captain James Nestor, daughter of the late Bartholomew Macnamara, Esq. and niece to Piersie Creaghe, of Dangan, county Clare, Esq.

Monday, at her house, in Cecil-street, to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends, Margaret D. Carte, relict of the late Edward Carte, Esq. of this County. She died rejoicing in the "knowledge" of her Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

In William-street, at his father's house, Henry Langley Jackson, youngest son of George Jackson, Esq. of this city.

At Lifford, Mrs. M'Beth, wife of Mr. John M'Beth.

Francis, son of the Rev. Thomas Gore, of Mulrankin Glebe, Wexford.

At Wexford, Sarah, daughter of Mr. R. Richardson, of Mountmelick.

At Graigue, Mr. Bennett, Revenue Officer, aged 22.

In Ballyshannon, Miss Marriott, sister-in-law of Henry Duffell, Esq. Supervisor of Excise in that district.

At Dingle, Mrs. Hamilton, relict of the late Mr. John Hamilton, tide-waiter.

At Killarney, Miss Ellen Herlihy, and her niece Miss Catherine Herlihy.

In Fermoy, William Peard, Esq.

At Sunday's Well, Cork, Mr. John B. M'Carthy, Officer of Excise.

After a short illness, at his residence, Aston's-quay, Dublin, T. Melrose, Esq. of the Theatre-Royal, Lower Abbey-street, much regretted by a large circle of friends.

In Great Britain-street, Dublin, John Chisney, Esq. one of the most eccentric enthusiasts in this or in any country.

At Summer-hill, Dublin, Mrs Catherine Brownrigg.

At her lodgings on the Mall, Waterford, aged 39 years, Mrs. O'Leary, wife of John O'Leary, Esq. of the 99th Regiment, and daughter of the late John Evans, Esq. of Moyge, in this County, and sister of Col. De Lacy Evans, M. P. for Westminster—a Lady possessed of every virtue and qualification, which could adorn and ennoble the human mind and character—affectionate, charitable, religious, good in every point of view, in every direction of her duties, and in every enlightened and amiable tendency both of the understanding and of the heart. She died perfectly resigned, in religion—a salutary example to her lamenting friends, of the supreme efficacy of a virtuous, amiable, and religious life, in producing a calm, tranquil, and happy exit from this vale of tears.

At Calcutta, Mary, wife of Lieutenant-Col. Ticknell, C. B. Bengal Engineers.

At Bellary, Madras, of cholera, Captain Brockman, of his Majesty's 55th Regiment.

At Oaklawn House, near Eye, Suffolk, Rear-Admiral Cunningham, K. G. H. aged 78 years.
