

form with a steady step, the Rev. Mr. Bates holding each by the hand. congregated thousands in English. vldging the justice of his sentence; dible tone, he said, "Pray for me, may God bless you all, and protect e. Let me beseech of you, avoid no fear you; if you but take the u will easily do so, but if you do same course that has brought me to e example by my fate, and avoid es or your neighbours. I give my l Jury, to the Officers of the prison ost kindly. I cannot find words to ssy, and my own good Parish Priest, a been constantly with me since I Bless him. Good by, God bless and may the Lord have mercy on concluded Hogan bowed to the mul- Irish language:—"God bless you rs. I hope that none of you will onduct. Take the advice of your and you will not commit any wrong. my charge, I admit that I have now awaits me. But one thing I this, that I never gave Mr. Blood a I was of the party. It is true that I Syngé, and was one of the persons y thank bad advice and bad com- I implore of you again to take the and you will avoid my fate. I for- thank the Judge and Jury, and the I thank sincerely the Rev. Clergy and I beg of you all to pray to the oul."

an) of Limerick, having drawn the rst pulled the drop from Jones, who which he turned round, and pulled a fallen in falling the entire length, man against the front rail, leaving ogan attempted to regain his place no effect, and while all the horrors- sed their indignation at the failure in three or four seconds relieved by e spring another touch, at the same tim. Both died without a struggle, usual time they were cut down, and d in coffins were conveyed to the section.

resented to Baron Smith by the Gentry respectable signatures yesterday. and Grand Jury of Longford, Lord resolved to address Baron Smith. man of the Meath Grand Jury, sworn Trim on Tuesday, when the Learned marks:—"The people were often t became the Judges to point out istance became crime, and to warn on. He was now an old man, yet he he patriarchal age of seventy-five, him: though old, he hoped his in- t. He had never talked party politics ny where else. In private he dis- ench. it was his abhorrence—he had respect. He thanked God, on behalf Bench was pure. He had never, nor ever sullied it. Their motto was—" He would stand up for his order, rights and privileges of the Bench He could not avoid saying less—he say more; he was justified in saying ad not had an opportunity."

ed at Drogheda assizes, where he was honor of the 25th Borderers. There al arising from trades combination.— ignored the bills against two of the ce of killing a ballad-singer.

Institution. The Rev. R. Bourke thankfully acknowledges the receipt of One Pound each from Mrs. Caswell, per Mrs. Paylor, and the Rev. Mr. Laffan, P.P. of Holycross, in aid of the Magdalen Asylum. The donations and subscriptions, hitherto received by the Mayor and Committee for the benefit of the Sick and Indigent Roomkeepers Society, shall appear in our next. The list continues open for further contributions.

DEATHS.

At Curragh, in this County, Catherine, second daughter of Sir Aubrey De Vere, Bart. aged 14 years.

On Tuesday last, in Glentworth-street, aged 93 years, Margaret Holland, relict of the late Rev. Simon Holland, of Sixmile-bridge, county Clare.

On Thursday, at his house in Askeaton, at an advanced age, Carrol Naish, Esq. a gentleman deservedly regretted by his numerous friends and acquaintances.

At Ballyseedy House, Kerry, of decline, Crosbie Blennerhassett, Esq. The death of this young gentleman is a source of great affliction to his numerous and respectable friends and relations.

At Sackville-house, Kerry, of fever, Henry Bowles, Esq. late Captain in the 81st Regiment.

At Killoccrim, county Kerry, aged 80 years, Thomas O'Halloran, Esq.

In North Main-street, Cork, aged 53 years, Mr. Thomas W. Montjoy.

In Ennis, of cholera, Mr. Dennis Conway.

Near Johnstown, county Kilkenny, George Hely, Esq. for many years a Magistrate and Grand Juror of the said County.

In Carrickmacross, Luke O'Reilly, Esq. Surgeon, of Ballyjamesduff, to Maria, eldest daughter of the late Daniel O'Reilly, Esq. M.D.

In Charlemont-street, Dublin, Anna, wife of Charles Bagot, of Kilcoursey House, King's County, Esq. and on the following day, Kate, their infant daughter.

At the Tyrawley Hotel, in Castlebar, Mr. Thomas Horan. Thomas S. Triphook, Esq. of Cork.

At Newport Pratt, aged 16 years, Richard, fourth son of Walter Butler, Esq.

At Belview, Killiney, Helen, eldest daughter of Alex. Boyle, Esq.

Sarah, wife of Humphrey Jones, Esq. Cameron Lodge, Coolock.

Of cholera, at Lisburn, Louisa, the beloved wife of J. Thrail, Esq. and sister of Thomas Lloyd, Esq. of Castle-Lloyd, in this County.

At Cheltenham, Captain Charles Dowson, Paymaster of the 89th Regiment.

At St. Alban's, Elizabeth Dowager Lady Monson.

In Cunningham-place, Regent's Park, Major J. Campbell, late of the 11th Regiment.

In Bulstrode-street, London, the Lady of Lieut.-General Sir George Anson, G.C.B.

At Woolwich, aged 18 years, Cornelius, second son of Colonel Mann, Royal Engineers.

In Wimpole-street, London, Henry Gahagan, Esq.

At Leamington, aged 29 years, the Rev. L. L. Kaye, Rector of Thornton, in Craven.

On his return to England, on account of ill health, Lieutenant Samuel Mallock, of the Bengal Engineers.

Colonel W. H. Wood, commanding at Aracan.

At Newington-green, Mrs. Sarah Browning, relict of the late William Browning, Esq. aged 83 years.

In Shropshire, William Yelverton Davenport, Esq.

At the Prebendal house of the Rev. Evelyn Sutton, Westminster, Letitia, youngest daughter of the Rev. Sir Edward Kynaston, Bart. of Hardwick Park, Salop.

In London, Mr. C. Kramer, master of his Majesty's state band. He was many years master of George the Fourth's fine military band, which he brought to a perfection never surpassed, and seldom equalled. On the death of Mr. Shield, Mr. Kramer was appointed master of the King's state band.

Aged 84 years, Isabella Hamilton, relict of the late Dr. Hamilton, Lord Bishop of Ossory, and sister of Henry W. Wood, Esq. of Rossmead, county Westmeath.

Stradbuck. For particulars as to title &c. apply to J. MASON, George's-street, Limerick, who proposes to the Proprietor, Rev. LUNDY FOOTRELL, Rectory, Dorchester, England. All letters to be addressed to the Proprietor.

29 TO BE SOLD,
A WELL Secured and punctually paid RENT of TWENTY POUNDS per ANNUM out of an excellent House, situated in the New Town, which must ever continue a profitable business. Application at the Chronicle Office.

30 Superb Paper Hangings AND BORDERS—HOUSE PAINTING AND DECORATING.
English Floor Cloth,
No. 41, GEORGE'S-STREET
JOSEPH T. SEYMOUR solicits an inspection of STOCK of PAPER HANGINGS and which will be found to consist of the newest and most fashionable patterns at fair prices.
House Painting and Decorating executed in the style that has hitherto given such general satisfaction. J. T. S. employing experienced and sober workmen.
ENGLISH FLOOR CLOTH, for Hall's and Parlours, in different breadths, Matting, Sweeping Brushes, &c. &c. Limerick.

31 SPRING FASHION LONDON HOUSE,
134, GEORGE'S-STREET
KELLY & CO. beg to acquaint the Gentry of Limerick, that they have from London with a Magnificent Stock of NEW GOODS, CHIEFLY CONSISTING OF Rich Silks and Ducales, French Frilled Shawls, Cotton Hosiery, Lace Veils and Squares, Lace Muslins, Gloves, Ribbons and Handkerchiefs, Foreign Lace, Bombazines, Crapes, &c. &c.
AND A SPLENDID VARIETY OF Tuscan, Berlin, Fancy Straw and Tissue.
N. B.—The above Stock will be ready for sale on Monday, the 3d of March.
London House, Market Street.

32 BOOKS, &c. &c.
C. O'BRIEN, 108, GEORGE'S-STREET, has a large addition to his former very extensive collection, among which are, Boydell's Shakespeare; Strahan's Haughton Gallery; Lycet's Australia; Strahan's Costumes of Great Britain and Ireland; the works of Smollett, Rollin, Gibbon, Robertson, Josephus, Plutarch, Johnson, Blackstone, Masheine, I. Taylor, Goldsmith, Locke, Jones, Flavel, Lightfoot, Shakespeare, Lardner, Scott, Byron, &c. &c. Family and Polylgot Bibles; Oxford Bibles; Prayers and Lessons in great variety; Colours in cakes and boxes; Oil Colours and pigments for Oil Painting; Velvet and Velvet Colours; Work; Prints and Varnishes, and Brushes of all kinds; Lead and Carpet patterns; perforated bull's and London Boards, Screens, Screen hair, Racks, Writing Desks; Work and Drawing Portfolios; Dissected Maps and Puzzles; Books and Ivory Tablets; Albums; Scribbled Books; Ebony and Bronze Ink Stands; Gilt fancy Paper, in great variety; Pencils and Perry's, Brachmah's, and Mordan's Pens, and English, French, Dutch, and Irish Sealing and Slate Pencils; Silk and Gingham Umbrellas; Slates for Drawing; Music Paper and Music Paper and Account Books at unprecedentedly low prices. A large assortment of elegant bound books, and a collection of Children's books, not to be sold elsewhere.
O'BRIEN would take a respectable journey or Apprentice.
Limerick.