DEATHS.

At Woodpark, the seat of Thomas Devitt, Esq. William Humphrys, Esq. of Clare-street, sincerely regretted by his numerous friends and connexions. His loss is a source of deep affliction to his immediate family, to whom he was an affectionate protector.
 At his residence Belcamp House, county Dublin, aged 70 years, Charles Stewart Hawthorn, Esq. formerly member in the Imperial Parliament for Downpatrick. He vacated his seat on being appointed Chief Commissioner of his Majesty's Board of Excise in Ireland. By his death a large pension reverts to the Crown.
 Mr. John Carmody, of this City, Commissioner for taking Affidavits and special bail.
 At Ennis, on Monday, of cholera, much regretted, Mrs.
 England, wife of David Arthur England, Esq.
 At Ennis, of cholera, on Monday, Anna Maria Hewitt, daughter of the late Thomas Hewitt, Esq. and niece to the late Chief Justice Patterson.
 In Baker-street, London, Richard Power, Esq. of Clash-more House, Waterford, aged 54 years, formerly Representative for that county in many successive Parliaments.
 In Dublin, the Rev. Jas. Curren, of Meath-street chapel, after a long and painful illness.
 At Revenue-row, Galway, Mr. John Doyle, Apothecary.
 Patrick Browne, Esq. formerly Secretary to the County
 Galway Grand Jury.
 Catherine, wife of John Pyne, Esq. of Cottage, county
 Cork.
 At Kanturk, Ellen, youngest child of Mr. James Finn.
 In Ballina, aged 24 years, Campbell, eldest son of John Hearne, Esq.
 At Westport, Mr. Thomas Shuffell, of Castlebar.
 Aged 73 years, Charlotte Martha Bunn, wife of Benjamin Bunn, Esq. of Lower Mount-street, Dublin, formerly Paymaster in the 39th Regiment.
 At Stockport, Margaret, daughter of Serjeant-Major William Miller, depot 34th Regiment.
 At Easterlands, near Wellington, Somerset, the Rev. T
 Bellett, some years Curate of the parish of Ballymodan, in Bandon.
 At Walthamstow, Essex, Mrs. George Wigram, youngest daughter of Mr. and Lady Theodosia Bligh, and niece to the Earl of Darnley, the Marquis of Londonderry, and the Dowager Countess of Roden.
 At Chatham, aged 30 years, Lieut. Serjeantson, R. N.
 In Brunton-street, Berkeley square, London, the Right Hon. Charles Philip Yorke, second son of the late, and half brother to the present Earl of Hardwicke, one of his Majesty's Privy Councillors, one of the Tellers of the Exchequer, F. R. and S. A. &c. and heir presumptive to title and family estates of the Earl of Hardwicke. By his death the situation of one of the Tellers of his Majesty's Exchequer becomes vacant—the salary of which is £4,000 per annum. The Hon. Captain Yorke, by his uncle's demise, becomes heir presumptive to the Earldom of Hardwicke.
 At Woodside Cottage, near Lynington, Charles Stanser, Esq. late Lieut.-Colonel of the Royal Marines.
