

ing Mr. O'Connell's the Address to county, last night, a was murdered outside out under pretence of in imparting instructhe neighbourhood of supported by voluntary on the public road last Dromod, three miles a serious riot occurred and Sheas, in which was killed.
 Robert Baker, Esq. of eked while the family unheavoured to effect an Baker's steward, they several shots through ular inquiry upon the e Upper Shannon, near e and a detachment of ree or four of the former valent in town.
 rictualler, is committed his daughter.
 at Passage, Cork, on buried at the expense His funeral was most sing Barrister at Bruff, s on Wednesday, after ctions were made to the ally against Frederick claims were reduced by s allowed.
 ll afford vast patronage will have a Receiver of s Woods and Forests.
 e Church Million Act, s informal, must return
 t.
 Commissioners, sat in no objection to any of of Belturbet, has been the diocess of Kilmore, William Percy; another tions discharge of the erlooked in this diocess, votion of twenty-three the several diocesses of s now met its reward.
 ne Member for South a religious visit to the He is accompanied by se, during the last two n order to proceed to as announced from the ector who sold his vote he bribe.
 iest having closed the repeal the Union and sion by force, and the
 for the benefit of the ller of Denmark-street unwholesome state for vanced, to the friends of d indeed to such of our pit oratory, to learn that ach in the Franciscan
 'elock.

of Colonel Green, of the 20th Regiment.
 At Besborough-house, Cavendish-square, London, is Earl of Kerry, eldest son of the Marquess of Lansdowne, the Hon. Augusta Ponsonby, second daughter of Viscount and Viscountess Duncannon.

DEATHS.
 At Mayne House, in this County, on Monday last, after a few days illness, Elizabeth, wife of Bryan Keating Sheehy, Esq. In the bloom of youth, she has been removed from those to whom she was the centre and spring of earthly happiness; from the relatives to whom she was more, or more, than words can picture; and from the attached friends to whom she was endeared by every affection which greatness of spirit, unchanging kindness, and virtuous intelligence could awaken.

At Castle Connell, on Wednesday night, much regretted, George Frewen, Esq.

In Jamaica, whither he had proceeded in January 1831, to fill an official situation, Mr Joseph Halpin, of this City.
 He had scarcely entered upon the duties of his office when he was seized with the prevailing epidemic of that country, the yellow fever, of which he died after an illness of 8 days.

At Donnybrook Castle, Adelaide Catherine, daughter of the Rev. Prince Crawford.

At Fermoy, aged 87 years, Mrs M. Osborne

At Youghal, the Rev. J. Walshe, Curate of Cloyne Priory.

At his residence, Mount Beamish, county Cork, the Rev.
 Samuel Beamish, aged 81 years.

At Roscrea, having ruptured a blood vessel a short time previous, Mary Anne, daughter of Capt. Lawson, C.C.P.

At the house of her daughter, Mrs. Larymore, South Main-street, Cork, aged 76 years, Christina, relict of the late Richard Hartland, Esq. of Bellview, Malin.

Mrs. Clune, wife of Mr. George Clune, ironmonger and whitesmith, of the Causeway, Ennis, leaving seven children.

At Killarney, of cholera, Mary Jane, daughter of Major Juxon, late of the 25th Regiment.

At Kenmare, George Cashel, sen. Esq.

In Strand-street, Tralee, Mrs. Reeves, relict of the late Dr. Reeves, formerly an eminent army surgeon, and of St.
 Bartholomew's, London.

At Bay View, Mount-strand, Mrs. Jane Ord.

At her father's house in Gardiner's-place, Dublin, aged 25 years, Anne, eldest daughter of James A. O'Reilly, Esq.

At Lucan, Robert Morrison, Esq. of Dublin.

In Cork, Mrs. Mullins, widow of Mr. C. Mullins.

In Clonmel, Miss Julia O'Leary.

In Tralee, of cholera, Mr. Garrett Cussen, major and Serjeant-Major Kerry Militia Regiment.

At her son's residence in Youghal, aged 71 years, Rose, relict of the late Samuel Roderick, Esq. of Ballyquin, in the county Waterford, and niece to the late celebrated Henry Eccles, of Lismore, Esq. who at his own request was buried on the top of Knockmeldown Mountain, near that place.

In Buttevant, Mrs. Hannah Atkins, wife of Geo. Atkins, Esq. and niece of the late Sir John Purcell.

At Ranelagh, Jane, wife of Richard Williamson, Esq.
 of Fitzwilliam-square, Dublin.

At Bath, John Byrne, Esq.

At Wesbaden, in child-bed, Eliza, wife of Captain John Gardener, late 5th Dragoon Guards.

At Thomas Mahon's, Esq. Ennis, of cholera, Miss Green.

At Charleville, aged 82, David O'Sullivan, Esq. formerly an extensive butter-merchant of Cork.

In Bruton-street, Dublin, the daughter of George L.
 Touche, Esq.

At Hardwicke-place, Dublin, Henrietta Florence, wife of the Rev. G. L. Irvine, Rector of Dunshaughlin.

At Henon-hill, Teignmouth, Maria, wife of Lieutenant Colonel Godwin, C. B.

At Chatham, Lieut. Shaw, 31st Regiment.

Mr. George Gardiner, of Bishopstone, Herefordshire, aged 94 years.

At Laveno, in Italy, aged 78 years, the Rev. Sir Henry Trelawny, Bart. of Trelawny, Cornwall.

At Brussels, Lady Charlotte Fitzgerald.

At Paisley, Richard Nash, only child of John Nash, Esq. late of the 79th Regiment, and grandson to the late Richard Nash, Esq. of the Rolls Office, Dublin, aged 18 years.

The Very Rev. C. Barton, Dean of Bochlog.

COUNTY
TO BE LET from the 25
 next, for such terms Lands of BALLYNOCKAN
 situate in Upper Ormpad, Three from Moneygall, and in rooiny Offices thereon, and in neighbourhood.
 Also, BALLYCAPPLE
 as yet finished, suited to a Acres of Land, or more if re-known Fox cover of Lower Nenagh, and One from Clou Also, MONGO PARK H
 a large family, with about required, near Castletown, about Six miles to the North Four miles from Borris-o-Ka Some Fine will be requi according to agreement, be Proposals to be sent (by let BARRY, jun. Esq. Bell Park

Rathkeale FEVER
AND DISSEMINATION
 AT a General Meeting
A RATHKEALE FEVER
PENSARY, held at the Sessions agreeably to the notice of the THOMAS LLOYD,
 Proposed by Mr. James Do Vereker:—That Mr. Francis from the office of Treasurer, scriptions, he has materially This resolution having be carried without one dissenting Proposed by the Knight of Esq.—That Edward Maunsel and requested to enter upon h Proposed by John Creagh, Plummer, Esq.—That a Gen
 the above institution be cul for the purpose of electing dishment.
 Proposed by Paris Ande Delmege, Esq.—That Mr. J Treasurer, be requested to demand the books, accounts, to the above institutions.
 Proposed by the Knight Egide.—That the subscrib sign the above resolution.
 Mr. Lloyd having left the being called thereto, it was thanks of the meeting he g his impartial and dignified co
 The resolutions were int thirty subscribers.

RATHKEALE FEVER
AND DISSEMINATION
 WE, the Undersigned, Committee of the FEVER HOSPITAL, request th tions will take no notice of to call a Meeting of the Sub ever, except such advertise Browne, Esq. the Treasurer person assuming to be Treasu illegally usurps that office.
 Gerald Bleunerhasset, J. R.
 & D. L.
 P. Smith, Clk.
 Robert Hunt, J. P.
 John Hewson,
 Thomas Royse, J. P.