

ated such a mon-
 been measured, and
 at I should either
 which I could not
 acy of which I had
 g my own friend.—
 any such proposal,
 three or four most
 e on the ground.—
 proposal even for a d Dr. Fitzgerald on remptorily called on eclined doing so, on declaring the affair
 scene of ruffianism acters which would
 l on the opposite side considered as taking elf and friend off the nd of the next field
 tter, by appointing n I persisted in de-consider the affair as ed—in which I shall ported therein, as I lthough it may not
 he approbation of a el with whom would lation. I feel it due ate, that his conduct
 n correct and gentle-above statement I notice of any state-
 e other parties.
 our's, &c.

RY HARDING.

ck, May 2d, 1834.

red to us as having Drs. O'Flaherty and there was no direct
 o you on the ground,
 Ingram's statement,
 that such must have ing stated to some of hearing of us all, that at he would have his s replied to by one of uld be no use in that, merick. Under these Ingram's misconcep-
 demand on you for a eld to that where the truly,

 GEORGE D. LEAKE,
 ES LANGTON,
 FREY MASSY.

At St. Pancras, London, S. N. Fisher, Esq. 51st Light Infantry, to Henrietta, only daughter of Henry Caslon, Esq.

At Cleobury Mortimer, Shropshire, Joshua J. Peele, Esq. Shrewsbury, to Cecilia, youngest daughter of the Rev. George Moultrie.

DEATHS.

This morning, at Bank-Place, after a long and tedious illness, which he bore with the most Christian resignation, William L.
 Fitzgerald, Esq. M.D. son of William Fitzgerald, Esq. of this City.
 He was a young Gentleman of high Professional attainments and much esteemed by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

At Abington, Mary, sister to the late Jeremiah Ryan, Esq.
 Of scarletina, the son and daughter of Lieut. Willis, 37th Regiment.

The Rev. James M'Nicholas, P.P. of Kiltamough.

Aged 95 years, the Rev. John Burke, P.P. of Kilmain. He is succeeded by the Rev. James Browne, late Curate of Belcarra.

At Listry, near Milltown, county Kerry, Mr. Francis Eagar.

At the house of his brother-in-law, T. Butler, Esq. Fermoy, the Rev. John Duan, P.P. of Cloyne, aged 40 years.

At Tralee, Mrs. Hutchinson, relict of the late John George Hutchinson, Esq.

At Wexford, Nicholas M'Donald Sarsfield, a descendant of Lord Lucan.

At Enniskillen, George Willis, Esq. formerly Captain 6th Foot.

In Waterford, Mrs. Ed. Walsh, Js. Maher, Esq. and Mr. Peter Corish.

At Innishannon, Kearns, youngest son of William Orr, Esq.

David, youngest son of the late Mr. George Wren, of Cork.

John Kennedy, Esq. of Exchange, Cork.

At Cork, Richard, younger son of Richard Meara, Esq.

Yesterday morning, at her house in Newenham-street, after a short illness, to the inexpressible grief of her family and friends, Mary Anne, relict of the late Robert Fetherstone, of Bruree, Esq. in this County, Esq. M.D.

In Newenham-street, Ellen, wife of Thomas Myles, Esq.

At Athlone, after a protracted illness, John Britton, Esq. M.D.

The Rev. Henry Crofton, 44 years Chaplain to the Royal Hospital, Kilmainham.

At his residence, Great Charles-street, Dublin, W. B. Stewart, Esq.
 for many years Surveyor-General of Ireland.

In Dublin, John Moore, of Aughnacloy, county Tyrone, solicitor.

In Dominick-street, Charles, third son of the Rev. Wm. R. Smith.

In Upper Baggot-street, Dublin, John Twycross, Esq. aged 64.

At Ballyboden, Anne, wife of Mr. A. Mulvey, of Cook-street.

At Fivemiletown, of rapid consumption, Mr. William Hyde.

At Charleville, Robert Maxwell, Esq.; a Gentleman much regretted.

At the Presentation Convent, Peter's-cell, after a few hours' illness, to the deep regret of her sister Nuns, Miss Bridget Shannon, niece of the Rev. Richard Welsh, P.P. of Thomond-Gate.

Mary Ann Hatten, daughter of the Rev. Ed. Harvey, of Coleraine.

Adelaide, the infant daughter of the Right Honourable Francis Blackburne, Attorney-General.

In London, Thomas Stothard, Esq. R.A. Mr. Stothard has made more drawings than any man who ever lived.

Mrs. Mary Shee, of Russell-place, Fitzroy-square, London.

Captain Lamont, M.P. for the city of Wells.

At her house in Berkeley-square, Mary, widow of the late William Lynch Palmer, Esq.

At Addington-place, Camberwell, Susannah Gay Payne, third child of Mr. John Robert Payne, of the Ordnance Office, Tower.

In Camberwell, Surrey, in his 63d year, the Rev. John Werninck, D.D. Chaplain to the Embassy of the Netherlands.

At Torquay, J. Watson, Esq. agent and principal proprietor of the Liverpool St. George Steam Packet Company.

At Lansdown-place, Bath, Ann, relict of the late Thomas Churchyard, Esq. of Whitecross street, London, aged 76.

At Clapton, Alexander Hutchison, Esq.

Wm. Thomas Poe, Esq. of Withdean, Sussex, one of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs.

Henry Dawson, Esq. of Ramsgate.

The Lady of Captain Ede, of the East Cornwall Militia.

At Exeter, George B. Eaton, Esq. M.D.

At Halifax, Nova Scotia, aged 52 years, Lieut. James Fullarton, of the 96th regiment.

In Jamaica, David Finlayson, Esq. formerly Speaker of the House of Assembly.

Eleanor Anne, aged 14, eldest daughter of the late Peter Watson,
 Esq. of Calcutta.

At Falmouth, Lieut. Robert Ede, R.N.

Near Bristol, George Edward O'Brien, Esq.

Dr. George Trimble, late of the 4th Dragoon Guards.

TOLLS, payable o
 Immediate possessio
 . Sealed Proposals
 Twelve o'Clock on S
 to be given for paym
 instalments.

By c

3rd May.

TO SPIRIT RET

27
 AGENT TO OFFICE I

(OPPO

ADVISES Spirit
 the Whiskey o
 of Twelve Gallons
 Distillery Terms.

Can have pure Old
 be met with, in qu
 for which a price of the quantity should
 will be made.

Purchasers must Whiskey from this Permit, they will
 o'clock are the Off
 Terms—CASH.

LIMERICK AS

Church

THE above Cha
 SUNDAY ne
 following Services
 with the Administr
 by the Chaplain.

A. M. Evening Se
 At the Forenoon Preached by the Mary's, Kilkenny

On each occasio
 liquidation of the POUNDS, remaini
 required for the C
 being £3,500, of v
 Contributions.

The liberality o
 solicited. The Co
 the Sermon, will b
 the Treasurer, at t
 also by the Chapla
 N. B.—The As soon as the house